Essays on Malaysia's Former Dominant Party Bridget

Welsh, 2022-12-06 What is the future of Malaysia's former dominant party the United Malays National Organisation or UMNO With the loss of government in the May 2018 General Election GE14 after 61 years in government the party faces a different more uncertain future It is grappling with its new role in the national political opposition and continued questions about the leadership of former prime minister Najib Tun Razak This collection is an expanded edition of the original 2016 The End of UMNO It includes the original five essays including the foreword by current Foreign Minister in the Pakatan Harapan government and former UMNO Supreme Council member Saifuddin Abdullah as well as new post GE14 epilogue essays by each of the contributors John Funston Clive Kessler James Chin and Bridget Welsh all prominent and established scholars studying Malaysian politics It also includes a new foreword by veteran UMNO leader Tengku Razaleigh Hamzah who contested for the party presidency in the June 2018 party elections The contributors in this collection study developments in Malaysia's dominant party the United Malays National Organisation UMNO and discuss the question of whether UMNO is in fact at an end The answers to its future lie in part with a better understanding of its past and present The authors draw attention to issues of party identity leadership membership governance institutional change party financing internal divisions and its relations with different communities and the public at large The new and expanded edition draws attention to the factors that contributed to UMNO's loss of government in GE14 and potential steps ahead Not only does this book fill an important gap in the scholarly research on UMNO this book offers different perspectives on the party's contemporary challenges This book aims to contribute to understanding broaden public debate and stimulate further research on arguably one of Malaysia s most important political institutions

Good News for Moderns Nero James Pruitt,2015-06-27 There are many ways to be a Christian In Good News for Moderns author Nero James Pruitt shows that within the pages of the New Testament there is room for a diversity of Christianities This is a diversity that is not talked about often but when properly understood expands the perception of what a Christian is Consider the words of Justin Martyr the second century Christian writer recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church the Anglicans and the Eastern Orthodox in about 150 AD We are taught that Christ is the first born of God and we have shown that He is the reason word of whom the whole human race partake And those who live according to reason are Christians even though they are counted atheists Such were Socrates and Heraclitus among the Greeks and those like them Consider the words of John Adams the second President of the United States in 1816 The Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount contain my religion Consider the words Bill Clinton the forty second President of the United States In 1955 I had absorbed enough of my churchs teachings to know that I was a sinner and to want Jesus to save me Finally consider the words of the writer of the small New Testament Book of III John Whoever does good is from God Good News for Moderns is based on Pruitts reading of the scriptures and over one hundred authors of various points of view In our busy time it is brief slightly more than one hundred thousand words supplemented by slightly less than one hundred thousand words of end notes It recognizes that human life moves by fast in what seems like an infinity of time and space and the book closes this way By listing many who have come before us and the immensity of time and space I have underscored the brevity of our lives because as a Psalmist taught recognizing our own mortality is the path to wisdom

Settlement Ann Birch,2010-09-01 The untold story of scandal and political intrigue in early Toronto Anna Jameson arrives in the tiny settlement of Toronto in November 1836 She has come at the request of her estranged husband but she intends to gather material for a new book which will eventually be published in England years later At first Anna finds herself in an alien world She has little in common with Toronto women whose interests centre on gossip and their families but as she begins to move into adventures like sleigh riding and helping to fight a major fire she enters a new life And she also meets man about town Sam Jarvis But Jarvis has a loving wife a pile of debts and a violent past The story is told from both their points of view She travels alone into the wilderness becomes the first white woman to descend the Sault rapids in a canoe and discovers the joy of freedom On Manitoulin Island she and Sam Jarvis meet again During a long canoe trip down Lake Huron they wrestle with the conflicts in their relationship and arrive at a settlement

The Real World, and the Other Real World Marcia Lewton,2004 The feature these fifteen diverse stories have in common is the humor that comes of pushing the reality of ordinary life just a few inches over the edge In the first story Duke Drunk in the Driveway a family funeral turns into a double funeral seen through the eyes of a little girl Gwennie who also tells the story in Webs Family shames and secrets are observed by a sharp eyed child whose parents each try to win her allegiance against the other

The Knitting Nancy and Pastures White with Clover are both told by women at the other end of life one celebrating her 80th birthday by imagining inviting people from all her old address books to a party the other wheeling out of the nursing home to go searching for her Own True Love The real world looks familiar enough in Ephesus New Jersey Here a young wife cowed by the moral correctness of her husband gets help from the ancient Greek philosopher Heraclitus as she takes her own stand In Gorgonzola Suns a painter is encouraged by her husband through a bad day at an art fair A letter carrier visits Alaska in The Frontier where his dream of eagles helps him break his attachment to a fickle woman A grieving father in Concordia awaits the arrival of his paranoid son trying desperately to stay in the present moment and not be overcome by memories of the past and worries of the future Reality begins to escape the envelope in When the Gift Fits when a young man finds himself the recipient of a mysterious gift that will teach him something he needs to know as he discovers its meaning The mother of an endless brood of children escapes her family in Amelioration to live in a mini warehouse The next two stories in this collection are written as though the world were perfectly ordinary but is it A young man in The Almost Perfect Flaw discovers that his attraction to the perfect woman who is frail and light enough to carry in his arms with her long dark hair swinging down over his elbow stricken down in youth by a death that did not leave marks Longing to be respectable he has to settle for a woman who is only almost perfect The heroine of Change at the Fortune Cookie Factory inherits the family business and enhances both divisions dough and fortunes far beyond what her parents had accomplished In the last two stories we move into a more altered realm The Other Real World begins when a woman gives birth to twins one of which is a bear cub Raising the twins carries her into a realm of possibility other than city government and shopping malls And the narrator of Melanchthon and the Process Server tries to save her numerous babies from disappearing from a house with sixty five people living in it I can believe that there are already sixty five only by counting them as they leave each morning to forage for their contributions to the daily soup It is not possible I compared the area of the house with the area of a person lying down multiplied by sixty five it is not possible But there they go out the door with their foraging implements knives hooks nets ropes a Bible a can of Dog Away by which we snatch choice bones and a ragged five dollar bill Sixty three sixty four sixty five These stories deal with life's tough issues but always the humor rescues them from heavy solemnity

The Curse of the Mummy: Uncovering Tutankhamun's Tomb (Scholastic Focus) Candace Fleming, 2021-09-07 Award winning and critically acclaimed author Candace Fleming presents the edge of your seat true story of the search for Tutankhamun's tomb the Western public's belief that the dig was cursed and the battle for ownership of the treasures within Scholastic Focus is the premier home of thoroughly researched beautifully written and thoughtfully designed works of narrative nonfiction aimed at middle grade and young adult readers These books help readers learn about the world in which they live and develop their critical thinking skills so that they may become dynamic citizens who are able to analyze and understand our past participate in essential discussions about our present and work to grow and build our future During the reign of the New Kingdom of Egypt the boy pharaoh Tutankhamun ruled and died tragically young In order to send him on his way into the afterlife his tomb was filled with every treasure he would need after death And then it was lost to time buried in the sands of the Valley of the Kings His tomb was also said to be cursed Centuries later as Egypt mania gripped Europe two Brits a rich earl with a habit for gambling and a disreputable determined archeologist worked for years to rediscover and open Tutankhamun s tomb But once it was uncovered would ancient powers take their revenge for disturbing and even looting the pharaoh s resting place What else could explain the mysterious illnesses accidents and deaths that began once it was found

A New History of Mississippi Dennis J. Mitchell, 2014-05-27 Creating the first comprehensive narrative of Mississippi since the bicentennial history was published in 1976 Dennis J Mitchell recounts the vibrant and turbulent history of a Deep South state The author has condensed the massive scholarship produced since that time into an appealing narrative which incorporates people missing from many previous histories including American Indians women African Americans and a diversity of other minority groups This is the story of a place and its people history makers and ordinary citizens alike Mississippi s rich flora and fauna are also central to the story which follows both natural and man made destruction and the major efforts to restore and defend rare untouched areas Hernando De Soto Sieur d Iberville Ferdinand Claiborne Thomas Hinds Aaron Burr Greenwood LeFlore Joseph Davis Nathan Bedford Forrest James D Lynch James K Vardaman Mary Grace Quackenbos Ida B Wells William Alexander Percy William Faulkner Eudora Welty Muddy Waters B B King Elvis Presley John Grisham Jack Reed William F Winter Jim Barksdale Richard Howarth Christopher Epps and too many more to list this book covers a vast and rich legacy From the rise and fall of American Indian culture to the advent of Mississippi s world renowned literary artistic and scientific contributions Mitchell vividly brings to life the individuals and institutions that have created a fascinating and diverse state

The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair, 2007-11-16 As part of its effort to expose Communist infiltration in the United States and eliminate Communist influence on movies from 1947 1953 the House Committee on Un American Activities subpoenaed hundreds of movie industry employees suspected of membership in the Communist Party Most of them including screenwriter Paul Jarrico 1915 1997 invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions about their political associations They were all blacklisted In The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair narrates the life movie career and political activities of Jarrico the recipient of an Oscar nomination for his screenplay for Tom Dick and Harry 1941 and the producer of Salt of the Earth 1954 one of the most politically besieged films in the history of the United States Though Jarrico did not reach the upper echelon of screenwriting he worked steadily in Hollywood until his blacklisting He was one of the movie industry s most engaged Communists working on behalf of dozens of social and political causes Song of Russia 1944 was one of the few assignments that allowed him to express his political beliefs through his screenwriting craft Though MGM planned the film as a conventional means of boosting domestic support for the USSR a wartime ally of the United States it came under attack by a host of anti

Communists Jarrico fought the blacklist in many ways and his greatest battle involved the making of Salt of the Earth Jarrico and other blacklisted individuals and the families of the miners who were the subject of the film created a landmark film in motion picture history As did others on the blacklist Jarrico decided that Europe offered a freer atmosphere than that of the cold war United States Although he continued to support political causes while living abroad he found it difficult to find remunerative black market screenwriting assignments On the scripts he did complete he had to use a pseudonym or allow the producers to give screen credit to others Upon returning to the United States in 1977 he led the fight to restore screen credits to the blacklisted writers who like himself had been denied screen credit from the late 1940s to the mid 1960s Despite all the obstacles he encountered Jarrico never lost his faith in the progressive potential of movies and the possibility of a socialist future The Marxist and the Movies details the relationship between a screenwriter's work and his Communist beliefs From Jarrico's immense archive interviews with him and those who knew him best and a host of other sources Ceplair has crafted an insider's view of Paul Jarrico's life and work placing both in the context of U S cultural history

For the Healing of the Nation William Russell Pregeant, 2016-04-14 For the Healing of the Nation offers a serious look at the social and political climate in the United States from a biblical perspective emphasizing race and otherness economics and the environment and institutional violence war and capital punishment An autobiographical thread traces the journey of a white male coming of age in the mid twentieth century Deep South as his evolving faith leads him to painful breaks with inherited values and standard views on controversial issues Critical not only of both major political parties but also of centrist compromises between Right and Left Russell Pregeant seeks a forward position which he terms ecocommunitarian based on biblical values His musings touch on both southern and American identities and on the nature of the biblical writings and the ways they should and should not be used in contemporary debates Central to the entire work are discussions of how idolatrous commitments to a culture's prevalent ideologies obscure the essential demands of biblical faith

Stalin's Romeo Spy Emil Draitser, 2010-03-19 Living a life that seems incredible even for a spy novel Dmitri Bystrolyotov was a sailor doctor lawyer and writer fluent in many languages whose success as a spy hinged on the fact that he was a charming handsome and very adept at seducing women He stole military secrets from Germany and Italy and fed Stalin information from all over Europe with his conquests including a French embassy employee the wife of a British official and a disfigured Gestapo officer His story took an unexpected turn when at the height of Stalin's purges he was arrested tortured and sentenced to hard labor in the Gulag where he risked further punishment by documenting how the regime he once served fully and unquestioningly had descended into a monstrous legacy of crimes against humanity

The Order of Purple Thorn Xin BanHongShuangXi, 2019-12-11 There was righteousness in the heaven and earth and it was all in the shape of a hodgepodge The bottom part was a river while the top part was a sun In the human world one could live freely With a righteous heart there was no difference between a region a gender or a status His name was Nan Feng and he had crawled out from the pile

Imitating Christ in Magwi Todd D. Whitmore, 2019-01-24 Imitating Christ in Magwi An Anthropological Theology achieves two things First focusing on indigenous Roman Catholics in northern Uganda and South Sudan it is a detailed ethnography of how a community sustains hope in the midst of one of the most brutal wars in recent memory that between the Ugandan government and the rebel Lord's Resistance Army Whitmore finds that the belief that the spirit of Jesus Christ can enter into a person through such devotions as the Adoration of the Eucharist gave people the wherewithal to carry out striking works of mercy during the conflict and like Jesus of Nazareth to risk their lives in the process Traditional devotion leveraged radical witness Second Gospel Mimesis is a call for theology itself to be a practice of imitating Christ Such practice requires both living among people on the far margins of society Whitmore carried out his fieldwork in Internally Displaced Persons camps and articulating a theology that foregrounds the daily if extraordinary lives of people Here ethnography is not an add on to theological concepts rather ethnography is a way of doing theology and includes what anthropologists call thick description of lives of faith Unlike theology that draws only upon abstract concepts what Whitmore calls anthropological theology is consonant with the fact that God did indeed become human It may well involve risk to one's own life Whitmore had to leave Uganda for three years after writing an article critical of the President but that is what imitatio Christi sometimes requires
