Village View James Collins, Neil Gosling, 2014-04-11 A year living on Symi a Greek island James blog posts from 2013 edited and set out in printed form with images by Neil Gosling take us through one whole year living on a small Greek island in southeast Greece From winter storms to summer visitors from photo walks to book signings and from goats to shrimp festivals Village View gives us an upfront honest and mildly edited account of James and Neil's eleventh year on Symi. Symi's charm is in its people and the minutiae of their lives. James's great talent lies in his careful observation of the absurd and the amusing, the dramas and the difficulties, because nothing in Symi is ever simple and in reporting what he sees with kind humour and a writer's eye for the details essential to lively travel writing. Anne Zouroudi, author of Bloomsbury's Greek Detective mysteries. A Treasure Hard to Attain David Howard Day, 1997. Covers the archaeological content of approximately 120 popular films, most of which have been produced in the United States since 1912. A unique feature is the inclusion of archaeologically significant dialogue from films that reveal how the industry portrays archaeology. Key words at the top of each page in the filmography allow readers to locate a particular film by title. Extensive commentaries appear for the newer pictures while briefer remarks are found for older films. New York Magazine, 1989-10-02. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea. Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08. Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read-alikes with this detailed and expertly constructed guide. Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe, smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives. Going Places: A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand, helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them. It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests. The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters, categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read-alikes and related reads by shared key topics. The author has also identified award-winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit, making this work an ideal guide for readers, advisors, as well as a book general readers will enjoy browsing. New York Magazine, 1988-09-19. New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country.
