Politics for a Pilgrim Church Thomas J. Bushlack,2015-10-12 Presents an innovative constructive alternative to Christian involvement in the culture wars Church leaders and scholars have long wrestled with what should provide a guiding vision for Christian engagement in culture and politics In this book Thomas Bushlack argues that a retrieval of Thomas Aquinas s understanding of civic virtue provides important resources for guiding this engagement today Bushlack suggests that Aquinas s vision of the pilgrim church provides a fitting model for seeking the earthly common good of the political community and he notes the features of a Thomistic account of justice and civic virtue that remain particularly salient for the twenty first century The book concludes with suggestions for cultivating a Christian rhetoric of the common good as an alternative to the predominant forms of discourse fostered within the culture wars that have been so divisive and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan s overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception The Pilgrims Progress/The Lives of John Donne and George Herbert John Bunyan/Izaak Walton,1909 Power and Passion in Egypt Archie Hunter,2007-06-29
