Passion For Color The Art Of Oscar Bluemner:

Oscar Bluemner Barbara Haskell, Oscar Bluemner, Ulrich Birkmaier, 2005 Barbara Haskell s full scale scholarly study of Bluemner's work along with the major retrospective it accompanies examines his evolution from budding architect to modernist innovator Mining the artist s personal diaries and unearthing new research she illuminates his entire oeuvre including the vivid richly symbolic landscapes that established Bluemner as a leading artist of his day Insightful anecdotes and fresh perspectives also reveal his struggles as an immigrant his turbulent relationship with Stieglitz and the eccentricities that inspired his most deeply personal work With an essay by conservator Ulrich Birkmaier on Bluemner s innovative painting techniques a selection of the artist s writings and an array of illustrations this monograph offers a portrait of an unsung master an artist who belongs in the first rank of American early twentieth century modernism BOOK The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 JACKET volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Conservation of Easel Paintings Joyce Hill Stoner, Rebecca Rushfield, 2013-02-15 Conservation of Easel Paintings is the first comprehensive text on the history philosophy and methods of treatment of easel paintings that combines both theory with practice With contributions from an international group of experts and interviews with important artists this volume provides an all encompassing guide to necessary background knowledge in technical art history artists materials scientific methods of examination and documentation with sections that present varying approaches and methods for treatment including consolidation lining cleaning retouching and varnishing The book concludes with a section featuring issues of preventive conservation storage shipping exhibition lighting safety issues and public outreach Conservation of Easel Paintings is a crucial resource in the training of conservation students and will provide generations of practicing paintings conservators and interested art historians curators directors collectors dealers artists and students of art and art history with invaluable information and guidance The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context Isabel Wünsche, 2018-09-03 The Routledge Companion to Expressionism in a Transnational Context is a challenging exploration of the transnational formation dissemination and transformation of expressionism outside of the German speaking world in regions such as Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Scandinavia Western and Southern Europe North and Latin America and South Africa in the first half of the twentieth century Comprising a series of essays by an international group of scholars in the fields of art history and literary and cultural studies the volume addresses the intellectual discussions and artistic developments arising in the context of the expressionist movement in the various art centers and cultural regions The authors also examine the implications of expressionism in artistic practice and its influence on modern and contemporary cultural production Essential for an in depth understanding and discussion of expressionism this volume opens up new perspectives on developments in the visual arts of this period and challenges the traditional narratives that have predominantly focused on artistic styles and national movements American Watercolor in the Age of Homer and Sargent Kathleen A. Foster, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 2017-01-01 The fascinating story of the transformation of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 The formation of the American Watercolor Society in 1866 by a small dedicated group of painters transformed the perception of what had long been considered a marginal medium Artists of all ages styles and backgrounds took up watercolor in the 1870s inspiring younger generations of impressionists and modernists By the 1920s many would claim it as the American medium This engaging and comprehensive book tells the definitive story of the metamorphosis of American watercolor practice between 1866 and 1925 identifying the artist constituencies and social forces that drove the new popularity of the medium The major artists of the movement Winslow Homer John Singer Sargent William Trost Richards Thomas Moran Thomas Eakins Charles Prendergast Childe Hassam Edward Hopper Charles Demuth and many others are represented with lavish color illustrations. The result is a fresh and beautiful look at watercolor's central place in American art and culture New York Rebeccah Welch, 2007 Travelers and armchair tourists will welcome this lavish tribute to the city that never sleeps It covers every exciting inch of New York from the South Street Seaport and the Brooklyn Bridge to the Empire State Building and Grand Central Station from Rockefeller Center and Lincoln Center to the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Yankee Stadium Distinguished scholar Rebeccah Welch tells the story behind every fascinating piece of architecture park and memorial while Elan Penn captures everything from the African Burial Ground to the stunning skyline in awe inspiring images In addition historical photos and drawings present important moments in New York s life including the inauguration of the Statue of Liberty American Painters on Technique Lance Mayer, Gay Myers, 2013 How paintings were made in the most literal sense is an important but largely unknown aspect of the story of American art This book like the authors previous volume on American painting techniques from the colonial period to 1860 is based on descriptions of the materials and methods that painters used as found in artists notebooks painting manuals magazines suppliers catalogues letters diaries books and interviews In interpreting this evidence the authors have made use of their experience as conservators who have treated many important American paintings Book jacket Art in America Frank Jewett Mather, Frederic Fairchild Sherman, 2006 A Gift from the Heart Joyce Henri Robinson, Robert Cozzolino, 2013 A Gift from the Heart documents in its entirety what is arguably one of the finest private collections of American art in the country Much of the book comprises thematic essays written by invited scholars who consider the broader sociohistorical context of American art and culture as they delve into the particulars of the collection The Triumph of Modernism Hilton Kramer, 2013-12-09 Widely acknowledged as the most authoritative art critic of his generation Hilton Kramer advanced his comments and judgments largely in the form of essays and short pieces Thus this first collection of his work to appear in twenty years is a signal event for the art world and for criticism generally The Triumph of Modernism not only traces the vicissitudes of the art scene but diagnoses the state of modernism and its vital legacy in the postmodern world Mr Kramer bracingly updates his incisive critique of the artists critics institutions and movements that have formed the basis for modern art Appearing for the first time in greatly expanded form is his consideration of the foundations of modern abstract painting and the future of abstraction The aesthetic intelligence that Mr Kramer brings to bear on certain tired assumptions about modernism many of them derived from methodologies and politics that have little to do with art helps rescue the artwork itself and its appreciation from the very institutions such as the art museum and the academy that purport to foster it Always clear eyed and vastly illuminating Hilton Kramer's art criticism remains among the very finest written in the past hundred years Readers of The Triumph of Modernism will be treated to an exhilarating experience
