Salisbury, 2013-06-17 Perpetua's Passion studies the third century martyrdom of a young woman and places it in the intellectual and social context of her age Conflicting ideas of religion family and gender are explored as Salisbury follows Perpetua from her youth in a wealthy Roman household to her imprisonment and death in the arena Playing On: Re-staging the Passion after the Death of God Mirella Klomp, 2020-09-25 In Playing On Re staging the Passion after the Death of God Mirella Klomp shows how the Dutch playfully rediscover Christian heritage Engaging theologically with a public Passion play she demonstrates how precisely a production of Jesus last hours carves out a new and unexpected space for God in a post secular culture The Passion of International Leadership Philippe Beauregard, 2022-10-04 How do international leaders emerge and why are they successful in bringing followers to converge on their positions The Passion of International Leadership draws on recent advances in political psychology and state of the art research in International Relations to go beyond current knowledge and simplistic accounts of international leadership It tells surprising and intense stories of policymakers at the head of great powers attempting to cooperate during crisis moments and uses these stories to challenge commonly held beliefs and intuitions about international leadership Beauregard explores international leadership in four cases of transatlantic cooperation when Western policymakers were confronted with foreign conflicts like civil or secessionist wars He provides a fascinating study of the recognition of Slovenia Croatia and Bosnia during the wars in Yugoslavia the peace mediation during the Russia Georgia war in 2008 the adoption of economic sanctions against Russia over the conflict in Ukraine and finally cooperation on striking against the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria The book argues that leaders are driven by their convictions and that they must strike a balance between the intense emotions associated with their beliefs and their need to represent a broader community At the same time as they seek to bring followers on board by persuading them they need to pay attention to emotionally contagious and resonant events that can alter the course of international cooperation

The Passion and the Glory Ysatis De Saint Simon, 2001-03-14 The Passion and The Glory: The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived. There have been numerous accounts of the life of Jesus, but throughout the whole century there has never been a single one written from the point of view of a woman. The Passion and the Glory: The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived is the first Gospel written from the point of view of a woman; furthermore, it is the only one written from the perspective of the woman who loved Jesus passionately as a God and as a Man, Mary of Magdala. It is the Gospel of Mary of Magdala, A Gospel for the new Century. The Passion and the Glory: The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived offers to the reader the most complete account of the life of Jesus the Christ that has ever been written in the history of Christianity That is it includes in it witnesses accounts of His birth miracles and stories of His Infancy the occult or lost years His mission passion and death and the rarely found mystery teachings of the Christ Jesus to His apostles after His Resurrection these although known to Theologians have only been disclosed in some rare and hard to find Apocryphal Gospels The Gospel of Mary Magdala is illuminating human intriguing and interesting because it gives us dimensions unknown to most of us of the humanity and divinity of Jesus the Christ dimensions that only the woman who loved Him experienced and can help us to know Him better At the same time it also gives to us dimensions of our humanity and our unconscious quest to recuperate our forgotten divine status Mary of Magdala is an integral part of us the fallen humanity Her fall and her redemption are both irrevocably tied to our fallen human nature and to our hopes for redemption when we read her story we are able to understand our human selves our relationship with Jesus the Christ and our divine potentials subjectively It is as if her love affair with the Christ is our own love affair with His Spirit and her rise from sin into sainthood the hope for our own future divinization As we penetrate it The Passion and The Glory The Greatest Story Ever Lived becomes our own story We learn more about Jesus His Love for us and are exposed to His Mystery teachings a priceless treasure of wisdom which is not only liberating but helps to fuel in us the innate desire to discover and recuperate our true divine nature The Gospel of Mary Magdalene is indeed a revolutionary Gospel of Love for the new minds and spirits of the Twenty first Century The Passion and The Glory The Greatest Love Story Ever Lived is a Gospel that was rejected in the past mainly because it came from a woman Things have changed what makes it most valuable in the new century is precisely that it comes from a woman A woman who was not only one of Jesus closest disciples and His most intimate companion but the one He chose to make an apostle to His apostles by making her the sole harbinger of His resurrection In an age when women don t have to bend anymore under the dark cloud of male chauvinism the Gospel of Mary Magdalene the woman who loved Jesus is more than welcome The fact that her vision of Jesus is that of a woman makes her Gospel a great love story passionate deeper and more human very different indeed from that of the male apostles Mary of Magdala lived with Jesus Christ by and through His Grace The Greatest Story of Love Ever Lived Thus it is her Gospel      Take Charge Today

Mystery-religions and Christianity Samuel Angus,1925      A Passion for Birds Mark Barrow,2000-02-27 In the decades following the Civil War as industrialization urbanization and economic expansion increasingly reshaped the landscape many Americans began seeking adventure and aesthetic gratification through avian pursuits. By the turn of the century hundreds of thousands of middle and upper class devotees were rushing to join Audubon societies, purchase field guides and keep records of the species they encountered in the wild. Mark Barrow vividly reconstructs this story not only through the experiences of birdwatchers, collectors, conservationists and taxidermists but also through those of a relatively new breed of bird enthusiast: the technically oriented ornithologist. In exploring how ornithologists struggled to forge a discipline and profession amidst an explosion of popular interest in natural history, A Passion for Birds provides the first book-length history of American ornithology from the death of John James Audubon to the Second World War. Barrow shows how efforts to form a scientific community distinct from popular birders met with only partial success. The founding of the American Ornithologists Union in 1883 and the subsequent expansion of formal educational and employment opportunities in ornithology marked important milestones in this campaign. Yet by the middle of the twentieth century when ornithology had finally achieved the status of a modern profession, its practitioners remained dependent on the services of birdwatchers and other amateur enthusiasts. Environmental issues also loom large in Barrow's account as he traces areas of both cooperation and conflict between ornithologists and wildlife conservationists. Recounting a colorful story based on the interactions among a wide variety of bird lovers, this book will interest historians of science, environmental historians, ornithologists, birdwatchers and anyone curious about the historical roots of today's birding boom.

A Passion for Antiquities Marion True, Kenneth Hamma, 1994-12-01. The collection of Barbara and Lawrence Fleischman of New York is one of the most important private collections of ancient Greek and Roman art in the United States and among the most important in the world. Composed of approximately three hundred objects from the Bronze Age to the Late Antique, it includes bronze statuettes, marble sculpture, vases, jewelry, lamps and candelabra, keys, weights and silver bowls and utensils. The Fleischmans have a particular fascination with pieces associated with everyday life in antiquity since these objects evoke a human connection to the past. They are also drawn to pieces that exemplify the human propensity to transform a functional object into a thing of beauty. Not only has their emotional response to an object's aesthetic appeal or its historical significance guided them in their forty years of collecting, personal interests have been at work as well. The large number of pieces related to the theater or representing theatrical subjects reflects Barbara Fleischman's lifelong love of that art A Passion for Antiquities contains photographs and extensive catalogue entries on the objects included in the exhibition at the J Paul Getty Museum and the Cleveland Museum of Art Eighteen contributors provide art historical and descriptive information about each piece The objects not selected for the exhibition are detailed in a checklist that specifies their origins dates media and sizes This book is the first major reference on the entire collection since most of the objects have never before been publicly shown To facilitate finding specific objects or groups of objects the book is organized first chronologically and then by medium Bibliographic sources for each entry cite both publications where the specific work is discussed as well as references to related scholarship Karol Wight provides a chronological overview of the collection and Oliver Taplin relates selected pieces to the development of Greek theater The exhibition of Barbara and Lawrence Fleischman s collection and this catalogue allow us to enter into their minds and emotions so that for a time we can share their passion for antiquities
