Metcalfe, 1996-08-22 Offering a major challenge to established textbooks and pointing to inspiring new ways of approaching sociology this book presents a notable shift in introductory sociology Too often the subject is taught as a dry and detached system of thought and practice Passion is regarded as something to avoid or to treat with inherent suspicion By asking questions about sociology and its relation to passion the authors seek to revitalize the subject The book introduces and develops a number of themes such as identity knowledge magic desire power and everyday life It argues that students should analyze these themes through practices including reading writing speaking storytelling and organizing The authors aim to intr

Schumann's Dichterliebe and Early Romantic Poetics Beate Julia Perrey, 2002 This book offers a theory of Romantic song by re evaluating Schumann's Dichterliebe of 1840 one of the most enigmatic works of the repertoire It investigates the poetics of Early Romanticism in order to understand the mysterious magnetism and singular imaginative energy that imbues Schumann's musical language The Romantics rejected the ideal of a coherent and organic whole and cherished the suggestive openness of the Romantic fragment the disconcerting tone of Romantic irony and the endlessness of Romantic reflection thereby realizing an aesthetic of fragmentation Close readings of many songs from Dichterliebe show the singer's intense involvement with the piano's voice suggesting a split Self and the presence of the Other Seeing Schumann as the second poet of the poem here of Heine's famous Lyrisches Intermezzo this book considers essential issues of musico poetic intertextuality introducing into musicology a hermeneutic that seeks to synthesize philosophical literary critical music analytical and psycho analytical modes of thought

Plots and Proposals Karen Tracey, 2000 Boy meets girl Boy proposes to girl Girl refuses proposal Then what This provocative scenario provides the frame for a significant countertradition in popular nineteenth century women's novels the double proposal plot in which the heroine rejects and later accepts proposals from the same suitor Exploring the American wing of this movement through the novels of Carolyn Hentz Augusta Evans Laura J Curtis Bullard E D E N Southworth and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Karen Tracey investigates how each of these writers is constrained by her historical circumstances and how she uses her fiction to critique those circumstances Pioneered in Britain by Jane Austen Charlotte Bront and Elizabeth Barrett Browning the double proposal plot dislodges the myth of Mr Right and questions the all powerful notions of true love and happily ever after When the heroine rejects her suitor s initial proposal she opens up the possibility of renegotiating the terms of the relationship and exploring alternative roles By considering two possible marriages between the same set of partners the double proposal plot interrogates the role of middle class women in courtship and in public life as well as the quality of married life and the influence a woman potentially brings to it Tracey charts the genre s evolution from novels that seek answers within renegotiated marriages to those that challenge the efficacy of marriage itself Reconstructing some of the cultural circumstances that would have influenced the writing publishing and reading of the novels Plots and Proposals examines how changing notions of love and romance both inform and are critiqued by this renegade fiction
