Pastoral Counseling, a Reflective Mode V. James Mannoia, 1982      Clinical Handbook of Pastoral Counseling Robert J. Wicks, Richard D. Parsons, Donald Capps, 2003 Building on the groundbreaking original work with the same title these articles focus on current issues such as certain life stages special populations the devalued and abused the addicted and special issues of the 1990 s      The Formation of Pastoral Counselors Duane R. Bidwell, Joretta L. Marshall, 2012-11-12 Explore the concept of formation in pastoral counseling from a variety of perspectives Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that s radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is a practical guide for educators working to shape curricula and training programs to the shifting context in which pastoral counselors are formed for ministry service and lifelong learning This unique book examines ideas about appropriate content and processes for the formation of pastoral care professionals and looks at specialized contextual training models that form their emerging identities The book s contributors call on extensive experience in pastoral theology care and counseling to explore the essential components of formation across different contexts how those contextual realities change the delivery systems the epistemological nature of formation reasons for the limited roles that formal theological education and spiritual experience seem to play at the moment and why formation is rarely formally addressed in pastoral counseling training Topics discussed in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include the turn to formation the goals of theological education core elements of pastoral theology developing spiritual practices diversity pastoral counseling training programs race and ethnicity in the formation of pastoral counselors cultural identity intercultural contexts practical relevancy in training gender identity and sexual orientation economic disparity Models and practices examined in The Formation of Pastoral Counselors include parallel charting clinician narratives group supervision Benedictine spirituality academic and clinical training at the Claremont School of Theology the model of formation at the Virginia Institute of Pastoral Care VIPCare and much more The Formation of Pastoral Counselors is an essential guide for pastoral counselors faculty in pastoral theological care and counseling and training directors in pastoral counseling centers      Theology and Pastoral Counseling Deborah van Deusen Hunsinger, 1995 This volume lays out an important new interdisciplinary approach to the relationship between theology and psychology in the work of pastoral counseling setting forth a method emerging from a Barthian theological perspective      Understanding Pastoral Counseling Elizabeth A. Maynard, Jill L. Snodgrass, 2015-06-09 What are the roles functions and identities of pastoral counselors today What paradigms shape their understanding of the needs of others How can pastoral counselors serve the needs of diverse individuals in both religious and secular environments This foundational text reflects the continued and unfolding work of pastoral counseling in both clinical and traditional ministry settings It addresses key issues in the history current practices and future directions of pastoral counseling and its place among allied helping professions Written to incorporate current changes in the roles of pastoral counselors and models of training beyond the traditional seminary the book builds on themes of pastoral counseling as a distinct way of being in the world understanding client concerns and experiences and intervening to promote the health and growth of clients The text provides a foundational overview of the roles and functions of the modern pastoral counselor It discusses spiritual perspectives on the issues that bring individuals to seek counseling and integrates them with the perspectives of allied mental health professions The tools and methods pastoral counselors can employ for spiritual assessment are presented and the book describes common spiritual and theological themes both implicit and explicit that arise in pastoral counseling Included are chapters examining Christian Jewish Islamic Native American and Buddhist approaches to counseling as well as counseling individuals with diverse sexual identities The book reflects the increasing need for pastoral counselors to serve effectively in a multicultural society including service to individuals who are not affiliated with a specific religious denomination The book also considers the emerging realities of distance counseling and integrated health care systems as current issues in the field

KEY FEATURES Presents a contemporary approach to how pastoral counselors function as mental health professionals and spiritual leaders Serves as a state of the art foundational text for pastoral counseling education Describes assessments and interventions that are shared with allied mental health professionals and those that are unique to pastoral counseling Provides an ecumenical and interfaith approach for a multicultural society including individuals with diverse sexual identities Addresses counseling with individuals who do not affiliate with a specific faith tradition Includes Instructor s Guide and online Student Resources to enhance teaching and learning

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven, 1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today s society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one s own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today s societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model

Moving Beyond Individualism in Pastoral Care and Counseling Barbara J McClure, 2011-10-27 Despite astute critiques and available resources for alternative modes of thinking and practicing individualism continues to be a dominating and constraining ideology in the field of pastoral psychotherapy and counseling Philip Rieff was one of the first to highlight the negative implications of individualism in psychotherapeutic theories and practices As heirs and often enthusiasts of the Freudian tradition of which Rieff and others are critical pastoral theologians have felt the sting of his charge and yet the empirical research that McClure presents shows that pastoral counseling practitioners resist change Their attempts to overcome an individualistic perspective have been limited and ineffective because individualism is embedded in the field s dominant theological and theoretical resources practices and organizational arrangements Only a radical reappraisal of these will make possible pastoral counseling practices in a post individualistic mode McClure proposes several critical transformations broadening and deepening the operative theologies used to guide the healing practice expanding the role of the pastoral counselor reimagining the operative anthropology reclaiming sin and judgment nuancing the particular against the individual rethinking the ideal outcome of the practices and reimagining the organizational structures that support the practices Only this level of revisioning will enable this ministry of the church to move beyond its individualistic limitations and offer healing in more complex effective and socially adequate ways

Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho, 2024-09-02 In Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho examines how Korean American undocumented young adults tell religious stories to cope with the violence of uncertainty and construct new meanings for themselves Based on in depth interviews guided by narrative inquiry the book follows the stories of ten Korean American DACA Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals recipients who have found their lives in limbo While many experience narrative foreclosure believing My story is over Cho highlights how telling religious stories enables them to imagine and create new stories for themselves not as shunned outsiders but as beloved children of God

Pastoral Care for the Incarcerated David Kirk Beedon, 2022-11-09 This book explores and formulates a response to the question How best can those held in modern systems of mass incarceration be cared for pastorally when many prisons diminish both hope and humanity Employing the multi disciplinary approach of practical theology this ethnographic enquiry will be a guide for chaplains and all who strive to embody compassion wherever human flourishing is undermined The book s structure follows the pastoral cycle method from practical theology remaining context based and practice focused throughout Pastoral insights are illustrated with personal poetic and movingly reflective material drawn from the lived experience of indeterminately sentenced men who did not know if or when they would be ever released The author a former prison chaplain remains reflexively and humanely present in the text modelling the profound humane regard and pastoral presence that is central to this work This book will take the reader deeply into penal spaces on a journey of both compassion and hope The Lived

Experience of Palliative Chaplains Caroline Yih, 2024-06-21 This book explores the unique challenges of disenfranchisement faced by Christian chaplains working within the secular and pluralistic context of contemporary healthcare The case study focuses on practitioners in Hong Kong and showcases the utilisation of interpretative phenomenological analysis IPA as a fruitful basis for practical theological endeavours The role and perspective of the palliative chaplain as spiritual care specialist is examined along with the tension that exists with the cultural and organisational context in which they operate The chapters examine how end of life care practitioners can often face marginalisation oppression vulnerability and disorientation among other difficult experiences that the author unites under a general theme of homelessness The book contributes to discussions regarding fuller integration of the spiritual dimension within a holistic vision of end of life care provision It will be of particular interest to scholars of practical theology and chaplaincy as well as palliative medicine Beyond Boundaries Sang Taek Lee, Alan Galt, 2025-03-21 Beyond Boundaries Embracing Diversity in Pastoral Education and Supervision redefines Clinical Pastoral Education CPE for today's multicultural and multifaith world This significant collection challenges traditional notions of pastoral care by emphasizing the importance of addressing the diverse spiritual needs of contemporary populations Through insightful contributions from various authors this book invites pastoral educators and supervisors to confront the complex issues individuals face in an increasingly diverse society By moving beyond mere tolerance Beyond Boundaries inspires readers to cultivate confidence in embracing the life giving aspects of diverse traditions Discover fresh perspectives and practical approaches that foster a deeper understanding of multifaith and multicultural dynamics in pastoral care Whether you're a seasoned professional or new to the field this book will empower you to engage compassionately and effectively with the rich tapestry of human experience Join us in redefining pastoral education for a vibrant and inclusive future Theological Reflection and

Education for Ministry John E. Paver, 2016-02-17 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy Narrative Theology and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons communities and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures Heidi Neumark Henri Nouwen Gregory Boyle Pauli Murray and Paul Farmer gleaning their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion connection justice and freedom Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness beauty and love This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care This work is a scholarly engaging and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology Heather Walton University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology July 2016 Based on biographies interviews and life stories Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter cultural emotion as a spiritual path and as a fruit of the Spirit In her research joy and reason are not ultimately opposed Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Professor of Pastoral Care Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University July 2016 This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy grief death and dying and vocational courses Carrie Doehring Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Iliff School of Theology Denver August 2016 Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings Professor of Systematic Theology and Africana Studies Yale University August 2016

Images of Pastoral Care Robert C Dykstra, 2005-01-01 This book is an edited volume of works that have predominated over the past several decades in contemporary pastoral theology Through the writings of nineteen leading voices in the history of pastoral care Dykstra shows how each contributor developed a metaphor for understanding pastoral care Such metaphors include the solicitous shepherd the wounded healer the intimate stranger the midwife and other tangible images Through these works the reader gains a sense of the varied identities of pastoral care professionals their struggles for recognition in this often controversial field and insight into the history of the discipline Includes readings by Anton T Boisen Alastair V Campbell Donald Capps James E Dittes Robert C Dykstra Heije Faber Charles V Gerkin Brita L Gill Austern Karen R Hanson Seward Hiltner Margaret Zipse Kornfeld Bonnie J Miller McLemore Jeanne Stevenson Moessner Henri J M Nouwen Gaylord Noyce Paul W Pruyser Edward P Wimberly

Transforming the

Rough Places Kenneth Pohly, 2016-09-25 The word supervision can have a negative connotation to those being supervised and leaders alike You don't have to read very far in Transforming the Rough Places to realize that there is nothing negative about the supervision that Dr Pohly describes The result of years of research and experience Dr Pohly's method and rationale offer tools to make supervision a positive experience for all those involved What he describes is a value centered leadership style that focuses equally on the ministry or task to be done and the person doing the task Practicing these skills in supervision can easily enhance all business ministry and personal relationships Discover what it means to lead in a way that can be transformative for the individual and the institution

The Person-Centered Approach Doug Bower, 2000-11-16 For nearly 50 years the approach of Carl Rogers and his colleagues has been used to help others in counseling psychotherapy and education This project takes that work into the realms of Religion Politics Alcohol treatment Incest Mental Disabilities Sandtray therapy Philosophy and Person Centered history theory

Fit to be a Pastor G. Lloyd Rediger, 1999-11-01 In this important and urgent message to pastors G Lloyd Rediger emphasizes the necessity of integrating fitness of body mind and spirit in order to attain fulfillment of personhood and calling Not immune from the debilitating unfitness that is endemic in America pastors must be fit if they are to facilitate God's purposes in the world Rediger stresses that clergy need to reinvent a healthy pastoral role based on this holistic approach

Client-centered and Experiential Psychotherapy in the Nineties Richard Balen, 1990 This voluminous book of 47 chapters offers a good cross section of what is burgeoning in the field of client centered and experiential psychotherapy on the threshold of the nineties it does not represent a single vision but gives the floor to the various suborientations classics Rogerians client centered therapists who favor some form of integration or even eclecticism experiential psychotherapists for whom Gendlin's focusing approach is a precious way of working client centered therapists who look at the therapy process in terms of information processing existentially oriented therapists Remarkable is that for the first time in the history of client centered experiential psychotherapy the European voice rings through forcefully more than half of the contributions were written by authors from Western Europe Several chapters contain reflections on the evolution past present and future of client centered experiential psychotherapy The intensive research into the process which had a central place in the initial phase of client centered therapy is given here ample attention with several creative studies and proposals for renewal In numerous contributions efforts are made to build and further develop a theory of psychopathology the client's process the basic attitudes and task oriented interventions of the therapist The chapters dealing with clinical practice typically aim at the description of therapy with specific client populations and particularly severely disturbed clients And finally a few fields are introduced which are new or barely explored within the client centered experiential approach working with dreams health psychology couple and family therapy
