Zackodnik, 2009-09-18 From abolition through the years just before the civil rights struggle began African American women recognized that a mixed race woman made for a powerful and at times very useful figure in the battle for racial justice The Mulatta and the Politics of Race traces many key instances in which black women have wielded the image of a racially mixed woman to assault the color line In the oratory and fiction of black women from the late 1840s through the 1950s Teresa C Zackodnik finds the mulatta to be a metaphor of increasing potency Before the Civil War white female abolitionists created the image of the tragic mulatta caught between races rejected by all African American women put the mulatta to diverse political use Black women used the mulatta figure to invoke and manage American and British abolitionist empathy and to contest racial stereotypes of womanhood in the postbellum United States The mulatta aided writers in critiquing the New Negro Renaissance and gave writers leverage to subvert the aims of mid twentieth century mainstream American culture The Mulatta and the Politics of Race focuses on the antislavery lectures and appearances of Ellen Craft and Sarah Parker Remond the domestic fiction of Pauline Hopkins and Frances Harper the Harlem Renaissance novels of Jessie Fauset and Nella Larsen and the little known 1950s texts of Dorothy Lee Dickens and Reba Lee Throughout the author discovers the especially valuable and as yet unexplored contributions of these black women and their uses of the mulatta in prose and speech Teresa C Zackodnik is a professor of English at the University of Alberta in Canada

Race and Sexuality Salvador Vidal-Ortiz, Brandon Andrew Robinson, Cristina Khan, 2018-04-27 The connections between race and sexuality are constant in our lives yet they are not often linked together in productive analytical ways This illuminating book delves into the interrelation of race and sexuality as inseparable elements of our identities and social lives The authors approach the topic through an interdisciplinary lens focusing on power social arrangements and hierarchies and the production of social difference Their analysis maps the historical discursive and structural manifestations of race and sexuality noting the everyday effects that the intersections of these categories have on people's lived experiences Considering both US based and transnational cases this book presents an empirical grounding for understanding how race and sexuality are mutually constitutive categories Providing a comprehensive overview of racialized sexualities this book is an essential text for any advanced course on race sexuality and intersectionality Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Social Class Susan J. Ferguson, 2023-06-08 Race Gender Sexuality and Social Class Fourth Edition is an anthology of readings that explores the ways these social statuses shape our experiences and impact our life chances in society today Organized around broad topics identity power and privilege social institutions etc rather than categories of difference race gender class sexuality to underscore the idea that social statuses often intersect with one another to produce inequalities and form the bases of our identities in society The text features readings by leading experts in the field and reflects the many approaches

Local/Global Narratives ,2016-08-09 Over the past decade and a half Germany has experienced a period of political and cultural turbulence which many have attributed to the combined challenges of unification and globalisation In response to growing exposure to global markets politics and migration debates about identity have increasingly been renationalised At the same time there has been a notable reappraisal in Germany and in German Studies of the regional and global as spaces for the construction of identity This volume sets out to explore these complex and at times contradictory trends focusing in particular on developments in Germany since the 1970s although chapters treating earlier periods are also included The volume brings together British Irish German Canadian and American scholars working in the field and resulted from a conference organised by Women in German Studies at the University of Bath The first section is primarily concerned with the specifically German concept of locality known as Heimat and its changing relationship with the global Included are explorations of the writings of Kafka Bachmann Johnson Sell Wolf Brinkmann and Jelinek amongst others as well as films by Schlöndorff and Steyerl The second section focuses on the impact of the global on institutions and rituals such as commemoration memorialisation and architecture which have traditionally been influential in shaping national self images Overall this volume concludes that the nature of the relationship to the local has fundamentally changed under the impact of globalisation

Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q. McCune, Jr.,2014-03-07 African American men who have sex with men while maintaining a heterosexual lifestyle in public are attracting increasing interest from both the general media and scholars Commonly referred to as down low or DL men many continue to have relationships with girlfriends and wives who remain unaware of their same sex desires and in much of the media DL men have been portrayed as carriers of HIV who spread the virus to black women Sexual Discretion explores the DL phenomenon offering refreshingly innovative analysis of the significance of media space and ideals of black masculinity in understanding down low communities In Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q McCune Jr provides the first in depth examination of how the social expectations of black masculinity intersect and complicate expressions of same sex affection and desire Within these underground DL communities men aren t as highly policed and thus are able to maintain their public roles as properly masculine McCune draws from sources that range from R and from E Lynn Harris s contemporary sexual passing novels to McCune s own interviews and ethnography in nightclubs

Translation with Metaphors explores a wide range of metaphorical figures used to describe the translation process from Aristotle to the present Most practitioners and theorists of translation are familiar with a number of metaphors for translation such as the metaphor of the bridge following in another s footsteps performing a musical score changing clothes or painting a portrait yet relatively little attention has been paid to what these metaphorical models reveal about how we conceptualize translation Drawing on insights from recent developments in metaphor theory contributors to this volume reveal how central metaphorical language has been to translation studies at all periods of time and in various cultures Metaphors have played a key role in shaping the way in which we understand translation determining what facets of the translation process are deemed to be important and therefore merit study and aiding in the training of successive generations of translators and theorists While some of the papers focus mainly on past metaphorical representations others discuss recent shifts in both metaphor and translation theory while others still propose innovative metaphors in a bid to transform translation studies The volume also includes an annotated bibliography of works centrally concerned with metaphors of translation Rereading Heterosexuality Rachel Carroll,2012-04-04 Presents new perspectives on

Welty Tamai, Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, Paul Spickard, 2020-01-01 Shape Shifters presents a wide ranging array of essays that examine peoples of mixed racial identity Moving beyond the static either/or categories of racial identification found within typical insular conversations about mixed race peoples Shape Shifters explores these mixed race identities as fluid ambiguous contingent multiple and malleable This volume expands our understandings of how individuals and ethnic groups identify themselves within their own sociohistorical contexts The essays in Shape Shifters explore different historical eras and reach across the globe from the Roman and Chinese borderlands of classical antiquity to medieval Eurasian shape shifters the Native peoples of the missions of Spanish California and racial shape shifting among African Americans in the post civil rights era At different times in their lives or over generations in their families racial shape shifters have moved from one social context to another And as new social contexts were imposed on them identities have even changed from one group to another This is not racial ethnic or religious imposture It is simply the way that people's lives unfold in fluid sociohistorical circumstances With contributions by Ryan Abrecht George J Sanchez Laura Moore and Margaret Hunter among others Shape Shifters explores the forces of migration borderlands trade warfare occupation colonial imposition and the creation and dissolution of states and empires to highlight the historically contingent basis of identification among mixed race peoples across time and space

Trans Rogers Brubaker, 2018-05-29 How the transgender experience opens up new possibilities for thinking about gender and race In the summer of 2015 shortly after Caitlyn Jenner came out as transgender the NAACP official and political activist Rachel Dolezal was outed by her parents as white touching off a heated debate in the media about the fluidity of gender and race If Jenner could legitimately identify as a woman could Dolezal legitimately identify as black Taking the controversial pairing of transgender and transracial as his starting point Rogers Brubaker shows how gender and race long understood as stable inborn and unambiguous have in the past few decades opened up in different ways and to different degrees to the forces of change and choice Transgender identities have moved from the margins to the mainstream with dizzying speed and ethnoracial boundaries have blurred Paradoxically while sex has a much deeper biological basis than race choosing or changing one's sex or gender is more widely accepted than choosing or changing one's race Yet while few accepted Dolezal's claim to be black racial identities are becoming more fluid as ancestry increasingly understood as mixed loses its authority over identity and as race and ethnicity like gender come to be understood as something we do not just something we have By rethinking race and ethnicity through the multifaceted lens of the transgender experience encompassing not just a movement from one category to another but positions between and beyond existing categories Brubaker underscores the malleability contingency and arbitrariness of racial categories At a critical time when gender and race are being reimagined and reconstructed Trans explores fruitful new paths for thinking about identity
