Indwelling the Forsaken Other J. Matthew Bonzo, 2009-02-01 Indwelling the Forsaken Other is a critical reading of Jürgen Moltmann's ethics of discipleship While Moltmann's notable turn to the inner life of the Trinity as a source for his reflections on the life of the church is influential it is not without problems The call emerging from Moltmann's reflection upon Trinitarian life to copy God in our relationships may offer some general direction for our actions however it also raises several questions Two important questions for this work are In what way are we to copy God and What conditions make it possible to copy God Moltmann's answers to these questions are insufficient and consequently he fails to protect the difference between Creator and creation in his analogia relationis As a result the ethical direction of Moltmann's work seems to be increasingly muddled and at best paradoxical

Scott Spencer, 2017-10-05 A ground breaking collection exploring the rich array of emotions in biblical literature An international team of Hebrew Bible and New Testament scholars offers incisive case studies of passions displayed by divine and human figures in the biblical texts ranging from joy happiness and trust to grief hate and disgust Essays address how biblical characters feelings affect their relationship with God one another and the world and how these feelings mix together for good or ill for flourishing or vexation Deeply engaged with both ancient and modern contexts including the burgeoning interdisciplinary study of emotion in the humanities and sciences these essays break down the artificial divide between reason and passion cognition and emotion thought and feeling in biblical study Features Case studies drawn from multiple genres across the Bible narrative prophets poetry wisdom Gospels and letters Helpful select bibliographies of interdisciplinary resources at the end of each essay Critical balance between theory and practice and between method and close textual analysis Distinctive ancient Hebrew and Greek uses of emotional terms and concepts compared with each other and with evolving understandings in Western culture

Love, Violence, and the Cross Gregory Anderson Love, 2010-08-01 Does God use violence to redeem us What is the relationship between divine love and violence in regard to the saving significance of the cross of Christ In Love Violence and the Cross Gregory Love dialogues with two responses to this question while presenting a third alternative in which Jesus s death is simultaneously a crime and an element of God s saving actions Through familiar stories in history literature and film Love presents five constructive models that cumulatively affirm God s saving act in the person and work of Christ while letting go the myth of redemptive violence They affirm redemption but one with a different shape Instead of exacting the absolute punishment God redeems by making good God s promise to humanity to secure human life Love argues that God is nonviolent while retaining the core idea presented in the New Testament witnesses that reconciliation occurs in the work of Christ and that the cross plays a role in that divine work

Theology as Hope Ryan A. Neal, 2009-01-01 Hope is the leitmotiv of J rgen Moltmann s theology Not merely one aspect of his project hope is the whole of it the supreme doctrine interpenetrating all others Indeed hope is his method The present study is both historical and developmental while also being analytical and interrogative This chronological exploration seeks to show the nature composition and development of Moltmann s doctrine of hope as the distinctive doctrine of his theology implicating all others Part I establishes Moltmann s doctrine of hope as grounded in God s faithfulness in the cross and resurrection Part II investigates major doctrines in his project in light of this ground This design seeks to take advantage of the chronological approach while also integrating the best elements of a topical approach

Sounds of Hope Robert Janacek, 2012-07-01 For a world so out of tune this treatise intends to correlate from various instruments of learning a new sound a sound of hope This sound will be heard as each truth from key areas of knowledge will be played in a synthesis of theology psychology and philosophy all in the context of a valid cosmology To listen and read the key concepts and predictions of the secular authorities our earth is either destined for a massive freeze or one ending in conflagration Thus the concern of the author is that all too often each area of study is playing its own sound and valid as it may be is not listening or seeing what could be if these sounds became part of a symphony In Sounds of Hope Robert N Janacek contends that when these sounds are truly heard and projected in our anticipated symphony a new and harmonious world will be enacted At a time when there are almost constant sounds of hate death and hopelessness a world awaits one for us to hear and attend as a new concert a concert playing a score of harmony and hope      The Annihilation of Hell Nicholas Ansell,2014-07-08 This work analyses and evaluates Jurgen Moltmann s model of universal salvation and its relation to his understanding of the redemption or eschatological fulfilment of time For Jurgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The Annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell s annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann s distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ s descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfilment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann s thinking especially his zinzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honour human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in depth exposition of Moltmann s ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalise our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorising of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the centre of theology but at the heart of life itself      The Mother Heart of God Trudy Beyak,2013-04-23 In this age of chaos God gives courage and comfort Trudy Beyak an award winning journalist interviewed 50 global leaders of faith Ruth Graham Dr Francis Collins Danae Dobson Dr Raymond Damadian the MRI inventor the Vatican Paul Young Gary Chapman and many others about the nature of God They reveal fascinating new insights When no one cares and you feel all alone the maternal mercy of God comforts your soul as a mother comforts a precious loved one Ruth Graham explains When God created men and women to be like him women are half the picture What a gift then it is to be a mother The maternal instinct to nurture others corresponds to the nature of God as our Comforter Women no longer need ask Dear Lord Who am I Discover 50 exclusive interviews that will transform a woman s life and men as well And there s more The Mother Heart of God is a journalist s compelling spiritual journey a personal invitation to every man and woman to experience the love of God that brings hope and healing to every soul      Trinitarian Theology and Power Relations M. Minister,2014-11-06 This text crafts a trinitarian theology that reorients theology from presumptions about the immateriality of the Trinity toward the places where the Trinity matters material bodies in historical contexts and the intersecting ways political and theological power structures normalize and marginalize bodies on the basis of material difference      Atonement as Gift Katie M Heffelfinger,Patrick G McGlinchey,2014-06-01 Atonement as Gift Re Imagining the Cross for the Church and the World grows out of the conviction that the doctrine of the atonement has wide reaching practical implications for some of the deepest pastoral and theological questions individuals and communities face today It asks the question What difference does the atonement make for ecumenics pastoral care theodicy gender ecology and social division The answers given by experts in their fields point to the potential of the doctrine to renew Christian theology and spirituality This unique book is designed not only to offer the insights of these theologians but also to guide readers to engage the issue for themselves and to integrate the doctrine into their own theological reflection Contents 1 Stephen Williams The Atonement Today The State of Current Discussion 2 Vincent Twomey and Stephen Williams The Cross and Our Aspiration for a Common Doctrine of Redemption followed by questions for discussion groups 3 Ron Elsdon The Cross and the Redemption of the Cosmos 4 Elaine Storkey The Cross and the Reconciliation of Gender followed by a creative writing workshop exercise 5 David Tombs The Cross and the Reconciliation of Enemies 6 Richard Bauckham The Cross and God's Embrace of Suffering followed by an exegetically driven exercise examining lament texts 7 Robin Stockitt The Cross and Our Captivity to Shame followed by resources for conducting a bibliodrama workshop 8 Heather Morris The Cross and the Healing of the Self followed by the description of a prayer ministry clinic related to the themes of the chapter 9 Katie M Heffelfinger and Patrick G McGlinchey Responses 10 Conclusion

The Annihilation of Hell Nik Ansell, 2013-10-01 For Jürgen Moltmann Hell is the nemesis of Hope The annihilation of Hell thus refers both to Hell's annihilative power in history and to the overcoming of that power as envisioned by Moltmann's distinctive theology of the cross in which God becomes all in all through Christ's descent into Godforsakenness The negation of Hell and the fulfillment of history are inseparable Attentive to the overall contours and dynamics of Moltmann's thinking especially his zimzum doctrine of creation his eschatologically oriented philosophy of time and his expanded understanding of the nature-grace relationship this study asks whether the universal salvation that he proposes can honor human freedom promise vindication for those who suffer and do justice to biblical revelation As well as providing an in-depth exposition of Moltmann's ideas The Annihilation of Hell also explores how a covenantal universalism might revitalize our web of beliefs in a way that is attuned to the authorizing of Scripture and the spirituality of existence If divine and human freedom are to be reconciled as Moltmann believes the confrontation between Hell and Hope will entail rethinking issues that are not only at the center of theology but at the heart of life itself

Barry K. Morris, 2020-03-20 This book hails from decades of challenging trial and error work abundant reading and an enduring obligation to ministers activists and unsung lay heroes whose legacies matter As there is little that actually addresses the elusive meanings if not the dangers inherent in pursuing alleged spoils of success it is kairos time Seemingly scarce resources and competition to make and maintain ministries in the city challenge those of us in the field or on the sidelines to speak write and communicate clearly and convincingly not only for ourselves and our people past and present but for those who come along soon to receive the baton or wear the mantle Concretely narrated with unique case studies a cast of dozens contribute their earthy earnest testimonies and are at long last energetically affirmed Specifically this work proffers constructive attention to the critical cautions concerning subtle temptations to succeed including commodification cooptation communalism clientelism and cowardice and not bailing on fierce charity justice tensions with benevolence protectively dominant Narrative analysis and biography as theology social ethics biblical theology and recent church history give apt attention to how a compelling case is possible for success if justice is practiced given a hopeful realism and perspective of prophetic eschatology
