Pastoral Ministry With Disabled Persons:

Pastoral Ministry with Disabled Persons Walter Kern, 1985 Reaching out and Bringing In David W Anderson, 2013-04-17 Reaching Out and Bringing In is designed to help pastors and church leaders develop a biblical perspective on disability and the church's role in ministering to individuals and families affected by disability a must read for those who minister to and with persons with disabilities and even as a Bible study for all Christians Dana Croxton founder of Enable Ministries Dr Anderson's book challenges the church community to reach out to people and families affected by disability and to consider ways the church can minister to and with people with disabilities The book includes insightful and relevant questions at the end of each chapter making it perfect for reading and discussion by church staff church boards and in small group or Sunday school settings Brian Funk area director Joni and Friends Eastern Pennsylvania Lancaster Dr Anderson sounds a wakeup call to the church The book's call for personal heart change is coupled with a challenge to the church to greater action and intentional outreach Vonn Dornbush DMin pastor of missions and outreach Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota The Social Contexts of Disability Ministry Albert A. Herzog, 2017-09-29 This book provides pastors seminarians and interested laity with the background necessary to understand the need for disability ministry and the contexts out of which the church's ministry among people with disabilities must emerge This is true not only for descriptions of ministries over the past sixty years but also the challenges disability poses for biblical studies church history Christian theology and ethics Insights are gained not only from mainstream secular and religious sources but from evangelical and other conservative materials The blending of items from different religious resources reveals just how ubiquitous disability is and the need for disability ministry now and for many years into the future The book's format is such that either it can serve as a text for courses on disability ministry or individual chapters can be employed in various courses on selected topics in biblical studies history theology and ethics Pastors and lay leaders will enjoy the depth of coverage for each topic This is a book about a serious subject for serious readers Its materials are designed to inform stimulate and promote disability ministry as a topic worthy of serious study Enabling the Disabled Rev. Dr. Theresa C. Taylor, 2018-10-23 Are you looking for church growth Maybe you need more volunteers Do you want to tap into the largest group of unreached people in the United States and in the world Do you know what this group is They are our neighbors and they are in this group simply because they are disabled Enabling the Disabled will help you get to know those with disabilities and it will show you what they can and will bring to your church family Disabilities hit all of us at one point in time whether they are temporary or permanent And disabilities cross over all social groups But God commands us to love our neighbor and he doesn't qualify this by saying only love those you are comfortable with Author Rev Dr Theresa C Taylor encourages you to welcome them with a genuine desire to have them become part of the body of Christ God wants each of us to dance at his throne in heaven regardless of what our physical circumstances may be while we sojourn on the earth So what are you doing to help the disabled glorify God Enabling the Disabled will give you the understanding and the tools you need to do a better job welcoming the disabled into your church All God's Children Gene Newman, Joni Eareckson Tada, 1993 A specialist in physical education collaborates with the bestselling author of When Is It Right to Die on a handbook for leaders and laypeople who minister to those who are mentally retarded learning disabled hearing and or visually impaired or otherwise physically disabled Provides a foundation for establishing a much needed area of ministry in the church Moody Compel Them to Come in Inc. Herzog Jr., 2017-09-29 This book provides pastors seminarians and interested laity with the background necessary to understand the need for disability ministry and the contexts out of which the church's ministry among people with disabilities must emerge This is true not only for descriptions of ministries over the past sixty years but also the challenges disability poses for biblical studies church history Christian theology and ethics Insights are gained not only from mainstream secular and religious sources but from evangelical and other conservative materials The blending of items from different religious resources reveals just how ubiquitous disability is and the need for disability ministry now and for many years into the future The book's format is such that either it can serve as a text for courses on disability ministry or individual chapters can be employed in various courses on selected topics in biblical studies history theology and ethics Pastors and lay leaders will enjoy the depth of coverage for each topic This is a book about a serious subject for serious readers Its materials are designed to inform stimulate and promote disability ministry as a topic worthy of serious study African Churches Ministering 'to and with' Persons with Disabilities Nomatter Sande,2022-08-30 This book engages with Christian church traditions and disability issues in Africa focusing on Zimbabwe in particular It critically reflects on how the church has not done much to intentionally minister to and with persons with disabilities In the context of this volume ministering to is concerned with creating worshipping space for persons with disabilities while ministering with is connecting and identifying with persons with disabilities to meet their needs from the material life of the church The author considers a stewardship model of disability as an appropriate ministerial response to transform lives in poverty stricken postcolonial contexts The argument put forth is that the church is a living organism endowed with spiritual and material resources and that these resources should be appropriated to marginalised stakeholders Accessible Church Sandra Peoples,2025-06-10 How Churches of Every Size Can Create Inclusive Ministry Spaces for People with Disabilities An estimated one in 5 households has a child with a disability Many of these families miss out on church due to a lack of physical or social accommodations And while ministry leaders want to help they often don t know how to with limited space budget and trained volunteers Churches must understand the challenges that disability families face so they can remove barriers to biblical fellowship Sandra Peoples a disability ministry consultant and professor has equipped hundreds of churches large and small to reach children and teens who have various cognitive disabilities learning disabilities physical disabilities and behavioral and mental health diagnoses Caring for disabled family members of her own she understands what it takes to create a welcoming inclusive space that supports children with a variety of diagnoses into adulthood Through expert advice and practical examples she shows ministry leaders how they can make their spaces and the gospel accessible to all Practical Features creative ways that churches can adapt their teaching style classrooms safety policies and more to accommodate special needs families Written by an Experienced Consultant and Professor Peoples draws from her years of expertise as well as her personal experience as a caregiver A Great Resource for Churches and Families Ideal for pastors and volunteers in children s ministry family ministry disability ministry and more as well as parents of children with disabilities Addresses a Variety of Needs Including Down syndrome autism dyslexia anxiety ADHD and trauma related issues Includes a Foreword by Joni Eareckson Tada Disability and Christian Theology Embodied Limits and Constructive Possibilities Deborah Beth Creamer,2009-01-05 Attention to embodiment and the religious significance of bodies is one of the most significant shifts in contemporary theology In the midst of this however experiences of disability have received little attention This book explores possibilities for theological engagement with disability focusing on three primary alternatives challenging existing theological models to engage with the disabled body considering possibilities for a disability liberation theology and exploring new theological options based on an understanding of the unsurprisingness of human limits The overarching perspective of this book is that limits are an unavoidable aspect of being human a fact we often seem to forget or deny Yet not only do all humans experience limits most of us also experience limits that take the form of disability at some point in our lives in this way disability is more normal than non disability If we take such experiences seriously and refuse to reduce them to mere instances of suffering we discover insights that are lost when we take a perfect or generic body as our starting point for theological reflections While possible applications of this insight are vast this work focuses on two areas of particular interest theological anthropology and metaphors for God This project challenges theology to consider the undeniable diversity of human embodiment It also enriches previous disability work by providing an alternative to the dominant medical and minority models both of which fail to acknowledge the full diversity of disability experiences Most notably this project offers new images and possibilities for theological construction that attend appropriately and creatively to diversity in human embodiment

Pastoral Care and Intellectual Disability Anna Katherine Shurley, 2017 Every Christian is called to and gifted for ministry The church can and must engage all of its members if it is to flourish fully Far too often persons with intellectual disabilities are excluded While members with disability are often recipients of the church's ministry they are seldom given the opportunity to reciprocate persons with disability are not always fully empowered to minister In Pastoral Care and Intellectual Disability Anna Katherine Shurley asserts the church's need for mutuality in pastoral care While the shape of each person's vocation is unique all members of the body of Christ are created for ministry with one another as partners in spiritual care In a quest for pastoral care that is fundamentally collaborative and fully inclusive Shurley turns to the psychology of D W Winnicott and to Karl Barth's theology of Christian vocation From this combination she crafts person centered pastoral care for the body of Christ and all its members with or without intellectual disabilities Person centered pastoral care recognizes that people with intellectual disabilities can and must participate as partners in the church Faith communities Shurley suggests can foster collaborative ministry by nurturing pastoral friendships among its membership These sacred friendships are spaces in which people share their lives with one another as a truly collaborative practice of care Through these pastoral friendships mediated by the presence of the Holy Spirit all of God's children can live their particular vocations By engaging person centered practices of pastoral care the church strengthens its witness and truly becomes a place of belonging for all people

Shepherding God's Flock Jay E. Adams, 2016-10-11 Shepherding God's Flock is both a textbook for students of pastoral ministry and a handbook for pastors Jay Adams is well known for his practical and thorough approach to the many issues of Christian counseling That same practicality and thoroughness is found in this unparalleled handbook on pastoral ministry Not only does it offer pastors one of the best resources in print but it also provides church elders with an orientation and practical guide to aspects of ministry for which they have responsibility It is truly a shepherd's handbook The book is divided into three parts Pastoral Life deals with the pastor his calling and the general care he provides the flock Pastoral Counseling provides an overview of the task and a general approach for pastoral counselors Pastoral Leadership offers a perspective on the ways the pastor can lead the church in its many tasks and responsibilities The Liturgy Documents, Volume Two Rev. Michael S. Driscoll, Rev. Msgr. Richard B. Hilgartner, Maureen A. Kelly, Rev. John Thomas Lane, SSS, Rev. James Presta, Corinna Laughlin, Jim Schellman, D. Todd Williamson, Rev. Paul Turner, Catherine Combier-Donovan, Diana Macalintal, Sr. Genevieve Glen, OSB, Rev. H. Richard Rutherford, CSC, Michael R. Prendergast, Claire M. Gilligan, Deacon Francis L. Agnoli, Rev. Patrick R. Lagges, 2014-04-16 An indispensable resource for clergy students and liturgists this revised volume assembles the liturgical documents needed for the study and preparation of parish sacramental rites and other liturgies such as Masses with children the Liturgy of the Hours and Eucharistic adoration This second edition now includes the praenotanda from the sacramental rites along with additional documents needed to prepare the Mass blessings and the Sacred Paschal Triduum A pastoral overview introduces each document explaining the purpose of the document the degree of its authority and its practical implications With an extensive index and a glossary of terms this volume is designed for easy navigation and frequent reference Pastoral Burnout and Leadership Styles Ruben Exantus, 2012-12 This book is about how pastors exercise leadership It s a book on pastoral burnout and leadership styles is dedicated to helping pastors candidates for pastoral ministry and individuals who want to have a better understanding of pastoral leadership It reflects a study conducted on Southern Baptist pastors in the Central Florida region also known as Greater Orlando which comprises counties that are often included in Central Florida demographics It comprises a rich diverse multicultural population among the surrounding counties including European Americans African Americans Haitians and Hispanics God, Suffering, and Disability Mary Schaefer Fast, 2019-05-22 God Suffering and Disability A Trinitarian Theodicy of the Cross utilizes both Christological and pneumatological perspectives of Luther s theology of the cross to address the complexities of suffering and disability Through the lens of the cross the God who suffers enables humans to call a thing what it is by recognizing the suffering that often accompanies disability Rather than asking why the Triune God allows people to suffer this theodicy of disability focuses on where the Father Son and Spirit are in that very human experience As a new theodic construct a Trinitarian theodicy of the cross responds to both the theological concerns of the church and the theoretical apprehensions of society It encourages Christians to live as theologians of the cross empowers the faith community by informing both its theology and praxis and provides a theoretical response to secular society that will enrich the field of disability studies Jesus and Disability Chris H. Hulshof, 2022-07-01 Jesus and Disability provides a blueprint for how churches and their leaders can become disability friendly serving those in the church and in the broader community From Inclusion to Justice Erin Raffety, 2022 American Christianity tends to view disabled persons as problems to be solved rather than people with experiences and gifts that enrich the church Churches have generated policies programs and curricula geared toward including disabled people while still maintaining able bodied theologies ministries care and leadership Ableism not lack of ramps of finances or of accessible worship is the biggest obstacle for disabled ministry in America In From Inclusion to Justice Erin Raffety argues that what our churches

need is not more programs for disabled people but rather the pastoral tools to repent of able bodied theologies and practices listen to people with disabilities lament ableism and injustice and be transformed by God s ministry through disabled leadership Without a paradigm shift from ministries of inclusion to ministries of justice our practical theology falls short Drawing on ethnographic research with congregations and families pastoral experience with disabled people teaching in theological education and parenting a disabled child Raffety an able bodied Christian writing to able bodied churches confesses her struggle to repent from ableism in hopes of convincing others to do the same At the same time Raffety draws on her interactions with disabled Christian leaders to testify to what God is still doing in the pews and the pulpit uplifting and amplifying the ministry and leadership of people with disabilities as a vision toward justice in the kingdom of God

Pastoral Statement of U.S. Catholic Bishops on Persons with Disabilities Catholic Church. United States Conference of Catholic Bishops,2001 "The Poor, the Crippled, the Blind, and the Lame" Louise A. Gosbell,2018-08-03 The New Testament gospels feature numerous social exchanges between Jesus and people with various physical and sensory disabilities Despite this traditional biblical scholarship has not seen these people as agents in their own right but existing only to highlight the actions of Jesus as a miracle worker In this study Louise A Gosbell uses disability as a lens through which to explore a number of these passages anew Using the cultural model of disability as the theoretical basis she explores the way that the gospel writers as with other writers of the ancient world used the language of disability as a means of understanding organising and interpreting the experiences of humanity Her investigation highlights the ways in which the gospel writers reinforce and reflect as well as subvert culturally driven constructions of disability in the ancient world

Why, O God? (Foreword by Randy Alcorn) Larry J. Waters,Roy B. Zuck,2011-07-07 With two in seven American families affected by disability the body of Christ has a great opportunity for ministry This new anthology uniquely points the way training churches caregivers pastors and counselors to compassionately respond The book s contributors ranging from Joni Eareckson Tada and others living with disabilities to seminary professors ministry leaders and medical professionals do more than offer a biblical perspective on suffering and disability they draw from very personal experiences to explore Christians responsibility toward those who suffer The volume addresses various disabilities and age related challenges end of life issues global suffering and other concerns all the while reminding readers that as they seek to help the hurting they will be ministered to in return This unprecedented work which includes a foreword by Randy Alcorn belongs in the hands of every Christian worker and caring individual who is seeking a real world biblical perspective on suffering
