Passion's Prey A. C. Arthur, 2025-08-22 They live in the shadows half human half beast a powerful breed of shape shifters who protect the civilized world from the deadliest of their kind Caprise is tall beautiful exotic A goddess in the flesh A dancer when Caprise takes the stage she feels the power she holds over men especially the man known as X He watches her night after night He follows her with hungry eyes And he knows her deepest darkest secret her true animal nature And falling in love with a Shadow Shifter is the most dangerous game of all Xavier has always lived for the thrill of the hunt and the pleasure of the kill But now as a shifter working for the FBI he is dedicated to keeping a leash on the world's most savage predators Keeping an eye on a gorgeous creature like Caprise is part of his job But when a deadly new breed of half human killer marks Caprise as his mate Xavier must fight tooth and claw to save her or risk losing the most sensual and exciting woman he's ever known A Passion in Rome Morley Callaghan, 1964 Passion and Textuality, Textuality of Passion:

Passionale MR 164 Lucija Krešić Nacevski, This edition presents and describes the oldest hagiographic codex in Croatia entitled Passionale MR 164 which is also the oldest codex contained in the Metropolitana library of the Archdiocese of Zagreb L Krešić describes the codex from a paleographic codicological linguistic and hagiographic standpoint Placing it within the cultural and historical coordinates of the early Middle Ages in Croatian territory Krešić suggests a possibility of its origins from the basilica Sant Apollinare Nuovo in Ravenna Having originated there in the second half or at the end of the 10th century according to the author the codex then migrated to Split Dalmatia then to Zagreb Passionale MR 164 was written in Latin Carolingian and Beneventan script typical of the Dalmatian coast Dalmatian Beneventan letter and as such represents a true paleographic enchriridion The Formation of Papal Authority in Late Antique Italy Kristina Sessa, 2011-11-21 This book is the first cultural history of papal authority in late antiquity While most traditional histories posit a rise of the papacy and examine popes as politicians theologians and civic leaders Kristina Sessa focuses on the late Roman household and its critical role in the development of the Roman church from c 350 600 She argues that Rome's bishops adopted the ancient elite household as a model of good government for leading the church Central to this phenomenon was the classical and biblical figure of the steward the householder's appointed agent who oversaw his property and people As stewards of God Roman bishops endeavored to exercise moral and material influence within both the pope's own administration and the households of Italy's clergy and lay elites This original and nuanced study charts their manifold interactions with late Roman households and shows how bishops used domestic knowledge as the basis for establishing their authority as Italy's singular religious leaders The Gospel of Matthew John Nolland, 2005-11 Introduction The authorship of the Gospel The Gospel's sources How the author handled his sources From eyewitnesses to Matthew's sources The date of the Gospel of Matthew The provenance of the Gospel of Matthew What kind of document did Matthew think he was writing The state of the Gospel text Elements of Matthew's narrative technique Matthew's use of the OT Matthew's use of other Jewish tradition Commentary

 John McClintock, James Strong, 1882      The Conclusion of Luke-Acts Charles B. Puskas, 2009-01-01 The conclusion of Luke Acts is regarded as one of the most important chapters of Luke's two volume work Several significant Lukan themes are found in Acts 28 all of which make some contribution to the purpose and aim of the author in writing Luke Acts the Gentile mission the triumph of God's Word and the relationship of Christianity with Judaism and Rome Acts 28 contains many historical problems that have been debated for centuries including the we statements the figure of Paul in Acts 28 and the abrupt ending Puskas compares the conclusion of Acts with other important chapters of Luke Acts the introduction of the Gospel the conclusion of Acts the defense of Paul chapters as well as other passages In this significant chapter of Acts 28 there are still fundamental problems of exegesis that need to be addressed What is the literary function of Acts 28 What is Luke trying to tell his readers in the text      Passion's Fictions from Shakespeare to Richardson Benedict S.
 Robinson, 2021 Passion's Fictions traces the intimate links between literature and the sciences of mind and soul from the age of Shakespeare to the rise of the novel It chronicles the emergence of new sciences of the passions between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries and it argues that this history was shaped by rhetoric that contained the most extensively particularized discourse on the passions offering principles for moving and affecting the passions of others in concrete social scenes This rhetoric of the passions centered on narrative as the instrument of a non theoretical knowledge of the passions in their particularity predicated on an account of passion as an intimate relation between an impassioned mind and an impassioning world rhetoric offers a kind of externalist psychology formalized in the relation of passion to action and underwriting an account of narrative as a means of both moving passion and knowing it This volume describes the psychology of the passions before the discipline of psychology tracing the influence of rhetoric on theories of the passions from Francis Bacon to Adam Smith and using that history to read literary works by Shakespeare Milton Haywood Richardson and others Narrative offers a means of knowing and moving the passions by tracing them to the events and objects that generate them the history of narrative practices is thus a key part of the history of the psychology of the passions at a critical moment in its development

Novel Practices Eugene Goodheart, It is inspiring to have a new collection of Eugene Goodheart's critical essays He is one of our best our most useful critics W B Yeats spoke of the need to hold reality and justice in a single thought Goodheart knows the need and works hard to fulfill it He never struts in the presence of the book he is reading but is always as if by nature and on principle attentive acute alive to the issues No writer could ask for a better reader or a more conscientious intelligence Denis Donoghue New York University An important debate in modern literary criticism concerns the exact relationship between the ancient epic and the novel Both the epic and the most ambitious modern novels are large scale attempts to present a comprehensive view of the world through the experience of a representative hero However in the older tradition the hero stood for the aspirations and highest ideals of his society The protagonist of the modern novel is usually at odds with that society whether as exile active rebel or antagonistic critic In Novel Practices the distinguished literary scholar Eugene Goodheart surveys a representative selection of modern novelists tracing how the epic impulse has been reshaped under the conditions of modernity Goodheart describes how George Eliot and James Joyce's comprehensive artistic creation enabled them to demonstrate a mastery of the world unattainable to their thwarted flawed or feckless heroes and heroines Works such as Middlemarch and Ulysses encyclopedic in their inclusiveness share an ambitious scope that is virtually synonymous with epic Goodheart shows that even in shorter works such as James's The Beast in the Jungle and Ford Maddox Ford's The Good Soldier the standard of the epic hero acts as an ironic subtext A chapter on Thomas Mann provides a European perspective enacting conflict between self and society through a dramatized contest of ideas Goodheart explores ambiguities of point of view as characteristic of modern uncertainty how much authority or reliability should the reader concede to the narrator What is the relationship between the narrator and the author These and related questions are addressed in chapters on Lawrence James Bellow Woolf and Roth which also deal with the place of literary biography in understanding fiction Goodheart's approach centers on fiction and although he takes cognizance of the critical theory of the past several decades he nevertheless emphasizes the centrality of the author and authorial intention Novel Practices will be essential reading for students of literature culture and intellectual history Eugene Goodheart is Edythe Macy Gross Professor of Humanities Emeritus at Brandeis University His books include Modernism and the Critical Spirit and Culture and the Radical Conscience both available from Transaction

Rome's Last Citizen Rob Goodman, Jimmy Soni, 2012-10-16 This biography of Marcus Cato the Younger Rome's bravest statesman an aristocratic soldier a Stoic philosopher and staunch defender of sacred Roman tradition is rich with resonances for current politics and contemporary notions of freedom

Catholic Spectacle and Rome's Jews Emily Michelson, 2024-02-27 A new investigation that shows how conversionary preaching to Jews was essential to the early modern Catholic Church and the Roman religious landscape Starting in the sixteenth century Jews in Rome were forced every Saturday to attend a hostile sermon aimed at their conversion Harshly policed they were made to march en masse toward the sermon and sit through it all the while scrutinized by local Christians foreign visitors and potential converts In Catholic Spectacle and Rome's Jews Emily Michelson demonstrates how this display was vital to the development of early modern Catholicism Drawing from a trove of overlooked manuscripts Michelson reconstructs the dynamics of weekly forced preaching in Rome As the Catholic Church began to embark on worldwide missions sermons to Jews offered a unique opportunity to define and defend its new triumphalist global outlook They became a point of prestige in Rome The city's most important organizations invested in maintaining these spectacles and foreign tourists eagerly attended them The title of Preacher to the Jews could make a man's career The presence of Christian spectators Roman and foreign was integral to these sermons and preachers played to the gallery Conversionary sermons also provided an intellectual veneer to mask ongoing anti Jewish aggressions In response Jews mounted a campaign of resistance using any means available Examining the history and content of sermons to Jews over two and a half centuries Catholic Spectacle and Rome's Jews argues that conversionary preaching to Jews played a fundamental role in forming early modern Catholic identity
