Passage Through Silence And Light:

A Passage Through Silence and Light Daniel Libeskind, Raoul Bunschoten, 1997 This is a photographic study of Daniel Libeskind's extension to the Berlin Museum. It is Helene Binet's second book of architectural photographs and commentary is provided by Raoul Bunschoten.

Kieran Timberlake: Fullness Kieran Timberlake (Firm), 2019 Kieran Timberlake Fullness is the third monograph by the architecture firm Kieran Timberlake demonstrating its exacting sophisticated and elegant projects of the past decade. This book examines the concepts and contexts for seventeen recent projects in a range of scales and programs from houses to campus buildings to a transit hub and an embassy showing how the firm's formative values have combined with innovative design methodologies, a commitment to full-scale in-house prototyping and a collaborative ethos to realize works of ambitious scope and complexity. Organized in two volumes, this book illustrates the comprehensive range of architectural beauty present in Kieran Timberlake's buildings and the evidence for their mastery of design at all scales and orientations. The first volume presents photographs of each project depicting the visual whole of the architecture as a fully resolved work. The companion volume reveals the sum of its parts, the pivotal junctures that give rise to final form, including both the moments of discovery and the pragmatic tools of analysis and prototyping that the firm uses. Narratives, drawings, diagrams, details, and anecdotes capture the design process and reveal the varied approaches that give form to the art and science of Kieran Timberlake's architecture. Kieran Timberlake is an award-winning architecture firm founded in 1984. The 100-person practice is recognized for its transdisciplinary approach which integrates the expertise of architects, researchers, and communicators to create innovative compelling projects and academic, art, cultural, government, and civic institutions throughout North America and overseas.

Linguistic Manifestations in the Trimorphic Protennoia and the Thunder: Perfect Mind Tilde Bak Halvgaard, 2016-05-02 Both the Thunder Perfect Mind NHC VI 2 and the Trimorphic Protennoia NHC XIII 1 present their readers with goddesses who descend in such auditive terms as sound, voice, and word. In Linguistic Manifestations in the Trimorphic Protennoia and the Thunder Perfect Mind, Tilde Bak Halvgaard argues that these presentations reflect a philosophical discussion about the nature of words and names, utterances, and language, as well as the relationship between language and reality inspired especially by Platonic and Stoic dialectics. Her analysis of these linguistic manifestations against the background of ancient philosophy of language offers many new insights into the structure of the two texts and the paradoxical sayings of the Thunder Perfect Mind.
