Taliban Narratives Thomas H. Johnson, 2018-02-01 Why has the Taliban been so much more effective in presenting messages that resonate with the Afghan population than the United States the Afghan government and their allies

This book based on years of field research and the assessment of hundreds of original source materials examines the information operations and related narratives of Afghan insurgents especially the Afghan Taliban and investigates how the Taliban has won the information war Taliban messaging wrapped in the narrative of jihad is both to the point and in tune with its target audiences On the other hand the United States and its Kabul allies committed a basic messaging blunder failing to present narratives that spoke to or often were even understood by their target audiences Thomas Johnson systematically explains why the United States lost this battle of the story in Afghanistan and argues that this defeat may have cost the US the entire war despite its conventional and technological superiority Afghanistan C. Heather Bleaney, María Ángeles Gallego, 2006 Presents a thematically indexed bibliography devoted to Afghanistan Following the pattern established by one of its major data sources viz the acclaimed Index Islamicus both journal articles and book publications are included and indexed Bogowie: A Study of Eastern Europe's Ancient Gods T.D. Kokoszka, 2023-08-25 T D Kokoszka grew up in Texas with a Jewish mother and a Polish American father While he was aware of roots going back to Eastern Europe from both families he found it hard to learn very much about them He knew that Polish people would whack one another with palm leaves around Easter and he knew that his great grandmother purportedly believed in forest spirits known as borowy However it wasn't until he was in his teens that he became vaguely aware of an ancient people known as the Slavs who gave rise to the Polish Ukrainian Russian Serbian Bulgarian Slovakian Slovene and Czech languages It quickly became clear to him that this was a family of cultures currently under represented in popular culture and even in western scholarship Not simply a regurgitation of scholarship from the Soviet period and presenting new analyses by using previously neglected resources Bogowie A Study of Eastern Europe's Ancient Gods offers one of the most painstaking scholarly reconstructions of Slavic paganism These new resources include not only an overview of folklore from many different Slavic countries but also comparisons with Ossetian culture and Mordvin culture as well as a series of Slavic folktales that Kokoszka analyzes in depth often making the case that the narratives involved are mythological and shockingly ancient Readers will recognize many European folktale types and possibly learn to look at these folktales differently after reading this book pashtun tales from the pakistan-afghan frontier aisha ahmad, 2003 Australia's Muslim Cameleers Philip Jones, Anna Kenny, 2010 Between 1870 and 1920 as many as 2000 cameleers and 20 000 camels arrived in Australia from Afghanistan and northern India Australia's Muslim Cameleers is a rich pictorial history of these men their way of life and the vital role they played in pioneering transport and communication routes across outback Australia's vast expanses Many of the images and artefacts in this fascinating account are published here for the first time and this new edition contains additions to the biographical listing of more than 1200 cameleers A Companion to the Queenship of Isabel la Católica Hilaire Kallendorf, 2022-11-14 The queenship of the first European Renaissance queen regnant never ceases to fascinate Was she a saint or a bigoted zealot A pious wife or the one wearing the pants Was she ultimately responsible for genocide A case has been made to canonize her

Does she deserve to be called Saint Isabel As different groups from fascists to feminists continue to fight over Isabel as cultural capital we ask which if any of these recyclings are legitimate or appropriate Or has this figure taken on a life of her own Contributors to this volume Roger Boase David A Boruchoff John Edwards Emily Francomano Edward Friedman Cristina Guardiola Griffiths Michelle Hamilton Elizabeth Teresa Howe Hilaire Kallendorf William D Phillips Jr Nuria Silleras Fernandez Caroline Travalia and Jessica Weiss

The Dark Side of News Fixing Syed Irfan Ashraf, 2021-11-02 This book provides a local journalist's perspective on a four decade long regional contribution to global news production It shows how the fixers risky news pursuits made possible for global media to access distant regions and dangerous caves on Pakistan and Afghanistan borders causing unprecedented deaths of the local reporters in the context of the U S led war on terror The book analyzes the fixer as a role in its relationship with militarization It is not a coincidence that fixers become valuable to commercial media only during the height of violence or crises Emerging under conditions of scarcity or war the value of this role in turn is intrinsically tied to the fear of extinction It is this vulnerability or perceived expendability imposed by the need to find work that binds fixers in a symbiotic relationship with global market and global war This book then serves as a vantage point from which one can clearly see the connection between the regional wars and commercial media as well as local journalists transformation into daily wage earners in a global media shift toward neoliberalism

Folk Stories and Personal Narratives in Palestinian Spoken Arabic N. Sirhan, 2014-05-13 By analysing the folk stories and personal narratives of a cross section of Palestinians Sirhan offers a detailed study of how content and sociolinguistic variables affect a narrator's language use and linguistic behaviour This book will be of interest to anyone engaged with narrative discourse gender discourse Arabic studies and linguistics

Voices of the Unvoiced Shabana Shamaas Gul Khattak, 2025-01-14 This book focuses on Pukhtun women's educational struggle in the traditionalist Pukhtun society to succeed against the odds in Pukhtunkhwa Pakistan The study found higher education as a means of women's liberation their struggle and experiences for higher education give them a unique position in their patriarchal culture The province is dominated by the culture rather than the teaching of Islam Therefore people make decisions according to the Pukhtun culture and social values Strong roots of patriarchy reinforced a religious misinterpretation that culturalised Islam instead of Islamising their culture in the prevailing society Both the stories of the book concluded patriarchy was the main cause of women's marginalisation which further granted a fertile ground for the Taliban to sketch a strategic atrocity and ban women's education in the name of Islam in the Swat Valley Patriarchy and militarisation have been used as a tool for cultural governance of identity and maintenance of gender stratification by sharing common grounds of gender dynamics and women epistemology under liberal radical Marxist socialist Islamic feminism and feminist peace and conflict theories of women security Thus the book discussed feminist approaches concerned about unequal opportunities in higher education that challenged the propagation of male experience and knowledge The scope of the book is broad and focused on women empowerment and emancipation through education It addresses issues related to young Pukhtun women from disadvantaged areas who aspire to get higher education The main focus of the book is to hear Pukhtun women s own voices while discussing the issues related to higher education
