Passports Guide To Ethnic Toronto:

Passport's Guide to Ethnic Toronto Robert J. Kasher, 1997 Ethnic Toronto is your passport to the world's most multicultural city. This handy guidebook presents the rich tapestry of ethnic communities as it takes you through a treasure trove of restaurants, shops, bakeries, food shops, cultural associations, churches, nightclubs, festivals, and parades. Toronto

Barbara Radcliffe Rogers, Stillman Rogers, 2000 Provides a physical description of the city as well as an overview of the history and customs of Toronto

A Guide to the Library of Congress Classification Lois Mai Chan, 1999 The latest edition of this classic work formerly Immroth's Guide to the Library of Congress Classification Libraries Unlimited 1990 provides you with a basic understanding of the ever-evolving Library of Congress Classification system and its applications. After introducing the classification and giving a brief history of its development, the author presents readers with the general principles, structure, and format of the scheme. She then discusses and illustrates the use of tables. In a chapter new to this edition, Chan provides a general discourse on assigning LC call numbers

Tourism, Culture and Regeneration Melanie K. Smith, 2007 Sustainable and integrated regeneration in the context of culture and tourism is explored for the first time within this book. The text is enhanced by international case studies

Inside the Mosaic Eric Fong, 2006-01-01 Inside the Mosaic is an essential tool for understanding the struggle faced by both the city and its new residents, which will bring clarity to a subject that has historically been fraught with divergent views

Culture of Cities-- Under Construction Culture of Cities Project, 2001 The Culture of Cities Project is an international interdisciplinary five-year research project studying the lived experience of place in urban life. Areas of research focus on building and rebuilding the circulation of objects and artifacts, representation of locality, the arts, and citizenship. The purpose is to sustain the dialogue on the good city and the good of the city that is implicit or a tacit feature of research and commentary on urban life and to inquire systematically into the various ways in which this dialogue is engaged, repressed, or redefined in the everyday life of cities. Settings in Montreal, Toronto, Berlin, and Dublin constitute sites for ethnographic and interpretive research

Passport to Success Jeanette S. Martin, Lillian H. Chaney, 2008-11-30 Like it or not, every business even one conducted from the kitchen table is global. No matter the industry, employees now routinely travel to other countries or interact with foreign customers, vendors, or fellow employees. Or they conduct business over the phone via e-mail or through video links. As a result, they have to understand international customs and etiquette or risk losing customers or botching business relations. And understanding business customs in other cultures isn't merely playing good defense; it often leads to new products or service enhancements that help an enterprise grow. In Passport to Success, Jeanette Martin and Lillian Chaney apply their expertise in business etiquette training and intercultural communications to present a practical guide to conducting business successfully around the world. Each chapter in this book presents in-depth information on the business environment and culture in the top twenty trading partners of the United States Canada Mexico Japan China United Kingdom Germany South Korea Netherlands France Singapore Taiwan Belgium Australia Brazil Hong Kong Switzerland Malaysia Italy India and Israel Chapters contain both practical tips and illustrative examples and the book concludes with a listing of resources books magazines organizations and Web sites for additional information In addition Passport to Success contains useful overview material that will help business people plan a trip abroad or a campaign to win customers in another country Besides trade statistics and information on global trade agreements readers will find information on using the Internet productively to conduct or seek business how women can succeed in countries with traditional male oriented business cultures how to build cross cultural relationships and ways language can enhance or obstruct business dealings Every businessperson is now a player in the global market for goods and services This book provides valuable tips that will help people avoid missteps and increase their sales and personal success when dealing with counterparts in other countries
