Robert Wuthnow, 1997-03-06 At a time when already overworked clergy are being called upon by budget cutting politicians to do more for the poor the sick and the elderly American churches are suffering persistent financial shortfalls In fact contrary to popular media images of millionaire televangelists America's churches are cutting back programs and staff clergy salaries are stagnating and many parishes are having trouble raising enough money to keep the church lit and heated on Sunday Why are America's churches in financial distress Robert Wuthnow a leading commentator on religious life in America asserts that the steady drop in donations volunteering and personal involvement is a direct result of a spiritual crisis a crisis caused in large part by the clergy's failure to address the vital relationships between faith and money work stewardship giving and economic justice In The Crisis in the Churches Wuthnow offers a searching study of this financial crisis and of the spiritual vacuum that has silently grown worse during the past decade To do this he lets the churches speak for themselves quoting extensively from interviews with clergy and laity in sixty Protestant and Catholic congregations throughout the U S and drawing from the texts of over 200 sermons from church financial records and a national survey What emerges is that parishioners often feel the church does not care about what they do from Monday to Friday offers no guidance in their most pressing day to day concerns yet always seems to be asking for more money Clergy for their part say they hesitate to talk about finances because they know the money question makes people uncomfortable But failure to raise the subject often makes it necessary to cut the very programs and services that middle class parishioners desire and would support Wuthnow argues that in order to survive churches must find ways to minister to the economic concerns of their own middle class parishioners Indeed of every 1 000 received by churches 900 comes from people who work in middle class occupations Clearly anything that motivates middle class members to become more involved will strengthen a church's financial well being and capacity to serve its people Although the situation is critical Wuthnow finds much cause for hope He points to ideas and programs that some churches have enacted to challenge their members to think differently about work and money and giving Parishioners sometimes respond positively when clergy speak boldly and concretely about matters of faith and finance and some churches have formed small groups whose members meet regularly to discuss issues of spirituality work personal finances and stewardship A serious and sympathetic examination of the crisis behind the stained glass this thought provoking volume will be highly valuable both practically and as moral support to clergy parishioners and anyone else concerned about restoring vitality and significance to American churches

Supporting Crisis Survivors Everton I. Anderson, 2013-07-22 CHAPTER ONE CRISIS AND TRAUMAS V PRESENT EVERYWHERE What are the Distinguishing Traits of a Crisis Research has shown that the Chinese word for crisis involves two characters one means danger and the other means opportunity One psychologist summarized the peculiarities in this manner A crisis is a turning point that usually cannot be avoided They are filled with danger because they disrupt life and threaten to overwhelm the people who are affected Furthermore a crisis also present people with the opportunity to change grow and develop better ways of coping Since people in crisis often feel confused and helpless they tend to be more opened to receive outside help including the help that comes from rescue workers from counselors and from God CHAPTER TWO THE MULTIFARIOUS ELEMENTS OF LOSS Increasing Number of Loss Individuals seem to cope with losses better when they are occasional Yet after the age of 50 or 60 they pass into a period of increasing number of losses Still grieving from the previous loss it is ever so hard to make sense of the current one Furthermore if one had never learnt to deal effectively or contend with occasional losses then it is inevitable having several will be catastrophic Equally important is that each type of loss brings its own kind of suffering and reaction CHAPTER THREE PURPOSE OF CRISIS COUNSELING When a visit is made if the crisis counselor does not have an objective the appointment will be unsuccessful Therefore the underlining purpose of crisis counseling is to support the hurting and not to encourage the avoidance of reality This means the counselor advises individuals in crisis to admit the crisis express grief normally and arrive at a healthy resolution CHAPTER FOUR THE CRISIS OF DEATH AND DYING Although human suffering in multiple dimensions is a factor of life which causes great pain and human anguish it must not be used as a reason for justifying the direct taking of human life K God must always be understood as the Creator and Sustainer of life It was Norman St John Stevas who articulated this view skillfully The value of human life for the Christian in the first century A D as today rested not on its development of superior sentience but on the unique character of the union of a body and soul both destined for eternal life The right to life thus has a philosophical foundation K Respect for the lives of others because of their eternal destiny is the essence of the

Christian teaching CHAPTER FIVE COMFORTING THE SUICIDAL AND VICTIMS FAMILY The following are invaluable principles that are crucial to the helpline counseling methods

The Suicidal X Activity The person needs to feel that something is being done for him or her right now This solemn promise or guarantee can alleviate his or her anxiety X Involvement of others If the caller realizes that others are now involved and caring for him or her the person will be more apt to feel the care and concern and will more likely respond The Family Counselors friends and family members alike feel guilt extreme displeasure and self blame because the death was not averted However ultimately responsibility for suicide rests with the victim who was unable or unwilling to cope with the pressures of life Ways to support Promise to visit the mortuary and advise family members to do the same If possible accompany the grief stricken relatives knowing that the initial shock and denial could be overwhelming X Resist the phrase It was an accident a terrible accident Some may think this is helpful but its more of an expression of ones own anxiety X Do not pass judgment But he or she was up all night drinking They did not understand what they were doing It is not helpful or necessary to give reasons for the suicide X The date on which the suicide took place

Biblical and Pastoral Bridgework Denise Dombkowski Hopkins, Michael S. Koppel, 2023-09-18 Whether singly or jointly authored these essays model dynamic interactive reading of human situations and biblical texts The exchange between texts and human situations reveals the multivalent complexities of both human situations and scriptural texts and cautions against a simplistic use of the Bible and of pastoral theory and practices Drawing upon both texts throughout the Bible and diverse psychological theories the authors bridge the long standing divide between the classical and practical disciplines in biblical studies and pastoral care The aim of this book is to spur readers imaginations toward critical engagement with the Bible and with one another to promote healing connection and justice in a world crying out for wholeness Gems hidden in plain sight within the Bible can become powerful tools for illuminating the pains and promises of the human condition Princeton Alumni Weekly, 1979
