Nuremberg Jeffrey Chipps Smith, 1985 Nuremberg Jeffrey Chipps Smith, 1983 Hans Folz and Print Culture in Late Medieval Germany Caroline Huey, 2016-04-22 In this study author Caroline Huey analyzes the copious literary output of medieval poet and barber surgeon Hans Folz in all its variety whether Meisterlied Reimpaarspruch or carnival play Heretofore published research to do with Folz's multifaceted and compelling oeuvre has been fragmentary because scholars have restricted themselves by genre in examining themes in Folz's work By integrating the different themes across Folz's output and by integrating consideration previously neglected by earlier critics of Folz's role as barber surgeon Huey offers new insights as to the interaction of these themes and to the character of the poet's work overall She shows that ultimately Folz is concerned with the circulation of knowledge and power correct and incorrect behavior and above all with finding order In each chapter Huey examines a particular theme from Folz's life and or work She looks at how adeptly he commandeers the new technology of printing to further his own ends how his ubiquitous physicality connects his medical body to his Christian body his attitude toward women and the anti Jewish thread in his work Visual Acuity and the Arts

Emblems in the Free Imperial City Mara R. Wade, Christopher D. Fletcher, Andrew C. Schwenk, 2024-03-04 Civic virtues were central to early modern Nrnberg's visual culture These essays in this volume explore Nrnberg as a location from which to study the intersection of art and power The imperial city was awash in emblems and they informed most aspects of everyday life The intent of this collection is to focus new attention on the town hall emblems while simultaneously expanding the purview of emblem studies moving from strict iconological approaches to collaborations across methodologies and disciplines

Painted Prints Susan Dackerman, 2002 Betr u a Hans Holbeins Totentanz in den Simulachres histori es faces de la mort Lyon 1538 S 176 179 The Eucharist in the Reformation Lee Palmer Wandel, 2006 The Eucharist in the Reformation Incarnation and Liturgy takes up the words this is my body this do and remembrance of me that divided Christendom in the sixteenth century It traces the different understandings of these simple words and the consequences of those divergent understandings in the delineation of the Lutheran Reformed and Catholic traditions the different formulations of liturgy with their different conceptualizations of the cognitive and collective function of ritual the different conceptualizations of the relationship between Christ and the living body of the faithful the different articulations of the relationship between the world of matter and divinity and the different epistemologies It argues that the incarnation is at the center of the story of the Reformation and suggests how divergent religious identities were formed

Parody and Festivity in Early Modern Art David R. Smith, 2017-07-05 Dwelling on the rich interconnections between parody and festivity in humanist thought and popular culture alike the essays in this volume delve into the nature and the meanings of festive laughter as it was conceived of in early modern art The concept of carnival supplies the main thread connecting these essays Bound as festivity often is to popular culture not all the topics fit the canons of high art and some of the art is distinctly low brow and occasionally ephemeral themes include grobianism and the grotesque scatology popular proverbs with ironic twists and a wide range of comic reversals some quite profound Many hinge on ideas of the world upside down Though the chapters most often deal with Northern Renaissance and Baroque art they spill over into other countries times and cultures while maintaining the carnivalesque air suggested by the book's title

Painting on Light Barbara Butts, Lee Hendrix, 2001-03-01 The names Albrecht Dürer and Hans Holbein the Younger evoke the dazzling accomplishments of Renaissance panel painting and printmaking but they may not summon images of stained glass Nevertheless Dürer Holbein and their southern German and Swiss contemporaries designed some of the most splendid works in the history of the medium This lavish volume is a comprehensive survey of the contribution to stained glass made by these extraordinarily gifted draftsmen and the equally talented glass painters who rendered their compositions in glass Included are discussions of both monumental church windows and smaller scale stained glass panels made for cloisters civic buildings residences and private chapels The subjects of these rarely seen drawings and panels range from religious topics to secular themes including love planets hunts and battles Focusing on stained glass produced in Germany and Switzerland from about 1495 to 1530 Painting on Light includes drawings by Dürer Holbein Albrecht Altdorfer Hans Baldung Grien Jörg Breu the Elder Hans Burgkmair Urs Graf Hans von Kulmbach Hans Leu the Younger Niklaus Manuel Deutsch Hans Schüfelein Hans Weiditz and others This informative book is published in conjunction with an exhibition at the Getty Museum from July 11 through September 24 2000 and from November 7 2000 to January 4 2001 at the Saint Louis Art Museum

The Material Imagination Matthew Mindrup, 2016-03-03 In recent years architectural discourse has witnessed a renewed interest in materiality under the guise of such familiar tropes as material honesty form finding or digital materiality Motivated in part by the development of new materials and an increasing integration of designers in fabricating architecture a proliferation of recent publications from both practice and academia explore the pragmatics of materiality and its role as a protagonist of architectural form Yet as the ethos of material pragmatism gains more popularity theorizations about the poetic imagination of architecture continue to recede Compared to an emphasis on the design of visual form in architectural practice the material imagination is employed when the architect thinks matter dreams in it lives in it or in other words materializes the imaginary As an alternative to a formal approach in architectural design this book challenges readers to rethink the reverie of materials in architecture through an examination of historical precedent architectural practice literary sources philosophical analyses and everyday experience Focusing on matter as the premise of an architect's imagination each chapter identifies and graphically illustrates how material imagination defines the conceptual premises for making architecture

Public Performances Jack Santino, 2017-12-15 Public Performances offers a deep and wide ranging exploration of relationships among genres of public performance and of the underlying political motivations they share Illustrating the connections among three themes the political the carnivalesque and the ritualesque this volume provides rich and comprehensive insight into public performance as an assertion of political power Contributors consider how public genres of performance express not only celebration but also dissent grief and remembrance examine the permeability of the boundaries between genres and analyze the approval or regulation of such events by municipalities and other institutions Where the particular use of public space is not sanctioned or where that use meets with hostility from institutions or represents a critique of them performers are effectively reclaiming public space to make public statements on their own terms an act of popular sovereignty Through these concepts Public Performances distinguishes the sometimes overlapping dimensions of public symbolic display Carnival and thus the carnivalesque is understood to possess tacit social permission for unconventional or even deviant performance on the grounds that normal social order will resume when the performance concludes Ritual and the ritualesque leverages a deeper symbolic sensibility one believed or at least intended by the participants to effect transformative longer term change Contributors Roger D Abrahams John Borgonovo Laurent S bastien Fournier Lisa Gilman Barbara Graham David Harnish Samuel Kinser Scott Magelssen Elena Martinez Pamela Moro Beverly J Stoeltje Daniel Wojcik Dorothy L Zinn
