What do I exist for? Francesco Di Santi, 2024-12-21 This book does not aim to offer definitive answers but rather to explore the fascinating process of reflection that each of us faces throughout life Instead of delivering absolute truths we seek to understand how the questions we ask can guide us in our personal journeys of discovery and growth I chose to focus on the question What do I exist for instead of Why do I exist for a significant reason While the latter directs us towards biological and scientific explanations about the origin of life such as evolution and the mechanisms that brought us here the former invites us to a deeper reflection on purpose and meaning In addressing What do I exist for I explore two fundamental dimensions The first is the utilitarian aspect reflecting on how our actions and choices can contribute to society and those around us This is an invitation to consider how we can be useful how our skills and talents can be practically applied to improve the world The second dimension is more ethical where I seek to broaden the moral scope of our existence Here the challenge is to think about the common good with a universal bias reflecting on how our lives can positively impact as many people as possible It's about finding ways to live that not only satisfy our personal needs but also contribute to a more just and compassionate world This book is an invitation for you young reader to embark on a journey of self discovery and reflection May each page inspire curiosity and courage to explore the vast possibilities that life offers May you find your own path guided by your questions and may these reflections not only illuminate your path but also inspire those around you Remember the true magic of life lies in the search in the willingness to learn and grow with each experience May this book be a faithful companion on your journey encouraging you to question to dream and to share your discoveries with the world
