Passage Paintings 1995 1996:

John M. Miller John M. Miller, David Pagel, 1996 Art Education 11-18 Richard Hickman, 2004-01-01 The second edition of the fascinating collection of essays on teaching art in secondary schools boasting a new chapter on visual culture as well as extensive material on the changes that have occurred in this area since 2000 What kind of art would we like school and college students to produce What kind of art do we want them to engage with What is the process of this engagement How should we organize the processes By asking fundamental questions such as these Richard Hickman and his team of contributors illustrate the new possibilities for art education in the twenty first century and draw out the implications for classroom practice making Art Education 11 18 the definitive guide to the subject in the postmodern era Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art John M. Miller John M. Miller, 1996 The Museum as Muse Kynaston McShine, 1999 Published on the occasion of the exhibition of the same name held at the Museum of Modern Art New York March 14 June 1 1999 British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9 000 painters and 90 000 paintings in more than 1 700 separate collections The book includes as well pictures that are now lost some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de accessioning mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works including around 13 000 which do not yet have any form of attribution this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference one that will transform the study of British and Irish painting Latin American and Caribbean Artists of the Modern Era Steve Shipp, 2003-01-01 This is a comprehensive reference book to more than 12 700 painters sculptors graphic artists and architects in Latin America Mexico Central America South America and the Caribbean region active during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Entries include the artists years countries and bibliographies Also included are brief biographical and stylistic notes a record of each artist s exhibitions and a list of collections where the works can be seen There are 89 photographs of selected works supplementing the entries The introduction includes brief informative background essays on the individual countries and their artists Roger Hilton Adrian Lewis, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2003 Twenty seven years after his death Roger Hilton s reputation as a leading figure in British abstract expressionism continues to rise Following the major retrospective exhibition at the Hayward Gallery in 1993 and the drawings survey at the Tate St Ives in 1997 this lavishly illustrated account is the first to provide a comprehensive overview of the life and work of this important artist Hilton s extraordinary career is discussed in all its phases from the intriguing earliest explorations in paint to the inception of his first abstract pieces around 1950 and the complex and intriguing interchanges of imagery and form that mark his final works Adrian Lewis explains the artist's mature works as both attracting the viewer and resisting easy reading and discusses in detail the artist's debt to the Ecole de Paris and his relation to the notion of the act of painting that pervaded post war culture Going Forth by Day Bill Viola, 2002 Introduction by John G Hanhardt Quoting Caravaggio Mieke Bal, 1999-08 A rigorous rewarding work Quoting Caravaggio is at once a meditation on history as a creative nonlinear process a study of the work of Caravaggio and the Baroque and a brilliant critical exposition of contemporary artistic expression 62 color plates 25 halftones Contemporary Chinese Art Jeanne Boden, 2022-05-06 In the early 1990s artist Xu Bing stamped two pigs with respectively nonsensical Latin words and fake Chinese characters and allowed them to mate in an art gallery The performance of two creatures devoid of human consciousness yet carrying on their bodies the marks of human civilization engaging in the most primal form of social intercourse confronted the public with the tension between nature and civilization The work also addresses the tension between China and the West and therefore perfectly fits the core message of this book Contemporary art in China takes place in a post socialist post Mao context and at the same time a post traditional one searching for balance between aesthetic legacy and modernization It also tries to find its position in the post colonial globalized arena This book explores the tension between individual artistic freedom and a dominant discourse of central Chinese government between China's cultural legacy and modernization and between China and a global art world still dominated by a Western canon As a case study it focuses on the artists who participated in the Venice Biennale in 1993 which was the first time contemporary art from mainland China was structurally invited to participate in a global art context Jeanne Boden has a PhD in Oriental Languages and Cultures Her research focuses on Eurocentrism Sinocentrism and contemporary Chinese art jeanneboden.com Cover picture Xu Bing A Case Study of Transference 1993 94 Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines Deane E. D. Downey, Stanley E. Porter, 2009-04-15 This book an edited compilation of twenty nine essays focuses on the differences that a Christian worldview makes for the disciplines or subject areas normally taught in liberal arts colleges and universities Three initial chapters of introductory material are followed by twenty six essays each dealing with the essential elements or issues in the academic discipline involved These individual essays on each discipline are a unique element of this book These essays also treat some of the specific differences in perspective or procedure that a biblically informed Christian perspective brings to each discipline Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is intended principally as an introductory textbook in Christian worldview courses for Christian college or university students This volume will also be of interest to Christian students in secular post secondary institutions who may be encountering challenges to their faith both implicit and explicit from peers or professors who assume that holding a strong Christian faith and pursuing a rigorous college or university education are essentially incompatible This book should also be helpful for college and university professors who embrace the Christian faith but whose post secondary academic background because of its secular orientation has left them inadequately prepared to intelligently apply the implications of their faith to their particular academic specialty. Such specialists, be they professors or upper level graduate students, will find the extensive bibliographies of recent scholarship at the end of the individual chapters particularly helpful. Downey and Porter present a unique contribution to the perennial question of how faith interacts with the academic disciplines. Numerous factors contribute to this book's significance: the common conviction that one's Christian beliefs ought to shape the contents of one's teaching; the variety of perspectives and opinions; and the wide range of academic disciplines under discussion. The essays, originating among the excellent faculty of Trinity Western University, will deservedly be much used in undergraduate colleges and universities. Hans Borsma, J. I. Packer, Professor of Theology, Regent College. Few faculty, Christian or otherwise, understand what their colleagues in other departments are doing or why. This collection of essays is not only an excellent introduction to the whole scope of academic enterprises but to the unique and important relationship between each discipline and the Christian faith. An important book not only for the entire range of faculty but for students yearning to understand both their Christian faith and what is being taught in the classroom. James W. Sirf, author of The Universe Next Door and with co-author Carl Peraino, Deepest Differences: A Christian-Atheist Dialogue. Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is a book long overdue. It will serve as an outstanding textbook for interdisciplinary courses. But this book is more than that. Christian Worldview and the Academic Disciplines is a book that everyone concerned with Christian thought, especially in the context of the Academy, will want to read. I highly recommend it. Craig A. Evans, Payment Distinguished Professor of New Testament, Acadia Divinity College, Nova Scotia.

Art Song in the United States, 1759-1999 Judith E. Carman, William K. Gaeddert, Rita M. Resch, 2001-12-04. Originally created as a teaching tool, this bibliography has taken on a second life as a research tool for various facets of American art song, including in this edition both current and historical discography.

After Modern Art 1945-2000 David Hopkins, 2000-09-14. Following a clear timeline, the author highlights key movements of modern art, giving careful attention to the artists' political and cultural worlds. Styles include Abstract Expressionism, Pop Art, Minimalism, Conceptualism, Postmodernism, and performance art. 65 color illustrations, 65 halftones.

Is Art History Global? James Elkins, 2013-10-18. This is the third volume in The Art Seminar, James Elkin's series of conversations on art and visual studies. Is Art History Global? stages an international conversation among art historians and critics on the subject of the practice and responsibility of global thinking within the discipline. Participants range from Keith Moxey of Columbia University to Cao Yiqiang, Ding Ning, Cuautemoc Medina, Oliver Debroise, Renato Gonzalez Mello, and other scholars.

Louise Bourgeois Josef Helfenstein, 2002. Complex and highly idiosyncratic, the work of Louise Bourgeois enthralled audiences throughout the world. Beginning in the 1940s, shortly after arriving in New York City, Bourgeois produced her first mature, highly original paintings, drawings, and sculptures. While most of her contemporaries were drawn toward pure abstraction, the work of Louise Bourgeois entered the realm of the psychological and symbolic. Themes already evident in these early works continued to resonate throughout her career The Personages represent her first explorations in sculpture summoning a physical presence they suggest moments of alienation as well as evocative encounters This comprehensive catalogue features the artist s work from the 1940s and 1950s including 25 sculptures 17 paintings 30 drawings and the series of prints inspired by New York s landscape of skyscrapers He Disappeared into Complete Silence which presents Bourgeois own hermetic texts juxtaposed with enigmatic pictures An essay explicates the role of ritual and representation in the work of Louise Bourgeois and includes rare documentary photos Josef Helfenstein is director of Krannert Art Museum at the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

Handbook of Rock Art Research David S. Whitley, 2001 While there has always been a large public interest in ancient pictures painted or carved on stone the archaeological study of rock art is in its infancy But intensive amounts of research has revolutionized this field in the past decade New methods of dating and analysis help to pinpoint the makers of these beautiful images new interpretive models help us understand this art in relation to culture Identification conservation and management of rock art sites have become major issues in historical preservation worldwide And the number of archaeologically attested sites has mushroomed In this handbook the leading researchers in the rock art area provide cogent state of the art summaries of the technical interpretive and regional advances in rock art research The book offers a comprehensive basic reference of current information on key topics over six continents for archaeologists anthropologists art historians and rock art enthusiasts

After Modern Art David Hopkins, 2018 A beautifully illustrated new edition of this pioneering study of art since 1945 Focussing mainly on the relationship between American and European Art this book offers an up to date introduction to the major artists and movements of recent years

A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings V Ernst van de Wetering, 2013-12-12 This volume is the fifth volume of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings a project devoted to all Rembrandt s paintings This is the work of The Rembrandt Research Project consisting of a group of scholars led since 1993 by Professor Ernst van de Wetering The project began in 1968 with the aim of separating Rembrandt s own paintings from the vast number of Rembrandtesque paintings made by his many apprentices and followers Having opted for a chronological approach to the cataloguing of Rembrandt s paintings from 1625 till 1642 in the first three volumes it was decided in 1993 to adopt a thematic approach for further volumes This was largely to facilitate the recognition of different hands The new approach yielded much more information not only about Rembrandt s working methods but also about the function and meaning of his works This expanded field of view meant that etchings and drawings with similar themes also needed to be included In 2005 Volume IV appeared devoted to Rembrandt s self portraits in painting etching and drawing Volume V consists of a catalogue and analysis of the so called small scale history and genre paintings That theme was chosen because this type of complex work shows a variety of full length protagonists acting in different narrative settings For this reason in the 17th century painting etching or drawing biblical and mythological scenes was looked upon as an artist s greatest challenge The choice of this theme proved to be highly fruitful in several ways Small scale history pieces reveal Rembrandt s artistic ambitions most clearly They also offer the authors a much more accurate view of the daily routine in Rembrandt's studio his apprentices mostly copied this type of work or used it as a starting point for their own As a result it was easier to distinguish the works by the master himself from those of his pupils All aspects of the skills necessary to create a pictorial illusion play a part in the creation of small figured history paintings These aspects were referred to as the basis of the noble art of painting in Rembrandt's days Two seventeenth century painter theoreticians discussed these principles systematically in two books which up till now have only sporadically been consulted in the context of 17th century studio practice Karel van Mander wrote his Grond der edel vry schilder const Basis of the Art of Painting in 1604 and Samuel van Hoogstraten produced his Inleyding tot de hooge schoole der schilder konst Academy of Painting in 1678 Van Hoogstraten was a pupil of Rembrandt between 1642 and 48 Comparing the two books and considering them in relation to Rembrandt's oeuvre gradually reveals his original views on painting and how these had developed during his career Thus the authors of this new Volume of A Corpus have gained an unexpected and profound insight into Rembrandt's ideas and approach to his art The basic aspects of painting included the following topics function and methods of drawing human proportions various positions poses and gestures of figures ways of arranging a scene's protagonists in a composition facial expressions of a variety of emotions light shadows and reflected light landscape and animals draperies and articles of clothing methods of painting and various characteristics and uses of colours The way these basic aspects were selected and dealt with presumed that the more practical side to the art of painting would be learned by the apprentice in the daily routine of his master's studio With the development of art history in the nineteenth century the basic aspects of the art of painting listed above acquired the vague label of style However the seventeenth century categorization of the basic aspects provides a much more acute means of probing the views and criteria for judging a painting by Rembrandt and his contemporaries than the concept of style Volume V in the series A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings breaks new ground from the point of view of art history not only in its approach to Rembrandt as an artist but more particularly to his thinking about painting Moreover a detailed comparison of Rembrandt's works and those by his apprentices who based their works on his led to a profound and detailed understanding of Rembrandt's views on pictorial quality In art historical literature quality usually does not feature prominently since it is regarded as being too subjective This comparative approach together with the analysis of seventeenth century categories of thought about painting have given the research on Rembrandt a new impetus at the same time allowing us to see more clearly through seventeenth century eyes That is why the new volume of the Corpus is an important publication not only for art historians but also for all who want to fully enjoy the numerous works of art that date back to the Dutch Golden Age now scattered in museums around the world

Hidden Histories Michael Petry, 2004 Exhibition catalogue Hidden Histories is the first international historical survey of its kind on the lives and work of 20th century male artists who were same sex lovers It investigates the relationship between the artists production and the development of their sexual identity
