Passionate Princess:

Passionate Pursuit Darla Lassiter, 2009-10 Is being all that God desires us to be a uniquely feminine problem Women all over have experienced the difficulties of becoming a true woman of God In her first book Passionate Pursuit author Darla Lassiter incites young women to walk in the supernatural and approach their relationship with God with a new fervor She invites all young women to say yes to a journey that will lead them to an extraordinary life in Christ In this day by day devotional Darla shows readers how to read and apply basic biblical principles that will lead to the discovery of an individual God given purpose and destiny This experience will light a fire unlike anything ever experienced and show young women a truly Passionate Pursuit Darla has served in the church as a children s pastor youth pastor and associate pastor over the past twenty years and now travels full time speaking Her commission is to speak purpose into every believer through revelation of God s Word releasing them to be all that God has called them to be She is a much sought after speaker and teacher Darla and her husband reside in Fort Worth Texas

The Passionate Princess Barbara Cartland, 1988 The Concubine, the Princess, and the Teacher Douglas Scott Brookes, 2010-01-01 In the Western imagination the Middle Eastern harem was a place of sex debauchery slavery miscegenation power riches and sheer abandon But for the women and children who actually inhabited this realm of the imperial palace the reality was vastly different In this collection of translated memoirs three women who lived in the Ottoman imperial harem in Istanbul between 1876 and 1924 offer a fascinating glimpse behind the veil into the lives of Muslim palace women of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The memoirists are Filizten concubine to Sultan Murad V Princess Ayse daughter of Sultan Abdulhamid II and Safiye a schoolteacher who instructed the grandchildren and harem ladies of Sultan Mehmed V Their recollections of the Ottoman harem reveal the rigid protocol and hierarchy that governed the lives of the imperial family and concubines as well as the hundreds of slave women and black eunuchs in service to them The memoirists show that far from being a place of debauchery the harem was a family home in which polite and refined behavior prevailed Douglas Brookes explains the social structure of the nineteenth century Ottoman palace harem in his introduction These three memoirs written across a half century and by women of differing social classes offer a fuller and richer portrait of the Ottoman imperial harem than has ever before been available in English Passionate Faith Jennie Afman Dimkoff, 2005-08 Perfect for women s ministries and small group use this volume is filled with practical application and a new study guide for today s women Risë Stevens John Pennino, 2005 Ris Stevens was a force of nature on the stage From her humble beginnings in New York Stevens talent determination and heart helped her rise up to perform on the greatest stages all over the world Whether she was on the radio television the silver screen or stunning audiences at the Met her vocal presence was unforgettable In Carmen Ris Stevens ascended to the level of legendary performers The author John Pennino has taken special care to document her amazing life struggles and achievements Included in this volume is a detailed chronology discography and a CD of rare recordings The Passionate Princess: A Historical Romance Sundari

Venkatraman,2022-05-14 All it took was one look And they were in love Princess Hemangini is mesmerised by Prince Devendra when she falls into his arms while rushing across the royal gardens The Prince of Indrapuri is amazed that the Princess of Mahendrapuri is even more beautiful and graceful than what the visiting bards sang in praise of her Their mutual attraction blooms into love and they decide to get married Tying the knot is easy but consummating the marriage is another matter altogether As their love and passion draw them towards each other Devendra s mother Queen Kanchana Devi keeps throwing obstacles in the path of the lovers sometimes in the name of rituals and sometimes inflicting doubts in their minds doing her best to keep them apart As the frustrated bride and groom tolerate the intervening time with impatience something happens to shake up Hemangini something that makes her refuse to let her husband touch her What will the proud prince have to do to make his princess fall into his arms once again Read this historical romance from India to find out if the passionate princess finds happiness with her prince or not

Passionate Pilgrims Allison Lockwood,1981 The author has analyzed sorted and organized material from almost 500 accounts of travels in Great Britain into a veritable cavalcade of social history This is a book filled with life and vitality written with a light touch and always with an eye to social comedy It presents a true and realistic picture of these people and their periods

Outlines of Jewish History from B.C. 586 to C.E. 1885 Lady Katie Magnus,1924 Madhumalati Manjhan,2001-02-01 The mystical romance Madhumalati tells the story of a prince Manohar and his love for the beautiful princess Madhumalati When they are separated they have to endure suffering adventure and transformation before they can be reunited and experience true happiness A delightful love story the poem is also rich in mystical symbolism and the story of the two lovers represents the stages on the spiritual path to enlightenment Madhumalati was written in the sixteenth century and it is an outstanding example of Sufi literature in the Indian Islamic tradition Originally written in a dialect of Eastern Hindi it is here translated for the first time into English verse with an introduction and notes that explain the poem s religious significance

Fountain of Dreams Josie Litton,2003-07-01 New York Times bestselling author Josie Litton captivated readers with tales of the passionate sometimes forbidden unions between the fiery men and women of the island nation of Akora and those of mighty England Now the next generation of lovers longs to follow suit but new conflicts may prevent history from repeating itself Fountain of Dreams Lovely loyal and strong willed as her parents before her Amelia Darcourt is nonetheless entirely unprepared for her reaction to her family s compelling American visitor The handsome young man is a match not only for her wits but for her heart Yet no sooner does Amelia discover the attraction is mutual than she learns of a secret that may destroy her happiness Could the man she is so drawn to have an ulterior motive for returning her affections one involving the beloved island whose blood courses through her veins Charged with a secret mission to investigate the disappearance of several American seamen believed imprisoned on Akora Niels has come to England seeking Lord Alex Darcourt s help in entering the fortress kingdom But in spirited Amelia Darcourt he has found so much more Their burgeoning passion has him caught between duty and desire Loath to leave her side Niels resolves to win her heart upon his return But just as the two are destined to be together they are destined to face the challenges that threaten to keep them apart Only then will they be free to seal their love

Outlines of Jewish history, from B.C. 586 to C.E. 1885, by the author of 'About the Jews since Bible times'. Revised by M. Friedländer lady Katie Magnus,1892 The Eighteenth Century John Obert Voll,2025 The eighteenth century was a time of major global transitions Movements of religious and intellectual revival challenged established ideas European colonies emerged in the Western hemisphere global trade expanded and political revolutions and revolts in America France Russia and Haiti started to reshape political life At the beginning of the century power and wealth were roughly balanced among the major regions of the world By its end this balance was upset by the emergence of European imperial nation states and Western European industrial societies whose evolution was enabled by modern processes of industrialization globalization and empires John O Voll highlights key events and individuals in that transformation from Emperor Kangxi s meeting with Jesuits and Catherine the Great s imperial expansion of Russia Jonathan Edwards Great Awakening and Muhammid ibn Abd al Wahhab s Islam reform movement to Mulla Abdul Ghafur s trade in cotton Richard Arkwright s textile factories and Isaac Newton s and Immanuel Kant s contributions to the Enlightenment and modern science This book shows that the eighteenth century was a time of transition to modernity a time when the impact of the first globalization was being felt around the world Old ways of life disappeared as new ways of organizing human activities emerged

Outlines of Jewish History Lady Katie Magnus,1890 Anna of Saxony Ingrid Mann,2017-01-23 Since her early youth at the glittering court of Dresden Anna had been known as a difficult child and troublemaker Servants complained about her violent outbursts while courtiers bemoaned her general disregard for aristocratic female etiquette Upon reaching her teenage years the princess guardians decided that Saxony s enfant terrible should leave home as quickly as possible by marrying a foreign suitor in a preferably far away land Enter William of Orange handsome charming and heir to one of the Netherlands largest estates The fact that he was also a profligate partier and lover of women was conveniently overlooked Anna immediately fell for the Dutch bon vivant despite warnings from a few well meaning relatives For one William was a Catholic while Anna adhered to the Protestant teachings of Martin Luther critical voices cautioned correctly predicting future trouble for the princess in the Catholic Netherlands Furthermore the prince s liege lord the fanatical Philip II of Spain very much disapproved of a match between his premier vassal and a Lutheran heretic There was also the issue of plain Anna s growing obsession with the roguish William an obsession that was not reciprocated In the end the impetuous princess threw caution to the wind No other than William would do for a husband she insisted while publicly announcing that every vein in my body heartily loves him The St. James's Magazine and United Empire Review ,1863 Paddling Her Own Canoe Veronica Strong-Boag,Carole Gerson,2017-06-22 Frequently dismissed as a nature poet and an Indian Princess E Pauline Johnson 1861 1913 was not only an accomplished thinker and writer but a contentious and passionate personality who talked back to Euro Canadian culture Paddling Her Own Canoe is the only major scholarly study that examines Johnson s diverse roles as a First Nations champion New Woman serious writer and performer and Canadian nationalist A Native advocate of part Mohawk ancestry Johnson was also an independent self supporting unmarried woman during the period of first wave feminism Her versatile writings range from extraordinarily erotic poetry to polemical statements about the rights of First Nations Based on thorough research into archival and published sources this volume probes the meaning of Johnson s energetic career and addresses the complexities of her social racial and cultural position While situating Johnson in the context of turn of the century Canada the authors also use current feminist and post colonial perspectives to reframe her contribution Included is the first full chronology ever compiled of Johnson s writing Pauline Johnson was an extraordinary woman who crossed the racial and gendered lines of her time and thereby confounded Canadian society This study reclaims both her writings and her larger significance A Passionate Life Ita Buttrose,2024-04-04 An appealing and lively autobiography by one of Australia s most distinguished journalists A Passionate Life will strike a chord with working women everywhere An updated edition now including an epilogue Kerry Packer described her as a dedicated and brilliant journalist who has achieved greatness in her industry very early and so quickly and a jewel beyond price Cold Chisel wrote a song about her Rupert Murdoch was so impressed by her talents he asked her to be the editor in chief of both the Daily and Sunday Telegraphs and in doing so become the first woman ever to edit a major Australian metropolitan newspaper In her extraordinary career spanning over fifty years Ita Buttrose has been involved in every aspect of the media from newspapers and magazines to television and radio From her creation of a new type of women s magazine in Cleo and then ITA to her appointment as the youngest ever editor of The Australian Women s Weekly a passionate love of journalism has driven her every step of the way Refreshingly candid about the challenges she has faced as a professional woman not only in her career but also in her love life and as a mother A Passionate Life describes those groundbreaking years with Ita s trademark clarity precision and wit The History of Jesus of Nazara Theodor Keim,1879 Musical West, Music and the Dance ,1927
