Pasos Perdidos:

Pasos Perdidos Alejo Carpentier, 1953-01-01      Los pasos perdidos Alejo Carpentier, 2009-03-30 Después de 56 años de su primera edición Los pasos perdidos la extraordinaria obra de Alejo Carpentier continúa siendo un clásico de la literatura hispanoamericana. Todavía hoy despierta el interés de los lectores porque desde sus primeras páginas reúne todos los elementos de una gran obra. Nos hallamos ante una gran aventura, la aventura del viaje a lo desconocido en las profundidades de una selva como la amazónica hasta un poblado primitivo. Para alcanzarlo se necesitaron sólo unas pocas semanas. No obstante parece que han transcurrido cientos de miles de años porque al viajar se ha desandado en el tiempo hasta el punto que al final del periplo nos encontramos con el ser humano en su estado primigenio cuando comenzaba sólo a nombrar las cosas. Quien realiza este viaje es un hombre amargado, enajenado, procedente de la civilización más adelantada tecnológicamente y al mismo tiempo más implacable y destructora espiritualmente. Nuestro protagonista tendrá que decidir si quiere permanecer en un mundo primitivo carente de bienes materiales pero donde ha encontrado la felicidad o retornar a la civilización donde es infeliz aunque posea todo. Dilema que puede ser el de cualquiera de nosotros. En resumen Los pasos perdidos constituye una profunda reflexión sobre el mundo de la modernidad y la situación en la que vive el ser humano, todo ello dibujado a través de lo real maravilloso y de un lenguaje barroco que Carpentier como nadie llevó hasta sus últimas consecuencias en definitiva una obra maestra de la literatura.

Los pasos perdidos Alejo Carpentier, 2021-04-22 Pieza magistral de la narrativa latinoamericana y perfecta ilustración del concepto de lo real maravilloso. Los pasos perdidos publicada en 1953 inaugura el período de plenitud creadora de la obra de Alejo Carpentier. 1904-1980. Novela inspirada en experiencias personales vividas por el autor en el interior de Venezuela, el viaje que lleva al anónimo protagonista a remontar el Orinoco hasta el interior de la selva en busca de un primitivo instrumento musical se revela asimismo como un retroceso en el tiempo a través de las etapas históricas más significativas de América hasta los mismos orígenes hasta la época de las primeras formas y de la invención del lenguaje.

Caribbean Interfaces Lieven d' Hult, 2007 Contemporary research on Caribbean literature displays a rich variety of themes, literary and cultural categories, forms, genres, languages. Still the concept of a unified Caribbean literary space remains questionable depending upon whether one strictly limits it to the islands, enlarges it to adopt a Latin American perspective or even grants it inter-American dimensions. This book is an ambitious tentative to bring together specialists from various disciplines, neither just French, Spanish, English or Comparative studies specialists nor strictly Caribbean literature specialists but also theoreticians, cultural studies scholars, historians of cultural translation and of intercultural transfers. The contributions tackle two major questions: what is the best possible division of labor between comparative literature, cultural anthropology and models of national or regional literary histories; how should one make use of transversal concepts such as memory, space, linguistic awareness, intercultural translation, orature or hybridization. Case studies and concrete projects for integrated research alternate with theoretical and historiographical contributions This volume is of utmost interest to students of Caribbean studies in general but also to anyone interested in Caribbean literatures in Spanish English and French as well as to students in comparative literature cultural studies and transfer research

Distant Relation Eoin S. Thomson, 2001-01-24 The Distant Relation breaks down the artificial division between philosophy and literature by weaving contemporary philosophic arguments through close readings of Carpentier Rulfo Paz and Garcia Marquez Thomson draws the reader into the largely uninhabited space between philosophy and literature providing new critical strategies that allow text and reader to respond to the very distance they share These strategies involve a reconceptualization of distance that recognizes the productive and affirmative nature of separation The Distant Relation will attract anyone interested in the ongoing struggle to overcome conventional interpretations of language time and identity within the broader context of philosophical trends and Spanish American studies

Barroco y neobarroco en la narrativa hispanoamericana Cristo Rafael Figueroa, 2008 Estructurado en dos partes En la primera se analiza el concepto de barroco desde la historia sem ntica de la palabra para pasar luego a la discusi n sobre la naturaleza del barroco que no es s lo un estilo de poca sino una constante de la cultura y de los estilos est ticos En la segunda parte el estudio de cinco textos narrativos Los pasos perdidos y Concierto barroco de Carpentier Rayuela de Cortazar Paradiso de Lezama Lima y El Oto o del patriarca de Garc a M rquez muestra como estas obras m s all de constituir una recreaci n de procedimientos del s XVII rehabilitan tradiciones propias

Carpentier's Proustian Fiction Sally Harvey, 1994 Critical study of Cuban novelist and Proust s influence on selected works

Carpentier's Baroque Fiction Steve Wakefield, 2004 Carpentier was one of the first novelists to introduce a version of magical realism and the neo baroque into Latin American fiction This study focuses on one of the first novelists to introduce a version of magical realism and the neo baroque into Latin American fiction Original research colours eyewitness accounts of Alejo Carpentier s travels through Spain before and during the Spanish Civil War and the inspiration that he drew from the Baroque architecture he encountered there The origins of Carpentier s uniquely baroque style are found in his endeavour to create a period ambience in his historical fictions through descriptions of visual arts and architectural settings and parodies of the literary style of Spanish Golden Age writers Medusa s gaze is used as a metaphor for the petrifying power of the Baroque as a weapon of European dominance By wielding the same weapon in an act of postcolonial defiance Carpentier enabled a reassertion of Latin American culture and laid the foundations for the 1960s Boom in the Latin American novel STEVE WAKEFIELD is Visiting Research Fellow at the University of New South Wales Australia

Alejo Carpentier and His Early Works Frank Janney, 1981 Published by Boydell Brewer Inc

Marvelous Journeys Margaret Heady, 2008 Marvelous Journeys explores the transition from a modernist to a postmodernist consciousness in twentieth century Caribbean writings on identity that is reflected through a corresponding evolution in the use of the marvelous as a literary tool For the three novelists who are the focus of this study Jacques Stephen

Alexis Alejo Carpentier and Simone Schwarz Bart the discourse of the marvelous offers a uniquely Caribbean vehicle for capturing an elusive Caribbean essence as well as for coming to terms with the seemingly contradictory demands of a Parisian intellectual formation and an authentic Caribbean sensibility This book engages with recent debates in criticism and theory and will appeal to a broad spectrum of readers interested in Francophone literature Caribbean studies and literary and postcolonial theory It contributes to the burgeoning field of Caribbean literary studies by adopting a transcultural approach to a neglected but increasingly important area of study the circulation of ideas and influences among the Hispanic and Francophone Caribbean islands and the African and European continents Colonial Tropes and Postcolonial Tricks

Lesley Wylie, 2009-01-01 This volume offers a new reading of the Spanish American novela de la selva genre often interpreted as a belated imitation of European travel literature Arguing against the commonly held opinion of the genre's derivative nature Colonial Tropes and Postcolonial Tricks examines how novela de la selva fiction reimaged the tropics from a Latin American perspective and redefined tropical landscape aesthetics and ethnography through parodic rewritings of European perspectives Analyzing four emblematic novels of the genre this book considers the crucial place of the jungle as a locus for the contestation of national and literary identity by post independence Latin American writers Reparative Aesthetics

Susan Best, 2016-10-20 By offering a new way of thinking about the role of politically engaged art Susan Best opens up a new aesthetic field reparative aesthetics The book identifies an innovative aesthetic on the part of women photographers from the southern hemisphere who against the dominant modes of criticality in political art look at how cultural production can be reparative The winner of the Art Association of Australia and New Zealand best book award in 2017 Reparative Aesthetics contributes an entirely new theory to the interdisciplinary fields of aesthetics affect studies feminist theory politics and photography Conceptually innovative and fiercely original this book will move us beyond old political and cultural stalemates and into new terrain for analysis and reflection Being in Common

Silvia Nora Rosman, 2003 Rosman persuasively demonstrates how they explore ways of being in common the communal relation when the notion of a common being a totalized conception of community is shown to be untenable In doing so she incorporates and looks beyond her predecessors theoretical resources to urgent contemporary preoccupations with how to imagine identity in a post national moment Jacket

Mourning El Dorado Charlotte Rogers, 2019-06-13 What ever happened to the legend of El Dorado the tale of the mythical city of gold lost in the Amazon jungle Charlotte Rogers argues that El Dorado has not been forgotten and still inspires the reckless pursuit of illusory wealth The search for gold in South America during the colonial period inaugurated the promise of El Dorado the belief that wealth and happiness can be found in the tropical forests of the Americas That assumption has endured over the course of centuries still evident in the various modes of natural resource extraction such as oil drilling and mining that characterize the region today Mourning El Dorado looks at how fiction from the American tropics written since 1950 engages with the promise of El Dorado in the age of the Anthropocene Just as the golden kingdom was never found natural resource extraction has not produced wealth and happiness for the peoples of the tropics While extractivism enriches a few outsiders it results in environmental degradation and the subjugation displacement and forced assimilation of native peoples This book considers how the fiction of five writers Alejo Carpentier Wilson Harris Mario Vargas Llosa Ivano Vukobratovic and Milton Hatoum criticizes extractive practices and mourns the lost illusion of the forest as a place of wealth and happiness

Acoso y ocaso de una ciudad Yolanda Izquierdo, 2002

Fictional Environments Victoria Saramago, 2020-11-15 Finalist 2022 ASLE Ecocritical Book Award Fictional Environments Mimesis Deforestation and Development in Latin America investigates how fictional works have become sites for the production of knowledge imagination and intervention in Latin American environments It investigates the dynamic relationship between fictional images and real places as the lasting representations of forests rural areas and deserts in novels clash with collective perceptions of changes like deforestation and urbanization From the backlands of Brazil to a developing Rio de Janeiro and from the rainforests of Venezuela and Peru to the Mexican countryside rapid deforestation took place in Latin America in the second half of the twentieth century How do fictional works and other cultural objects dramatize resist and intervene in these ecological transformations Through analyses of work by João Guimarães Rosa Alejo Carpentier Juan Rulfo Clarice Lispector and Mario Vargas Llosa Victoria Saramago shows how novels have inspired conservationist initiatives and offered counterpoints to developmentalist policies and how environmental concerns have informed the agendas of novelists as essayists politicians and public intellectuals This book seeks to understand the role of literary representation or mimesis in shaping sustaining and negotiating environmental imaginaries during the deep ongoing transformations that have taken place from the 1950s to the present

The Lost Steps Alejo Carpentier, 2023-09-12 If Carpentier is ever to get a new reading in English it should be now West's translations reintroduce English language readers to this giant of Latin American fiction Natasha Wimmer The New York Review of Books The best known book by Cuba's most important twentieth century novelist in its first new English translation in more than sixty years and featuring a new introduction by Leonardo Padura A Penguin Classic Dissatisfied with his empty Sisyphus-like existence in New York City where he has abandoned his creative dreams for a job in corporate advertising a highly cultured aspiring composer wants nothing more than to tear his life up from the root He soon finds his escape hatch a university sponsored mission to South America to look for indigenous musical instruments in one of the few areas of the world not yet touched by civilization Retracing the steps of time he voyages with his lover into a land that feels outside of history searching not just for music but ultimately for himself and turning away from modernity toward the very heart of what makes us human For more than seventy five years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 2 000 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to
