Passing Day The:

The Day Will Pass Away Ivan Chistyakov, 2017-08-08 A rare first person testimony of the hardships of a Soviet labor camp long suppressed that will become a cornerstone of understanding the Soviet Union Originally written in a couple of humble exercise books which were anonymously donated to the Memorial Human Rights Centre in Moscow this remarkable diary is one of the few first person accounts to survive the sprawling Soviet prison system At the back of these exercise books there is a blurred snapshot and a note Chistyakov Ivan Petrovich repressed in 1937-38 Killed at the front in Tula Province in 1941 This is all that remains of Ivan Chistyakov a senior guard at the Baikal Amur Corrective Labour Camp Who was this lost man How did he end up in the gulag Though a guard he is a type of prisoner too We learn that he is a cultured and urbane ex city dweller with a secret nostalgia for pre Revolutionary Russia In this diary Chistyakov does not just record his life in the camp he narrates it He is a sharp eyed witness and a sympathetic humane and broken man From stumblingly poetic musings on the bitter landscape of the taiga to matter of fact grumbles about the inefficiency of his stove from accounts of the brutal conditions of the camp to reflections on the cruelty of loneliness this diary is an astonishing record a visceral and immediate description of a place and time whose repercussions still affect the shape of modern Russia and modern Europe

Chinedu Nnadi, 2025-04-08 Nigeria is a country of extraordinary promise, vibrant, complex, teeming with energy and potential. Yet beneath its rich soil and boundless spirit lies a painful paradox: generations of brilliance have been buried before they could bloom. Greener Pastures was born from a place of deep reflection on loss, injustice, and the silent despair that too many young people in Nigeria and beyond endure. It is not just Chuka's story; it is the story of every gifted mind buried beneath systemic neglect, every mother who mourns in silence, every sister who turns grief into grit, and every community that chooses to rise rather than wither. This story is both a mirror and a map: a mirror to confront the cracks in our society and a map pointing toward what is possible when we act with empathy, courage, and unity. Chuka's journey speaks to real struggles and real hope. If his story compels even one person to listen, to fight, to build, or to believe in the power of community-driven change, then Greener Pastures has done its work. Cruel Intentions: Short Stories

Ayokunle Mathew Akinbi, 2025-03-08 In Cruel Intentions, readers are transported into a world of opulence and intrigue where the veneer of high society hides dark secrets and dangerous desires. Set against the backdrop of glittering ballrooms and shadowy alleyways, this captivating tale follows the journey of Evelyn Sinclair, a woman caught in a web of deception, betrayal, and forbidden love. From the moment Evelyn receives an invitation to the clandestine Coterie of Shadows, her life takes a thrilling and perilous turn. As she delves deeper into the mysterious underbelly of society, she uncovers a world of danger and intrigue where nothing is as it seems, and everyone has their own hidden agenda. But amidst the chaos and turmoil, Evelyn finds herself drawn to Alexander Blackwood, a man shrouded in mystery and darkness. Their love is forbidden, their desires dangerous, but they cannot resist the pull of fate that draws them together. As Evelyn navigates the treacherous waters of high society, she must confront her own demons and make difficult choices that will shape the course of her destiny. Along the way, she will face betrayal, heartbreak, and the harsh realities of a world where cruelty reigns supreme. Filled with vivid imagery, rich sensory details, and unforgettable characters, Cruel Intentions is a gripping tale of love, betrayal, and redemption that will keep audiences reading long into the night. With its twists and turns, secrets, and lies, this mesmerizing story will

Second edition* Joseph John Gurney, 1831 The Role of Reading in Nine Famous Lives Donald E. Howard, 2015-09-11

According to the end of millennium Arts and Entertainment Television Network survey, the single most influential person of the last thousand years was Johann Gutenberg, the inventor of the printing press. The revolutionary advent of moveable metal type made possible the diffusion of books to people around the world, profoundly influencing the lives of many famous historical figures thereafter. This book attempts to demonstrate the role that reading has played throughout the course of history. It documents the lives of nine individuals of outstanding achievement whose efforts were molded by the books they read. The subjects are presented in chronological order according to birth. Respective chapters contain brief biographies of the subjects and discuss the ways in which each used books as a principal aid in the development of his or her exceptional talents. Subjects include Benjamin Franklin, who was in 1724 an active connoisseur in the rapidly growing printing trade; Thomas Jefferson; Abraham Lincoln; Frederick Douglass; Susan B. Anthony; Booker T. Washington; Pearl S. Buck; Louis L. Amour; and Nelson Mandela. The book maintains that while these historical figures represent a wide range of talents and influences, to each is attributed invaluable contributions to society. Each was a dedicated reader inspired to greatness by the power of the written word.
