Passion Memory Identity:

Passion, Memory and Identity Marjorie Agosin, 1999-05 A lively analysis of the major contribution of Jewish women writers in Latin America Memory, Oblivion, and Jewish Culture in Latin America Marjorie Agosin, 2009-08-17 Latin America has been a refuge for Jews fleeing persecution from 1492 when Sephardic Jews were expelled from Spain until well into the twentieth century when European Jews sought sanctuary there from the horrors of the Nazi Holocaust Vibrant Jewish communities have deep roots in countries such as Argentina Mexico Guatemala and Chile though members of these communities have at times experienced the pain of being the other ostracized by Christian society and even tortured by military governments While commonalities of religion and culture link these communities across time and national boundaries the Jewish experience in Latin America is irreducible to a single perspective Only a multitude of voices can express it This anthology gathers fifteen essays by historians creative writers artists literary scholars anthropologists and social scientists who collectively tell the story of Jewish life in Latin America Some of the pieces are personal tales of exile and survival some explore Jewish humor and its role in amalgamating histories of past and present and others look at serious episodes of political persecution and military dictatorship As a whole these challenging essays ask what Jewish identity is in Latin America and how it changes throughout history They leave us to ponder the tantalizing question Does being Jewish in the Americas speak to a transitory history or a more permanent one Sexy Bodies Elizabeth Grosz, Elspeth Probyn, 2013-02-01 Are bodies sexy How In what sorts of ways Sexy Bodies investigates the production of sexual bodies and sexual practices of sexualities which are dyke bi transracial and even hetero It celebrates lesbian and queer sexualities but also explores what runs underneath and within all sexualities discovering what is fundamentally weird and strange about all bodies all carnalities Looking at a pleasurable variety of cultural forms and texts the contributors consider the particular charms of girls and horses from National Velvet to Marnie discuss figures of the lesbian body from vampires to tribades to tomboys uncover virtual lesbians in the fiction of Jeanette Winterson track desire in the music of legendary Blues singers and investigate the ever scrutinised and celebrated body of Elizabeth Taylor The collection includes two important pieces of fiction by Mary Fallon and Nicole Brossard Sexy Bodies makes new connections between and amongst bodies cruising the borders of the obscene the pleasurable the desirable and the hitherto unspoken rethinking sexuality anew as deeply and strangely sexy The End of Memory Miroslav Volf, 2021-01-12 Winner of the Christianity Today Book Award in Christianity and Culture How should we remember atrocities Should we ever forgive abusers Can we not hope for final reconciliation even if it means redeemed victims and perpetrators spending eternity together We live in an age that insists that past wrongs genocides terrorist attacks bald personal injustices should never be forgotten But Miroslav Volf here proposes the radical idea that letting go of such memories after a certain point and under certain conditions may be a gift of grace we should embrace Volf's personal stories of persecution and interrogation frame his search for theological resources to make memories a wellspring of healing rather than a source of deepening pain and animosity Controversial thoughtful and incisively reasoned The End of Memory begins a conversation that we avoid to our great detriment This second edition includes an appendix on the memories of perpetrators as well as victims a response to critics and a James K A Smith interview with Volf about the nature and function of memory in the Christian life Latin American Women On/In

Stages Margo Milleret, 2012-02-16 While a feminine perspective has become more common on Latin American stages since the late 1960s few of the women dramatists who have contributed to this new viewpoint have received scholarly attention Latin American Women On In Stages examines twenty four plays written by women living in Argentina Brazil Chile Costa Rica Mexico Puerto Rico and Venezuela While all of the plays critique the restraints placed on being female several also offer alternatives that emphasize a broader and healthier range of options Margo Milleret using an innovative comparative and thematic approach highlights similarities in the techniques and formats employed by female playwrights as they challenged both theatrical and social conventions She argues that these representations of women s lives are important for their creativity and their insights into both the personal and public worlds of Latin America Communities of Memory William James Booth, 2018-07-05 Memory has fueled merciless violent strife and it has been at the core of reconciliation and reconstruction It has been used to justify great crimes and yet it is central to the pursuit of justice In these and more everyday ways we live surrounded by memory individual and social in our habits our names the places where we live street names libraries archives and our citizenship institutions and laws Still we wonder what to make of memory and its gifts though sometimes we are hardly even certain that they are gifts Of the many chambers in this vast palace I mean to ask particularly after the place of memory in politics in the identity of political communities and in their practices of doing justice from the Preface W James Booth seeks to understand the place of memory in the identity ethics and practices of justice of political communities Identity is he believes a particular kind of continuity across time one central to the possibility of agency and responsibility and memory plays a central role in grounding that continuity Memory identity takes two forms a habitlike form the deep presence of the past that is part of a life led in common and a more fragile vulnerable form in which memory struggles to preserve identity through time notably in bearing witness a form of memory work deeply bound up with the identity of political communities Booth argues that memory holds a defining place in determining how justice is administered Memory is tied to the very possibility of an ethical community one responsible for its own past able to make commitments for the future and driven to seek justice Underneath and motivating the politics of memory understood as contests over the writing of history over memorials museums and canons he writes there lies an intertwining of memory identity and justice Communities of Memory both argues for and maps out that intertwining Reading Memory and Identity in the Texts of Medieval European Holy Women M. Cotter-Lynch, B. Herzog, 2012-03-14 Examines a range of texts commemorating European holy women from the ninth through fifteenth centuries Explores the relationship between memorial practices and identity formation Draws upon much of the recent scholarly interest in the nature and uses of memory Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour, 2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf's formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf's theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities Passion's Triumph Over Reason Christopher Tilmouth, 2010-11-11 Christopher Tilmouth presents an accomplished study of Early Modern ideas of emotion self indulgence and self control in the literature and moral thought of the late 16th and 17th centuries 1580 to 1680 Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly, 2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Cuban Studies 31 Lisandro Perez, Uva de Aragon, 2000-12-15 Cuban Studies has been published annually by the University of Pittsburgh Press since 1985 Founded in 1970 it is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba Each volume includes articles in both English and Spanish a large book review section and an exhaustive compilation of recent works in the field Dynamics of Memory and Identity in Contemporary Europe Eric Langenbacher, Bill Niven, Ruth Wittlinger, 2013-03-01 The collapse of the Iron Curtain the renationalization of eastern Europe and the simultaneous eastward expansion of the European Union have all impacted the way the past is remembered in today's eastern Europe At the same time in recent years the Europeanization of Holocaust memory and a growing sense of the need to stage a more self critical memory has significantly changed the way in which western Europe commemorates and memorializes the past The increasing dissatisfaction among scholars with the blanket undifferentiated use of the term collective memory is evolving in new directions This volume brings the tension into focus while addressing the state of memory theory itself Memory, Identity, and Commemorations of World War II Mike Mochizuki, Daqing Yang, 2018-04-11 Why do some governments and societies attach great significance to a particular anniversary year whereas others seem less inclined to do so What motivates the orchestration of elaborate commemorative activities in some countries What are they supposed to accomplish for both domestic and international audience In what ways do commemorations in Asia Pacific fit into the global memory culture of war commemoration In what ways are these commemorations intertwined with current international politics This book presents the first large scale analysis of how countries in the Asia Pacific and beyond commemorated the seventieth anniversaries of the end of World War II Consisting of in depth case studies of China Taiwan Korea Japan Singapore the Philippines United States Russia and Germany this unique collective effort demonstrates how memories of the past as Sacramental Identity T. Ryan Dillon, 2024-04-01 Who am I A theology of personal identity and an answer to that question should be integral to any theological anthropology For some the answer is found in what many have called expressive individualism an inward turn toward the self and who and what I feel is most authentic to that self Christians respond that we are no longer that person we are in Christ But do either of these answers truly respond to the realities of both storied and embodied persons living out a life over time and change or the demand for an answer of stability throughout that endless change Sacramental Identity seeks to answer these questions by grounding personal identity in Scripture history and a rich theology of the sacraments of the church In a time where many are skeptical of the church's care for the embodied and storied realities of human life the sacraments invite us into the story of Christ and the church to discover who we are
