William Dorman

Nurse Brenda's Husband:

Nurse Brenda's Husband Quenna Tilbury, 1989 Romance Nurse Brenda's Husband Quenna Tilbury, 1966 The Role of the Mental Health Nurse Sheila Forster, 2001 Nine contributions from academics and clinicians examine the various roles of the mental health nurse in relation to clients and colleagues and within the context of the health care organization Following an historical overview of mental health nursing individual chapters discuss the skills nurses need to fulfill their roles as assessors educators therapists reflectors managers supervisors researchers and clinicians Distributed in the US by ISBS c Book News Inc Gender, Bodies and Work Berit Brandth, 2017-05-15 All work is gendered and all work is embodied Yet in common with so many features of social life these connections have remained largely unnoticed in most areas of social enquiry All three topics gender bodies and work have their own history and theoretical concerns and have recently showed signs of convergence This volume recognizes this convergence and explores the inter connections more specifically The authors provide a set of questions which draw together themes already present in existing studies and which provide the basis for further analysis and theoretical elaboration The chapters explore processes of embodiment and disembodiment within working settings and discuss the implications of these for the construction of gendered identities Enhancing our knowledge of all three terms Gender Bodies and Work develops a perspective that has considerable potential both for assessing the past and exploring the future Caring for Elderly Parents Deborah M. Merrill, 1997-05-30 Based on open ended interviews with adult children and children in law this book documents how plain folk from the working and middle classes manage to provide care for their frail elderly parents while simultaneously meeting the obligations of their jobs and their own immediate families Adult children who care for elderly parents are pressured daily trying to juggle the responsibilities of work family and caregiving Deborah Merrill shows how plain folk as one caregiver termed herself from the working and lower middle classes manage to provide care for their frail elderly parents while simultaneously meeting the obligations of their jobs and their own immediate families The evidence is drawn from open ended in depth interviews with adult children and children in law all of whom have worked outside of the home at some point during caregiving Merrill examines the strategies that caregivers use to combine work and caregiving and the accommodations they make in their jobs She also points to the pathways that lead family members to caregiving roles and how those pathways vary according to family history gender and in law status By focusing on class differences in caregiving and pointing to policy implications Merrill has provided an invaluable resource for students researchers and policymakers in social work gerontology family studies and social issues Maternal Child Nursing Care - E-Book Shannon E. Perry, Marilyn J. Hockenberry, Deitra Leonard Lowdermilk, David Wilson, Kathryn Rhodes Alden, Kitty Cashion, 2017-09-09 Maternal Child Nursing Care E Book

Restoring the Healer William Dorman, 2016-02-28 Burn out Two words that haunt those in high stress jobs especially in the medical profession Long hours and the literal life and death nature of the field creates expectations to not only be on call at all hours but to be at one's best even at 3:00 AM after a twenty hour shift So much energy is devoted to the care of others that self care is forgotten Yet more are noticing and research confirms that self care is needed not only for personal sanity but also for quality of work Unwell medical professionals are not the best at treating others And this self care includes not just rest food and water but a deeper care one that tends the spiritual side as well To both the spiritually active and the spiritually resistant hospital chaplain William Dorman offers a guide to understand a more comprehensive full bodied self care Each chapter begins with case studies concrete experiences that help unpack abstract concepts which bring much needed peace to stressed individuals Dorman also structures each chapter to end with prayers and action steps which offer more concrete ways to care for the self From working as a hospital chaplain for over 18 years and serving as the director of chaplaincy services for the largest integrated health care system in New Mexico Rev Dorman recognizes the stresses that come to those who have made it their profession to heal others Healers need healing too and this guide is the first step

Blessed Events Pamela E. Klassen, 2021-06-08 Blessed Events explores how women who give birth at home use religion to make sense of their births and in turn draw on their birthing experiences to bring meaning to their lives and families Pamela Klassen introduces a surprisingly diverse group of women in their own words

while also setting their birth stories within wider social political and economic contexts In doing so she emerges with a study that disrupts conventional views of both childbirth and religion by blurring assumed divisions between conservative and feminist women and by taking childbirth seriously as a religious act Most American women who have a choice give birth in a hospital and request pain medication Yet enough women choose and advocate unmedicated home birth and do so for carefully articulated reasons social resistance among them to constitute a movement Klassen investigates why women whose religious affiliations range from Old Order Amish to Reform Judaism to goddess centered spirituality defy majority opinion the medical establishment and sometimes the law to have their babies at home In considering their interpretations including their critiques of the dominant medical model of childbirth and their views on labor pain she examines the kinds of agency afforded to or denied women as they derive religious meanings from childbirth Throughout she identifies tensions and affinities between feminist and traditionalist appraisals of the symbolic meaning of birth and the power of women What does home birth a woman centered movement working to return birth to women s control mean in practice for women s gender and religious identities Is this supreme valuing of procreation and motherhood constraining or does it open up new realms of cultural and social power for women By asking these questions while remaining cognizant of religion s significance Blessed Events challenges both feminist and traditionalist accounts of childbearing while broadening our understanding of how religion is lived in contemporary America

The December angel N.M. Lander, 2013-09 With the blink of an eye Mariella a professional writer who once felt she was on top of the world watches as her life crumbles right before her eyes The love of her life and her strength her husband Daniel a powerful business attorney was diagnosed with leukemia After hearing that he collapsed while in his law firm s office Mariella rushes to be at Daniel s side As a writer Mariella would write month after month in her own Journal and during times when she was facing situations as a person that she is trying to become Mariella and her two young girls watch while Daniel becomes weaker and sicker struggling each day with a disease that the doctors were unable to cure All they could do was stand there and watch and make whatever time left to be memorable As Mariella was trying to keep strong for her husband and two young girls Cassidy and Ryder she found herself building a wall to block out her own emotions a wall Mariella had put up for strength while dealing with Daniel s sickness Faced with the challenges of moving on without him at her side she tried to keep life normal in New England After losing Dan she found that the changes she was making in her life were not enough It is not that she didn t want to lose memories of Dan however she wanted to wipe off those bad memories the ones of him becoming weak and sick Mariella and her two young girls would soon find their new home in a town outside of Nashville Tennessee called Golden Oaks Moving to the South and leaving her northern life behind her she began running a local bed and breakfast while still writing Here she met Brenda a woman who she became good friends with and who introduced her to Jordan a man who she would soon consider the new love of her life Soon finding love again with a professional hockey player and also a coach for her daughter s hockey team she began to regain the part of her that was missing from her life love Mariella started to find happiness strength and hope all of which she had needed after meeting Jordan
