Passing the Torch Mike Cohn,1990-02-01 Generation to Generation John A. Davis,Marion McCollom Hampton,Ivan Lansberg,Gersick Kelin E.,1997-01-01 Generation to Generation presents one of the first comprehensive overviews of family business as a specific organizational form Focusing on the inevitable maturing of families and their firms over time the authors reveal the dynamics and challenges family businesses face as they move through their life cycles The book asks questions such as what is the difference between an entrepreneurial start up and a family business and how does one become the other How does the meaning of the business to the family change as adults and children age How do families move through generational changes in leadership from anticipation to transfer and then separation and retirement This book is divided into three sections that present a multidimensional model of a family business The authors use the model to explore the various stages in the family business life span and extract generalizable lessons about how family businesses should be organized Mortuary Science John F. Szabo,2002 Szabo presents a thorough bibliographical examination of the funeral industry and related subjects Most citations are annotated with special notes on editions and reprints Business Voyages Richard John Stapleton,2010-05-06 Business Voyages is not a business fairy tale Much of it really happened Don t read this book if you are looking for simple answers and magic formulas Although the book includes some concepts and techniques anyone should know about people and business it does not promise success Business Voyages is problem oriented presenting some of the problems encountered by the author and others on their business voyages while explaining tools and processes anyone can use for analyzing and dealing with inevitable problems that will be encountered in any business world Business Voyages is also opportunity oriented showing the reader how one might embark on a business venture at the right time and place and enjoy the winnings of a successful voyage The Best of FBR Richard Beckhard,1996 This commemorative edition of Family Business Review FBR is on its face a compilation of some of the best academic and practical articles written in the family business field over the past decade Family Corporations in Transition ,2001 Journal of the American Society of CLU & ChFC. ,1993 Law for the Layman Frank G. Houdek,1991 Legacy And Fortune Gideon Fairchild,AI,2025-02-21 Legacy and Fortune examines the multifaceted world of intergenerational wealth transfer exploring how accumulated fortunes shape the economic landscape It delves into the historical context of wealth the legal mechanisms of estate planning and the psychological dimensions of inherited wealth Surprisingly effective estate planning involves not just financial capital but also cultivating human intellectual and social capital across generations The book uniquely emphasizes family communication and the alignment of values alongside financial strategies The book progresses systematically across three parts It begins by introducing key concepts in wealth management and estate law then shifts to examining case studies of wealth transfer strategies involving trusts wills and family businesses The final section synthesizes the research providing a framework for readers to develop personalized wealth transfer plans This approach allows readers
