Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 2012 The Passion of International Leadership Philippe Beauregard, 2022-10-04 How do international leaders emerge and why are they successful in bringing followers to converge on their positions The Passion of International Leadership draws on recent advances in political psychology and state of the art research in International Relations to go beyond current knowledge and simplistic accounts of international leadership It tells surprising and intense stories of policymakers at the head of great powers attempting to cooperate during crisis moments and uses these stories to challenge commonly held beliefs and intuitions about international leadership Beauregard explores international leadership in four cases of transatlantic cooperation when Western policymakers were confronted with foreign conflicts like civil or secessionist wars He provides a fascinating study of the recognition of Slovenia Croatia and Bosnia during the wars in Yugoslavia the peace mediation during the Russia Georgia war in 2008 the adoption of economic sanctions against Russia over the conflict in Ukraine and finally cooperation on striking against the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria The book argues that leaders are driven by their convictions and that they must strike a balance between the intense emotions associated with their beliefs and their need to represent a broader community At the same time as they seek to bring followers on board by persuading them they need to pay attention to emotionally contagious and resonant events that can alter the course of international cooperation Marketing is Passion Not an Art Korak Paul Choudhury,2021-02-03
