Passion Of Letty Fox:

The Passion of Letty Fox Diana Saunders, 1988-08 The Passion of Letty Fox Diana Saunders, 1986 Letty Fox Christina Stead, 2012-10-23 From Paris to London to wartime New York a young woman comes of age and comes apart in this witty novel by the author of The Man Who Loved Children When Letty Fox first arrives in Manhattan her goal is to escape her chaotic upbringing in London and Paris and the cynicism of her family and create a fresh new start This will be the existence she dreamed of flitting from affair to affair debating social issues over martinis and finishing that novel about Robespierre that will make her envied by all the right people Yet Letty is at odds with both the city and herself sexually adventurous yet fidgety for lasting romance radically independent yet conservative as likely to be betrayed by friends as she is to betray And when Letty runs through the streets of Greenwich Village it is as much to unleash her glorious appetite for life as it is to suppress the black moods that always threaten to derail it No wonder Christina Stead's work has reminded many of Tolstoy Ibsen Joyce said the New York Times Book Review When this poisonously funny satire of the American bourgeoisie was first published in 1947 it was banned in the author's native Australia and met with alarm by stateside critics for its moral ambiguity Ahead of its time with its vibrant and furious heroine it is destined for rediscovery From an author Saul Bellow called really marvelous Letty Fox is a merciless cruel and magnificently unforgiving comedy of manners Angela Carter London Review of Books Letty Fox Christina Stead, 2011 In this classic novel by Christina Stead published here with an introduction by Carmen Callil Letty Fox tells her story as a self-styled woman in New York's world of passion love and sexual bargaining The Biography Book Daniel S. Burt, 2001-02-28 From Marilyn to Mussolini people captivate people A E's Biography best-selling autobiographies and biographical novels testify to the popularity of the genre But where does one begin Collected here are descriptions and evaluations of over 10 000 biographical works including books of fact and fiction biographies for young readers and documentaries and movies all based on the lives of over 500 historical figures from scientists and writers to political and military leaders to artists and musicians Each entry includes a brief profile autobiographical and primary sources and recommended works Short reviews describe the pertinent biographical works and offer insight into the qualities and special features of each title helping readers to find the best biographical material available on hundreds of fascinating individuals The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne Brian Moore, 2011-08-17 One of The Guardian's 1 000 Books to Read Before You Die This underrated classic of contemporary Irish literature tells the utterly transfixing story of a lonely poverty-stricken spinster in 1950s Belfast The Boston Globe Judith Hearne is an unmarried woman of a certain age who has come down in society She has few skills and is full of the prejudices and pieties of her genteel Belfast upbringing But Judith has a secret life And she is just one heartbreak away from revealing it to the world Hailed by Graham Greene Thomas Flanagan and Harper Lee alike The Lonely Passion of Judith Hearne is an unflinching and deeply sympathetic portrait of a woman destroyed by self and circumstance First published in 1955 it marked Brian Moore as a major figure in English literature he would go on to be short listed three times for the Booker Prize and established him as an astute chronicler of the human soul Seldom in modern fiction has any character been revealed so completely or been made to seem so poignantly real The New York Times

Enigmatic Christina Stead Teresa Petersen, 2016-10-18 This is a remarkably stimulating new approach to Stead's fiction and to her psyche In this very strong reading often against the grain the author illuminates Stead's fiction in a way that has never been done before Chris Wallace Crabbe Christina Stead is arguably Australia's greatest female novelist Born and educated in Sydney she spent the greater part of her life abroad having left in 1928 to satisfy a wandering impulse The most famous of her thirteen novels The Man Who Loved Children 1940 is an acknowledged masterpiece of twentieth century fiction Stead's concentrated emotional intensity her interest in extraordinary passion and her keen sense of fantasy and the grotesque have led to comparisons with D H Lawrence Dostoevsky and Dickens Immediately striking are her strong imaginative power and range her verbal brilliance and her acute penetration of character The enigma identified and skilfully unravelled by Teresa Petersen surprisingly has hitherto been unexamined Overtly Stead presents the heterosexual norm as the paradigm par excellence yet she portrays no happy heterosexual relationships or marriages only miserable compromises More covertly lesbian eroticism pervades her fiction Usually shrouded in silence it imperceptibly surfaces and disappears sliding in and out of the narrative Petersen argues compellingly that although Stead's texts appear on the surface to be saturated with the heterosexual norm this is a facade that masks both lesbian and male homosexual desire By elucidating Stead's subtextual preoccupation with homosexuality Petersen challenges conventional scholarship and shifts our view of both Stead's work and her life

Act of Passion Georges Simenon, 2011-10-18 For forty years Charles Alavoine has sleepwalked through his life Growing up as a good boy in the grip of a domineering mother he trains as a doctor marries opens a medical practice in a quiet country town and settles into an existence of impeccable bourgeois conformity And yet at unguarded moments this model family man is haunted by a sense of emptiness and futility Then one night laden with Christmas presents he meets Martine It is time for the sleeper to awake

Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s David Carter, Roger Osborne, 2018-07-02 Australian Books and Authors in the American Marketplace 1840s-1940s explores how Australian writers and their works were present in the United States before the mid twentieth century to a much greater degree than previously acknowledged Drawing on fresh archival research and combining the approaches of literary criticism print culture studies and book history David Carter and Roger Osborne demonstrate that Australian writing was transnational long before the contemporary period In mapping Australian literature's connections to British and US markets their research challenges established understandings of national imperial and world literatures Carter and Osborne examine how Australian authors editors and publishers engaged productively with their American counterparts and how American readers and reviewers responded to Australian works They consider the role played by British publishers and agents in taking Australian writing to America and how the international circulation of new literary genres created new opportunities for novelists to move between markets Some of these writers such as Christina Stead and Patrick White remain household names others who once enjoyed international fame such as Dale Collins and Alice Grant Rosman have been largely forgotten The story of their books in America reveals how culture commerce and copyright law interacted to create both opportunities and obstacles for Australian writers

Hell and Back Tim Parks, 2012-02-07 In this brilliant collection of essays Tim Parks a celebrated novelist and master of the essay form offers a wide range of wonderfully challenging and always provocative reflections on literature and the art of writing Parks turns his attention to classic authors such as Dante Leopardi Borges Beckett and Christina Stead contemporary writers including Vikram Seth and Salman Rushdie and the late W G Sebald and Jos Saramago along with a dozen others The lead essay on Dante sets the tone for the entire collection erudite contemplative witty and meticulous it constantly offers new insights into The Inferno that most celebrated of all poems In Hell and Back Tim Parks reminds us just how exciting the essay form can be

Henryk Grossman Works, Volume 1 Henryk Grossman, 2018-11-26 This collection includes texts by Henryk Grossman that are primarily concerned with economic theory monographs articles essays letters and manuscript material Many have never been published in English before some in any language The first in four volumes of Grossman s works it provides the basis for a deeper understanding of Grossman s contributions to Marxist economic theory and critique of bourgeois economics Rick Kuhn s introduction explains the contexts in which the texts were written and establishes their contemporary relevance

Christina Stead Diana Brydon, 1987-01-01 Stead s novels have gained growing readership and critical attention in recent years This feminist reading of the life and work of Christina Stead focuses on her characters and themes that question established assumptions about gender and class relations and the aesthetic values they support

The Magic Phrase Margaret Harris, 2000 This is the first volume of essays by various hands on the work of the great Australian novelist Christina Stead 1902-83 It provides an overview of Stead criticism including pioneering classic essays together with a selection from the burgeoning critical literature of the 1980s and 90s and several articles not previously published

Anti-Education Friedrich Nietzsche, 2015-12-15 AN NYRB Classics Original In 1869 at the age of twenty four the precociously brilliant Friedrich Nietzsche was appointed to a professorship of classical philology at the University of Basel He seemed marked for a successful and conventional academic career Then the philosophy of Schopenhauer and the music of Wagner transformed his ambitions The genius of such thinkers and makers the kind of genius that had emerged in ancient Greece this alone was the touchstone for true understanding But how was education to serve genius especially in a modern society marked more and more by an unholy alliance between academic specialization mass market journalism and the militarized state Something more than sturdy scholarship was called for A new way of teaching and questioning a new philosophy What that new way might be was the question Nietzsche broached in five vivid popular public lectures in Basel in 1872 Anti Education presents a provocative and timely reckoning with what remains one of the central challenges of the modern world The Land Breakers John Ehle, 2014-11-25 Set deep in the Appalachian wilderness between the years of 1779 and 1784 The Land Breakers is a saga like the Norse sagas or the book of Genesis a story of first and last things of the violence of birth and death of inescapable sacrifice and the faltering emergence of community Mooney and Imy Wright twenty one former indentured servants long habituated to backbreaking work but not long married are traveling west They arrive in a no account settlement in North Carolina and on impulse part with all their savings to acquire a patch of land high in the mountains With a little livestock and a handful of crude tools they enter the mountain world one of transcendent beauty and cruel necessity and begin to make a world of their own Mooney and Imy are the first to confront an unsettled country that is sometimes paradise and sometimes hell They will soon be followed by others John Ehle is a master of the American language He has an ear for dialogue and an eye for nature and a grasp of character that have established The Land Breakers as one of the great fictional reckonings with the making of America The Invisibility Cloak Ge Fei, 2016-10-11 A lightly surreal story of misfortune menace and high end stereo equipment in the cutthroat capitalistic world of modern China An NYRB Classics Original The hero of The Invisibility Cloak lives in contemporary Beijing where everyone is doing their best to hustle up the ladder of success while shouldering an ever growing burden of consumer goods and he s a loser Well into his forties he s divorced and still doting on his ex childless and living with his sister her husband wants him out in an apartment at the edge of town with a crack in the wall the wind from the north blows through while he gets by just by making customized old fashioned amplifiers for the occasional rich audio obsessive He has contempt for his clients and contempt for himself The only things he really likes are Beethoven and vintage speakers Then an old friend tips him off about a special job a little risky but just don t ask too many questions and can it really be that this hopeless loser wins This provocative and seriously funny exercise in the social fantastic by the brilliantly original Ge Fei one of China s finest living writers is among the most original works of fiction to come out of China in recent years It is sure to appeal to readers of Haruki Murakami and other fabulists of contemporary irreality Fighting for Life S. Josephine Baker, 2013-09-24 An engaging and thought provoking memoir of battling public health crises in early 20th century New York City from the pioneering female physician and children s health advocate who caught Typhoid Mary The New York Times New York s Lower East Side was said to be the most densely populated square mile on earth in the 1890s Health inspectors called the neighborhood the suicide ward Diarrhea epidemics raged each summer killing thousands of children Sweatshop babies with smallpox and typhus dozed in garment heaps destined for fashionable shops Desperate mothers paced the streets to soothe their feverish children and white mourning cloths hung from every building A third of the children living there died before their fifth birthday By 1911 the child death rate had fallen sharply and The New York Times hailed the city as the healthiest on earth In this witty and highly personal autobiography public health crusader Dr S Josephine Baker explains how this transformation was achieved By the time she retired in 1923 Baker was famous worldwide for saving the lives of 90 000 children The programs she developed many still in use today have saved the lives of millions more She fought for women s suffrage toured Russia in the 1930s and captured Typhoid Mary Mallon twice She was also an astute observer of her times and Fighting for Life is one of the most honest compassionate memoirs of American medicine ever written Slow Days, Fast Company Eve Babitz,2016-08-30 No one burned hotter than Eve Babitz Possessing skin that radiated its own kind of moral laws spectacular teeth and a figure that was the stuff of legend she seduced seemingly everyone who was anyone in Los Angeles for a long stretch of the 1960s and 70s One man proved elusive however and so Babitz did what she did best she wrote him a book Slow Days Fast Company is a full fledged and full bodied evocation of a bygone Southern California that far exceeds its mash note premise In ten sun baked Santa Ana wind swept sketches Babitz re creates a Los Angeles of movie stars distraught over their success socialites on three day drug binges holed up in the Chateau Marmont soap opera actors worried that tomorrow s script will kill them off Italian femmes fatales even more fatal than Babitz And she even leaves LA now and then spending an afternoon at the house of flawless Orange County suburbanites a day among the grape pickers of the Central Valley a weekend in Palm Springs where her dreams of romance fizzle and her only solace is Virginia Woolf In the end it doesn t matter if Babitz ever gets the guy she seduces us The Green Man Kingsley Amis,2013-05-07 The owner of a haunted country inn contends with death fatherhood romantic woes and alcoholism in this humorous rattling good ghost story from a Booker Prize winning author The New York Times Maurice Allington has reached middle age and is haunted by death As he says I honestly can t see why everybody who isn t a child everybody who s theoretically old enough to have understood what death means doesn t spend all his time thinking about it It s a pretty arresting thought He also happens to own and run a country inn that is haunted The Green Man opens as Maurice s father drops dead had he seen something in the room and continues as friends and family convene for the funeral Maurice s problems are many and increasing How to deal with his own declining health How to reach out to a teenage daughter who watches TV all the time How to get his best friend s wife in the sack How to find another drink And another And then there is always death The Green Man is a ghost story that hits a live nerve a very black comedy with an uncannily happy ending in other words Kingsley Amis at his best
