Subjunctive Conditionals Michela Ippolito, 2013-09-13 A proposal for a compositional semantics for subjunctive or would conditionals in English In this book Michela Ippolito proposes a compositional semantics for subjunctive or would conditionals in English that accounts for their felicity conditions and the constraints on the satisfaction of their presuppositions by capitalizing on the occurrence of past tense morphology in both antecedent and consequent clauses Very little of the extensive literature on subjunctive conditionals tries to account for the meaning of these sentences compositionally or to relate this meaning to their linguistic form this book fills that gap connecting the different lines of research on conditionals Ippolito's proposal will be of interest both to linguists and to philosophers concerned with conditionals and modality more generally Ippolito reviews previous analyses of counterfactuals and subjunctive conditionals in the work of David Lewis Robert Stalnaker Angelika Kratzer and others considers the contrast between future simple past subjunctive conditionals and future past perfect subjunctive conditionals presents a proposal for subjunctive conditionals that addresses puzzles left unsolved by previous proposals reviews a number of presupposition triggers showing that they fit the pattern predicted by her proposal and discusses an asymmetry between the past and the future among subjunctive conditionals arguing that the best account of our linguistic intuitions must include an indeterministic view of the world

Visual Writing Alex Baratta, 2010-07-12 Considering the fact that the academic essay continues to be widely used as an assessment tool within education there is a need for students to develop their skills in this area However it is often the case that students perceive instruction in academic writing if it is offered at all as boring This book addresses these two issues

First the book can be used by students themselves even in the absence of academic writing classes as a self help guide from which they can develop their knowledge of academic writing and subsequent proficiency Second by discussing the components of academic writing in terms such as film which are familiar to today s generation students are enabled to relate to the material better and see what might have been perceived as dull from a brand new perspective Visual learners in particular will enjoy the analogous link between films and essays and students today are arguably more visually literate than previous generations being exposed to visuals on a daily basis through text message iconography computer games and the Internet The visual instruction provided in turn helps to facilitate mental visuals in students minds from which their knowledge of essay writing can start to develop
