Got To Breathe Donald Spoto, 2016-02-19 The actress Teresa Wright 1918 2005 lived a rich complex magnificent life against the backdrop of Golden Age Hollywood Broadway and television There was no indication from her astonishingly difficult indeed horrifying childhood of the success that would follow nor of the universal acclaim and admiration that accompanied her everywhere Her two marriages to the writers Niven Busch The Postman Always Rings Twice and Robert Anderson Tea and Sympathy I Never Sang for My Father provide a good deal of the drama warmth poignancy and heartbreak of her life story I never wanted to be a star she told the noted biographer Donald Spoto at dinner in 1978 I wanted only to be an actress She began acting on the stage in summer stock and repertory at the age of eighteen When Thornton Wilder and Jed Harris saw her in an ingénue role she was chosen to understudy the part of Emily in the original production of Our Town 1938 which she then played in touring productions Samuel Goldwyn saw her first starring role on Broadway in the historic production of Life with Father and at once he offered her a long contract She was the only actress to be nominated for an Academy Award for her first three pictures The Little Foxes The Pride of the Yankees and Mrs Miniver and she won for the third film Movie fans and scholars to this day admire her performance in the classics Shadow of a Doubt and The Best Years of Our Lives The circumstances of her tenure at Goldwyn and the drama of her breaking that contract forever changed the treatment of stars Wright's family and heirs appointed Spoto as her authorized biographer and offered him exclusive access to her letters and papers Major supporting players in this story include Robert Anderson Alfred Hitchcock William Wyler Karl Malden Elia Kazan Jean Simmons Dorothy McGuire Bette Davis George Cukor Marlon Brando George C Scott the artist Al Hirschfeld Stella Adler and more

High Society Donald Spoto, 2010-10-05 Drawing on his unprecedented access to Grace Kelly bestselling biographer Donald Spoto at last offers an intimate honest and authoritative portrait of one of Hollywood's legendary actresses In just seven years from 1950 through 1956 Grace Kelly embarked on a whirlwind career that included roles in eleven movies From the principled Amy Fowler Kane in High Noon to the thrill seeking Frances Stevens of To Catch a Thief Grace established herself as one of Hollywood's most talented actresses and iconic beauties Her astonishing career lasted until her retirement at age twenty six when she withdrew from stage and screen to marry a European monarch and became a modern working princess and mother Based on never before published or quoted interviews with Grace and those conducted over many years with her friends and colleagues from costars James Stewart and Cary Grant to director Alfred Hitchcock as well as many documents disclosed by her children for the first time acclaimed biographer Donald Spoto explores the transformation of a convent schoolgirl to New York model successful television actress Oscar winning movie star and beloved royal As the princess requested Spoto waited twenty five years after her death to write this biography Now with honesty and insight High Society reveals the truth of Grace Kelly's personal life the men she loved the men she didn't and what lay behind the façade of her fairy tale life

Stars, Fans, and Consumption in the 1950s Sumiko Higashi, 2014-12-17 As the leading fan magazine in the postwar era Photoplay constructed female stars as social types who embodied a romantic and

leisured California lifestyle Addressing working and lower middle class readers who were prospering in the first mass consumption society the magazine published not only publicity stories but also beauty secrets fashion layouts interior design tips recipes advice columns and vacation guides Postwar femininity was constructed in terms of access to commodities in suburban houses as the site of family togetherness As the decade progressed however changing social mores regarding female identity and behavior eroded the relationship between idolized stars and worshipful fans When the magazine adopted tabloid conventions to report sex scandals like the Debbie Eddie Liz affair stars were demystified and fans became scandalmongers But the construction of female identity based on goods and performance that resulted in unstable fragmented selves remains a legacy evident in postmodern culture today

New Constellations Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2012-01-01 American culture changed radically over the course of the 1960s and the culture of Hollywood was no exception The film industry began the decade confidently churning out epic spectacles and lavish musicals but became flummoxed as new aesthetics and modes of production emerged and low budget youth pictures like Easy Rider became commercial hits New Constellations Movie Stars of the 1960s tells the story of the final glory days of the studio system and changing conceptions of stardom considering such Hollywood icons as Elizabeth Taylor and Paul Newman alongside such hallmarks of youth culture as Mia Farrow and Dustin Hoffman Others like Sidney Poitier and Peter Sellers took advantage of the developing independent and international film markets to craft truly groundbreaking screen personae And some were simply famous for being famous with celebrities like Zsa Zsa Gabor and Edie Sedgwick paving the way for today's reality stars
