Nursing The European Dimension

Sondra Z. Koff

Nursing The European Dimension:

Nursing Sheila Quinn, Susan Russell, 1993 Since the signing of the Treaty of Rome in 1957 many changes have occurred in nursing in Europe and a great deal of work has been carried out on behalf of the Standing Committee of Nursing of the EC PCN This book traces the changes within each of the Member States Nursing Dame Sheila Quinn, Susan Russell, 1993

Nursing in the European Union Sondra Z. Koff, 2017-07-05 Europeanization has generated a galaxy of regimes laws organizations new actors and networks that have diluted institutional barriers to interaction across national borders Many nation based policy competencies have been transferred to the European level The European Union EU the world's first regional regulator bears consequences for the development of public policy and for policies affiliated with the nursing profession With limited exception the EU does not have formal powers in the health care arena However as a result of its efforts in other fields it has been heavily involved with health care and its providers Nursing in the European Union demonstrates how the organization has refashioned the nursing world throughout the member states via its power in many other policy domains This volume focuses on the EU's impact on nursing education regulation and research endeavours and suggests strategies to achieve desired objectives Volume 2 Nursing in the European Union The World of Work to be published in Fall 2016 focuses on real life situations and problems EU nurses face wages stress and dispute resolution Sondra Z Koff integrates the European experience with a discussion of nursing in the real world and presents the nursing profession in light of the European Union its components its mechanisms and its output and activities European Dimensions John Field, 1998 Field addresses the European Union's desire for a unified approach to education and its content exploring the origin of this interest the tensions that underlie the policies and its impact at national level Medical Bulletin of the European Command, 1989-07 European Dimensions and the Secondary School Curriculum Ivor Goodson, Veronica McGivney, 2018-10-03 Originally published in 1985 Europe and the EEC seemed to be virtually synonymous for the majority of our population and the ambivalent feelings many people have about the Community together with the consistently bad press it received in the UK seemed to engender a hostility in educational circles towards teaching about Europe as a whole However if one of the aims of education is to increase children's awareness tolerance and understanding of the world about them to widen their experience and horizons then teaching about the wider world must have a place in the curriculum This book argues for education about Europe not necessarily in favour of Europe breaking down the national insularity of the UK curriculum and using Europe as one convenient window on the wider world

Nursing and Social Change Monica F. Baly, 2002-09-11 Nursing and Social Change is essential reading for nurses who wish to understand how their profession had developed from its earliest beginnings to the present day Now in its third edition the book has been completely revised to take into account the challenges facing nurses Ten new chapters include contributions from senior members of the nursing profession who have been closely involved in the most recent health service reorganisation and the radical changes to nurse education Students and practitioners will find Nursing and Social Change invaluable as a comprehensive source of reference which offers a unique combination of scholarship and readability

The History of Families and Households: Comparative European Dimensions Silvia Sovic, Pat Thane, Pierpaolo Viazzo, 2015-11-30 The history of family and households has been the subject of intensive research for over a generation In the 1970s Peter Laslett and others set the agenda with a strong emphasis on geographical differences between northern and southern eastern and western Europe Others have challenged this view pioneering different approaches This volume takes stock of the field focussing particularly on family history in South East Europe in comparison with the rest of Europe The authors consider what European families have in common their regional and local differences and changes over time using the rich and fascinating variety of sources and methods used by family historians today Contributors include Guido Alfani Judit Ambrus Mirjana V Bobi Siegfried Gruber Peter Guzowski Violetta Hionidou Daniela Lombardi Beatrice Moring Silvia Sovi Pat Thane Alice Velkov Marta Verginella and Pier Paolo Viazzo Migrant Women M. Zulauf, 2001-10-30 Policy makers are concerned with facilitating labour mobility in the EU In the 1990s take up of employment in other EU countries has remained small This seminal work looks at the obstacles faced by women in the nursing and banking professions when they migrate between member states Basing her analysis on the personal accounts of migrants and discussions with colleagues and regulatory bodies in Britain Germany and Spain the author sheds light on one of the major challenges confronting the EU

Nurses and Nursing Pippa Gough, Nicola Walsh, 2000 This text aims to explore the way in which nurses and nursing can shape the development of public health policy It focuses on the development of public health within the current NHS reforms as well as the European Union

Dimensions on Nursing Teaching and Learning Sheila Cunningham, 2020-03-18 The book presents five significant areas of learning within professional programmes of preparation most applicable to student nurses and midwives in their pre registration education but also with relevance to other learners on healthcare related disciplines This volume has emerged from several sources the editor s role as a Director for Learning and Teaching in Adult Child Nursing and Midwifery and also from an EU funded project looking at quality benchmarks and assuring clinical learning environments HEALINT The Francis Report Francis 2013 and the Shape of Caring Report Willis 2015 highlighted challenges related to practice learning and mark a renewed focus in its overall significance Morley et al 2017 In addition to discussions regarding models of support in practice there is also a clear emphasis on the need for nurses to have the knowledge and skills to undertake more flexible roles and an increasing requirement for nurses to have higher order knowledge and skills at the point of registration according to the UK Nursing and Midwifery Council NMC 2017 The book will meet these new educational needs especillay for educators working in Nurse and midwife colleges The new standards of proficiency for pre registration nursing were published in 2018 with all higher education institutions HEIs approved to deliver the programme from September 2019 This creates a demand for a publication which explores the potential impact of a new education approach and issues with preparation teaching and learning for nurses and the breadth and dimensions of teaching and learning NMC proposed roles of Practice Supervisor Practice Assessor and Academic Assessor will not have a prescribed preparation programme and universities and practice partners will be seeking guidance and direction in developing local programmes of preparation
