Pastoral Counseling Preaching A Quest For An Integrated Ministry:

Pastoral Counseling and Preaching Donald Capps, 1980-01-01 Preaching and Pastoral Counseling John V. Yenchko, 1984 Pastoral Counseling and Preaching Donald Capps, 2003-07-29 Does counseling affect preaching Does preaching affect counseling Donald Capps offers a perceptive examination of how counseling and preaching do influence each other and how both can be improved when one realizes the close relationship between them Not only can preaching profit from pastoral counseling writes Capps but pastoral counseling also has much to gain from preaching He discusses the common features of the sermon and the counseling session how counselors can proclaim the gospel message through their counseling and how preachers can counsel through their sermons Using actual counseling cases and sermons by well known authorities Capps demonstrates how the gospel can better be served when preaching and counseling are brought closer in concept method and practice Pastoral Counseling and Preaching a valuable resource in bringing about a fuller more integrated understanding of the Christian ministry Biblical Counsel , 1993 A History of Preaching Volume 1 Rev. O.C. Edwards JR., 2016-04-25 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church s ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 contains Edwards s magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching s development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century s discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 available separately as 9781501833786 contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church s twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1 s narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel. This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years, says Ann K. Riggs, who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission. Author Edwards, former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary, is co-moderator of the commission, which studies church uniting and church dividing issues. A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches, we all participate in this field, says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65, Winter 2004-2005, published by the National Council of Churches. Preaching God's Compassion LeRoy Aden, Robert G. Hughes, 2001-12-01. Centering on five particular situations of suffering: loss, illness, violence, fear, and failure, this book suggests ways in which a pastor can preach to parishioners who are experiencing trauma. Three sample sermons illustrate how to preach on God's gracious activity while avoiding psychologizing the text and reducing the gospel to cheap therapy for individual problems. Divine Therapeia and the Sermon Neil Pembroke, 2013-09-19. Therapeutic preaching is badly in need of rehabilitation. Administering mini-doses of psychological self-help from the pulpit simply will not do. Therapeutic preaching that is theocentric draws listeners more deeply into God's healing love. It involves setting up a creative conversation between divine and human therapy. In a novel and deeply insightful way, Neil Pembroke shows how metaphors and analogues drawn from psychotherapy can be employed to draw out the power in divine therapeia. Care-full Preaching G. Lee Ramsey Jr., 2012-03-15. In Care-full Preaching, G. Lee Ramsey Jr. offers a new vision for how sermons can energize all members of a congregation to care for one another. Using fresh images and sermons from Fred Craddock, James Forbes, Gina Stewart, Barbara Brown Taylor, and himself, Ramsey demonstrates in practical ways how sermons can create a caring community. A History of Preaching Otis Carl Edwards, 2004.

Accompanying CD-ROM contains the full text of volume one and two. Volume two contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries. Each chapter in volume two is geared to its companion chapter in volume one's narrative history. Strategies for Brief Pastoral Counseling Howard W. Stone,

Written by a new generation of recognized experts in pastoral care, these brief foundational books offer practical advice to pastors on the most frequent dilemmas of pastoral care and counseling. Preaching to a Shifting Culture Scott M.

Gibson, 2004-08. A challenge to preachers to proclaim the Scriptures with authority and power in a post-Christian world.

Read Me Like a Book Jason Cusick, 2014-06-05. Many pastors feel overwhelmed and ill-equipped to deal with the counseling issues in their congregations. But pastors are actually better equipped for counseling than they realize. Hermeneutics, homiletics, pastoral care, and counseling all share a common foundation in the field of interpretation. With this book, pastors can learn to interpret people with the same expertise they use to interpret Scripture. Read Me Like a Book offers a simple, practical, and theoretically sound approach to help pastors leverage their exegetical skills to improve their pastoral counseling. Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04. This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament, a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression, witnessing, and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God

Handbook of Contemporary Preaching Dr. Michael Duduit, 1993-03-01 Contributors included Calvin Miller Joel Gregory Stuart Briscoe James Cox Elizabeth Achtemeier Thomas Long James Earl Massey and many more

Practicing the Preaching Life David B. Ward, 2019-03-19 Preaching is a way of life that can be beautiful and good however It can also be anxious self focused and destructive Preachers and teachers of preaching need a holistic view of preaching that not only paints the way to good preaching but also to good living They need a comprehensive practical theology of preaching that combines the why and the what with the how and whom of preaching Practicing the Preaching Life unites Christian practices contextual virtues and the best of homiletical pedagogy to pave the way to a beautiful preaching life Preaching is best learned as a formative Christian practice embedded within a web of other Christian practices that form a way of life from which great sermons emerge Therefore preaching requires not only a way of speaking well but also a way of living well This embedded nature of preaching requires the enrollment of Christian practices in the formation of the preacher and the pursuit of contextual virtues for preaching that avoid cultural relativism on the one hand and cultural imperialism on the other These requirements lead to a new vision for the preaching classroom the rhythms of the preaching life and the definition of what it means to be a good preacher

Preaching as Local Theology and Folk Art Leonora Tubbs Tisdale, 1997 Showing that good sermons are really local theology and folk art Princeton's Leonora Tubbs Tisdale tells how to analyze a congregation to fit a sermon to the audience The book then gives practical help for preparing and delivering sermons that are meaningful and appropriate Tisdale draws from contextual theology and congregational studies

Short Term Spiritual Guidance Duane R. Bidwell, This book represents a significant departure from most contemporary writing about spiritual direction While most writers focus on long term relationships of guidance specifically envisioning long listening sessions Bidwell changes focus Spiritual direction he insists typically requires intervention in a specific crisis or situation or question is not formal lasts fewer than five sessions and must be actively and intentionally focused on the person's growth Bidwell's work shows what spiritual directors can learn from the short term therapy model especially about enabling people briefly but effectively to learn to listen on their own and with others for God's presence Focusing on how God is already active in the directee's life allows the participants to identify God's action and respond in ways that collaborate with that identified movement of the Spirit

Speaking to Life's Problems Lloyd Perry, Charles Sell, 1983-04-05 Don't just preach the Bible preach it to people Your parishioners are hurting They have practical urgent problems They're asking tough questions Are your sermons answering those questions meeting those needs speaking to those problems More than a textbook on sermon preparation Speaking to Life's Problems gives you biblical and psychological insight into contemporary problems like anxiety guilt fear failure indecision and loneliness Rich in illustrations Speaking to Life's Problems is filled with short sermons and ideas that can be developed and fitted to your particular congregation or class making your lessons more engaging relevant and meaningful The best sermons are those that speak to the heart not just the mind These insights will help you deliver sermons that resonate with the whole person thus making a greater impact You can preach sermons that capture the attention of your congregation speak effectively on subjects that matter to them and help resolve their tensions relieve their pressures and lighten their despair Helpful features include Extensive bibliography and sermon sources to help you find relevant material Scriptural passages on each problem useful as sermon texts Spiritual guidance for preparing messages

Giving Counsel Donald Capps, 2001-11-01 For most ministers pastoral counseling is a part of daily ministry whether it is in an office counseling session or in a chance meeting with a parishioner outside the church Whatever the setting ministers are often called on to provide counsel and by virtue of their calling and training are expected to do so This how to guide for seminary students and ministers explores the role of the minister as counselor and provides a method for giving counsel Renowned pastoral care expert Donald Capps equips readers with basic knowledge and skills and helps them to create a framework to ensure that all conversations where counsel is given will be valuable and not harmful to the person involved Using a problem resolving approach Capps leads readers through How to Create a Listening Environment How to Construct a Conversation How to Think Systemically How to Interpret Stories How to Manage Boundaries Giving Counsel is the perfect resource for seminary students and ministers of all faiths whether you are beginning your study or looking for a single resource to serve your ministry

Family Ministry Diana R. Garland, 2012-08-02 Now revised and updated throughout Diana Garland's core text for ministers and others in the helping professions provides a comprehensive look at the Christian purpose of family and the complex world our families inhabit
