Passive Sentences In English And Portuguese:

Passive Sentences in English and Portuguese Milton Mariano Azevedo,1980 This study analyzes passive sentences in English and Portuguese which result from a post semantic transformation applied when a noun which does not play the semantic role of actor is chosen as syntactic subject Choice between a passive and its non passive or active counterpart reflects differences in the distribution of information in the sentence as regards the relative importance of the latter s constituents for communication Such distribution is analyzed in terms of Prague school theory especially that involving the notions of communicative dynamism and the distribution of theme and rheme The book concludes with a contrastive analysis of English and Portuguese passive sentence patterns which serves as the basis for observations on the teaching of Portuguese passives to native speakers of English

Shanahan, Yan Qu, Janyce Wiebe, 2005-11-22 Human Language Technology HLT and Natural Language Processing NLP systems have typically focused on the factual aspect of content analysis Other aspects including pragmatics opinion and style have received much less attention However to achieve an adequate understanding of a text these aspects cannot be ignored The chapters in this book address the aspect of subjective opinion which includes identifying different points of view identifying different emotive dimensions and classifying text by opinion Various conceptual models and computational methods are presented The models explored in this book include the following distinguishing attitudes from simple factual assertions distinguishing between the author's reports from reports of other people's opinions and distinguishing between explicitly and implicitly stated attitudes In addition many applications are described that promise to benefit from the ability to understand attitudes and affect including indexing and retrieval of documents by opinion automatic question answering about opinions analysis of sentiment in the media and in discussion groups about consumer products political issues etc brand and reputation management discovering and predicting consumer and voting trends analyzing client discourse in therapy and counseling determining relations between scientific texts by finding reasons for citations generating more appropriate texts and making agents more believable and creating writers aids The studies reported here are carried out on different languages such as English French Japanese and Portuguese Difficult challenges remain however It can be argued that analyzing attitude and affect in text is an NLP complete problem

Embracing the Beat of Phrase: An Psychological Symphony within Passive Sentences In English And Portuguese

In a world consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the prepared term often disappear into the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of Passive Sentences In English And Portuguese a marvelous fictional prize brimming with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental trip, well unraveling the hidden melodies and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of the poignant assessment, we can investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
