Eyes to the Past-A Pictorial History from Families of Azusa, Baldwin Park and Irwindale John Arvizu, Rosanne Gonzales-Hardy, 2009-06-01 A photographic history of communities in the San Gabriel Valley of Los Angeles Included are pictures from 1859 to 1960 stories and maps of a bygone era If you like old B W photos you ll love this book Not Even Past Dave White, 2025-04-29 The acclaimed author delivers a tremendous jolt of adrenaline then ratchets the action back up for a breakneck finish in this gritty crime thriller The Florida Times Union Six years ago Jackson Donne s fianc e Jeanne died in a car crash a hit and run with a drunk driver It was an open and shut case with few questions asked mostly because Donne was in no state to ask any Now the former PI turned college student has finals coming up and a wedding to plan with the new woman in his life He s something he hasn t been in a long time happy But that unfamiliar feeling doesn t last Donne receives an email with a link to a video of Jeanne being held captive alive for now Donne s investigative skills have faded He has no contacts no one to turn to except for the dodgy ex partner he had when he was a cop the other man who loved Jeanne Donne knows that each step into the past is a piece of the future he s throwing away But the truth is out there on the violent New Jersey streets he once knew like the back of his hand White is one of a group of younger writers reimagining the P I novel This book flies Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Dave White brings the goods Skillfully crafting a tale that thriller fans will devour at lightning speed yet meaty enough that mystery fans will delight in fitting the pieces together Crimespree Magazine

Sharing the Past J.A. Weingarten, 2019-07-15 Sharing the Past is an unprecedentedly detailed account of the intertwining discourses of Canadian history and creative literature When social history emerged as its own field of study in the 1960s it promised new stories that would bring readers away from the elite writing of academics and closer to the everyday experiences of people Yet the academy s continued emphasis on professional distance and objectivity made it difficult for historians to connect with the experiences of those about whom they wrote and those same emphases made it all but impossible for non academic experts to be institutionally recognized as historians Drawing on interviews and new archival materials to construct a history of Canadian poetry written since 1960 Sharing the Past argues that the project of social history has achieved its fullest expression in lyric poetry a genre in which personal experiences anchor history Developing this genre since 1960 Canadian poets have provided an inclusive model for a truly social history that indiscriminately shares the right to speak authoritatively of the past How the Movies Got a Past Dimitrios Latsis, 2023 How the Movies Got a Past presents a comprehensive survey of the rise of historiographical discourse on cinema in North America as it is reflected in publications exhibitions lectures and films about the cinema as a technology artform and source of entertainment from its inception up to 1930 With a wealth of case studies and illustrations this book will appeal to media historians silent movie buffs film archivists and students alike The Picture in Question Mark C. Taylor, 2010-01-15 A rich exploration of the possibilities of representation after Modernism Mark Taylor s new study charts the logic and continuity of Mark Tansey's painting by considering the philosophical ideas behind Tansey's art Taylor examines how Tansey uses structuralist and poststructuralist thought as well as catastrophe chaos and complexity theory to create paintings that please the eye while provoking the mind Taylor's clear accounts of thinkers ranging from Plato Kant and Hegel to Merleau Ponty Derrida and de Man will be an invaluable contribution to students and teachers of art Shattered Pictures of Places and Cities in George Santayana's Autobiography Graziella Fantini, 2009 Shattered Pictures of Places and Cities se adentra por las pginas autobiogrficas filosficas y narrativas ms relevantes de George Santayana discurrendo por sus viajes y geografas fsicas en paralelo a sus viajes y geografas morales Es un intento de ir ms all de la reflexin entorno a los orgenes biogrficos del filosofo de ah que se recupere una indagacin sobre su habitar el lenguaje y el arte Santayana reconsidera los fundamentos del arte de la memoria clstica en su autobiografa para formular una nueva propuesta esttica donde el arte y la vida se funden y se confunden estimulndose recprocamente Hila una filosofa del viaje y del lugar donde se privilegia una noci3n del habitar que ilumina nuestra condici3n de nmaditas en la vida y en el pensamiento y nuestra trgica estable inestabilidad en este mundo Photo-era Magazine Juan C. Abel, Thomas Harrison Cummings, Wilfred A. French, A. H. Beardsley, 1913 Orangeburg, SC Gene Atkinson, 2002-02-01 Located along the north fork of South Carolina's Edisto River Orangeburg enjoys an extended rich heritage dating back to the 1730s when it was created as one of the original inland townships The first settlers were mostly German and Swiss immigrants who found the area to be the paragon of locales valuable in fertile soil and abundant wildlife surrounding the river The city of today has been gently shaped by its landscape and natural life which called people and industries to experience the benefits of such land This volume celebrates Orangeburg's history by offering readers a rare find of more than 200 photographs from days gone by taking them on an adventure through the town's coming of age from the early days of photography to the 1950s These images reveal the ways of life long past by showcasing well known town entities such as the Courthouse Square and the Edisto Memorial Gardens local businesses like the Orangeburg Hotel and beloved residents some of whom were public figures and others better remembered by their families and friends From early century churches to the evolution of the county fair readers will find themselves enthralled by the history that Orangeburg possesses Paris and the Cliché of History Catherine Eleanor Clark, 2018 Paris and the Cliché of History traces the changing historical meanings of photographs of this city during a century marked by urban renovation war occupation liberation and visual documentation Challenging the idea that photographs merely document the past it calls for new methods of reading photos as material objects with histories of their own and sheds insight on the capital's reduction to an image in the twentieth century Photography and Its Origins Tanya Sheehan, Andres Zervigon, 2014-11-20 Recent decades have seen a flourishing interest in and speculation about the origins of photography Spurred by rediscoveries of first photographs and proclamations of photography's death in the digital age scholars have been rethinking who and what invented the medium Photography and Its Origins reflects on this interest in photography's beginnings by reframing it in critical and specifically historiographical terms How and why do we write about the origins of the medium Whom or what do we rely on to construct those narratives What's at stake in choosing to tell stories of photography's genesis in one way or another And what kind of work can those stories do Edited by Tanya Sheehan and Andr s Mario Zervig in this collection of 16 original essays illustrated with 32 colour images showcases prominent and emerging voices in the field of photography studies Their research cuts across disciplines and methodologies shedding new light on old questions about histories and their writing Photography and Its Origins will serve as a valuable resource for students and scholars in art history visual and media studies and the history of science and technology

Remembering Fergus Craik,2021-06-10 Memory is typically thought of as a set of neural representations memory traces that must be found and reactivated in order to be experienced It is often suggested that memory traces are represented by a hierarchically organized system of analyzers modified sharpened and differentiated by encounters with successive events Remembering An activity of mind and brain is the magnum opus of one of the leading figures in the psychology of memory It sets out Fergus Craik's current view of human memory as a dynamic activity of mind and brain The author argues that remembering should be understood as a system of active cognitive processes similar to perhaps identical to the processes underlying attending perceiving and thinking Thus encoding processes are essentially viewed as the mental activities involved in perceiving and understanding and retrieval is described as the partial reactivation of these same processes This account proposes that episodic and semantic memory should be thought of as levels in a continuum of specificity rather than as separate systems of memory In addition the book presents Craik's views on working memory and on age related memory impairments In the latter case the losses are attributed largely to a difficulty with the self initiation of appropriate encoding and retrieval operations compensated when needed by support from the external environment The development of these ideas is discussed throughout the book and illustrated substantially by experiments from the author's lab but also by empirical and theoretical contributions from other researchers A broad account of current ideas and findings in contemporary memory research but viewed from the author's personal theoretical standpoint Remembering An activity of mind and brain will be essential for researchers graduate and postdoctoral students working in the field of human memory

Graphic Subjects Michael A. Chaney,2011-03-01 Some of the most noteworthy graphic novels and comic books of recent years have been entirely autobiographical In Graphic Subjects Michael A Chaney brings together a lively mix of scholars to examine the use of autobiography within graphic novels including such critically acclaimed examples as Art Spiegelman's Maus David Beauchard's Epileptic Marjane Satrapi's Persepolis Alan Moore's Watchmen and Gene Yang's American Born Chinese These essays accompanied by visual examples illuminate the new horizons that illustrated autobiographical narrative creates The volume insightfully highlights the ways that graphic novelists and literary cartoonists have incorporated history experience and life stories into their work The result is a challenging and innovative collection that reveals the combined power of autobiography and the graphic novel Coding Video Iain E. Richardson,2024-10-14 A fully up to date guide to transformative consumer technologies Video compression or video coding has been at the centre of a revolution in the way video is produced delivered and consumed It has made the switch from analogue to digital video possible and has enabled fundamental shifts in the way we now watch video New video compression standards together with adaptive streaming protocols are used to deliver high quality video to homes and workplaces around the world Coding Video provides a practical and comprehensive guide to the new landscape of video coding and video streaming This book explains the core technologies with a wealth of practical examples and illustrations covers key standards such as H 265 HEVC and includes an introduction to the new H 266 VVC standard Coding Video will appeal to engineers application developers product designers and digital video professionals as well as to graduate students and researchers in Engineering Computer Science and related subjects A book companion website is available at <https://www.vcodex.com> coding video book The Judge ,1920 The Cultural Life of Images Brian Leigh Molyneaux,2013-10-18 Pictures are often admired for their aesthetic merits but they are rarely treated as if they had as much to offer as the written word They are often overlooked as objects of analysis themselves and tend to be seen simply as adjuncts to the text Images however are not passive and have a direct impact that engages attention in ways independent of any specific text Advertising entertainment and propaganda have realised the extent of this power to shape ideas but the scientific community has hitherto neglected the ways in which visual material conditions the ways in which we think With subjects including prehistoric artworks excavation illustrations artists impressions of ancient sites and peoples and contemporary landscapes photographs and drawings this study explores how pictures shape our perceptions and our expectations of the past This volume is not concerned with the accuracy of pictures from the past or directly about the past itself but is interested instead in why certain subjects are selected why they are depicted the way they are and what effects such images have on our idea of the past This collection constitutes a ground breaking study in historiography which radically reassesses the ways that history can be written The Echoes of the Elk's Estate The Echoes of the Elk's Estate,2024-10-14 One year has passed since the events in Iron River Michigan and it s time for another summer vacation Liam Boo and the rest of the family have recovered from previous traumatic events in their own way To distance themselves from former occurrences Will and Annie Liam and Boo s parents decide to take a road trip to the sleeping community of Doylestown Pennsylvania This is the hometown of Claire Will s sister A beautiful and quiet colonial borough located not far from the City of Philadelphia What could possibly go wrong Will plans to give his family a tour of his hometown Enjoy the sights and aid his sister with a project that was very dear to his childhood the restoration of the Elk s Family Estate Is there an inherent evil trying to lure everyone into a trap Luckily this is where
