The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Judith H. Bonner, Estill Curtis Pennington, Charles Reagan Wilson, 2013-01-14 From the Potomac to the Gulf artists were creating in the South even before it was recognized as a region The South has contributed to America s cultural heritage with works as diverse as Benjamin Henry Latrobe s architectural plans for the nation s Capitol the wares of the Newcomb Pottery and Richard Clague s tonalist Louisiana bayou scenes This comprehensive volume shows how through the decades and centuries the art of the South expanded from mimetic portraiture to sophisticated responses to national and international movements The essays treat historic and current trends in the visual arts and architecture major collections and institutions and biographies of artists themselves As leading experts on the region s artists and their work editors Judith H Bonner and Estill Curtis Pennington frame the volume s contributions with insightful overview essays on the visual arts and architecture in the American South The New Orleans Garden Charlotte Seidenberg, 1993 A comprehensive guide to creating your own New Orleans garden Expressions of Place John R. Kemp, 2016-09-27 Expressions of Place embarks on a journey across the rural and urban landscapes of Louisiana via the talents of thirty seven artists located all around the state Many are acclaimed professionals whose paintings are included in major private and public collections regionally and nationally Others have found their followings closer to home All however strive to express impressions of the land with artistic styles that range from traditional to the symbolic and almost totally abstract Such a variety of interpretation becomes possible in a landscape that changes from dark cypress shrouded bayous trembling earth grassy prairies the gritty streets of inner city New Orleans to vast wind swept coastal marshes and the piney hills of north and central Louisiana Rather than stand as an encyclopedia catalog or history of the visual arts in Louisiana Kemp s book is instead a celebration of the state s evocative landscape in the work of accomplished contemporary artists It includes an introductory essay which places these creators and their works in historical context Expressions of Place provides readers with individual essays and biographical sketches in which the artists in their own words give insight as to what they paint how they paint where they paint and why they are drawn to the Louisiana landscape Particularly inspiring the artists discuss their interpretations of that landscape directly with the viewing audience Expressions of Place remains as much about the landscape of the artists imaginations as it is about the land itself With each painting they have created visual poetry of a land and environment that has become a defining part of their lives Central to Their Lives Lynne Blackman, 2018-06-20 Scholarly essays on the achievements of female artists working in and inspired by the American South

Looking back at her lengthy career just four years before her death modernist painter Nell Blaine said Art is central to my life Not being able to make or see art would be a major deprivation The Virginia native s creative path began early and during the course of her life she overcame significant barriers in her quest to make and even see art including serious vision problems polio and paralysis And then there was her gender In 1957 Blaine was hailed by Life magazine as someone to watch profiled alongside four other emerging painters whom the journalist praised not as notable women artists but as notable artists who happen to be women In Central to Their Lives twenty six noted art historians offer scholarly insight into the achievements of female artists working in and inspired by the American South Spanning the decades between the late 1890s and early 1960s this volume examines the complex challenges these artists faced in a traditionally conservative region during a period in which women s social cultural and political roles were being redefined and reinterpreted The presentation and its companion exhibition features artists from all of the Southern states including Dusti Bong Anne Goldthwaite Anna Hyatt Huntington Ida Kohlmeyer Lo s Mailou Jones Alma Thomas and Helen Turner These essays examine how the variables of historical gender norms educational barriers race regionalism sisterhood suffrage and modernism mitigated and motivated these women who were seeking expression on canvas or in clay Whether working from studio space in spare rooms at home or on the world stage these artists made remarkable contributions to the art world while fostering future generations of artists through instruction incorporating new aesthetics into the fine arts and challenging the status quo Sylvia Yount the Lawrence A Fleischman Curator in Charge of the American Wing at the Metropolitan Museum of Art provides a foreword to the volume Contributors Sara C Arnold Daniel Belasco Lynne Blackman Carolyn J Brown Erin R Corrales Diaz John A Cuthbert Juilee Decker Nancy M Doll Jane W Faquin Elizabeth C Hamilton Elizabeth S Hawley Maia Jalenak Karen Towers Klacsmann Sandy McCain Dwight McInvaill Courtney A McNeil Christopher C Oliver Julie Pierotti Deborah C Pollack Robin R Salmon Mary Louise Soldo Schultz Martha R Severens Evie Torrono Stephen C Wicks Kristen Miller Zohn Newcomb College, 1886-2006 Susan Tucker, Beth Willinger, 2012-05-07 In 1886 Josephine Louise Newcomb donated funds to Tulane University for the founding of the H Sophie Newcomb Memorial College Her contribution created the nation s first degree granting coordinate college for women For more than a century Newcomb College educated thousands of young women in the liberal arts and sciences preparing them for positions in the civic and economic world of New Orleans and the South Newcomb College 1886 2006 explores the rich history and tradition of the college through a diverse and multidisciplinary collection of essays Early chapters focus on the life of Josephine Louise Newcomb and her desire to memorialize her daughter Sophie as well as the development of student culture in the Progressive Era Several essays explore the staples of a Newcomb education from its acclaimed pottery and junior year abroad programs to lesser known but trailblazing work in physical education and chemistry Concluding biographical and autobiographical chapters recount the lives of distinguished alumnae and the personal memories of Newcomb s influence on New Orleans The essays offer insight into the work of artists

Caroline Wogan Durieux and Ida Kohlmeyer education reformer Sarah Towles Reed U S representative Lindy Boggs and other Newcomb leaders in various fields Throughout the book contributors reflect on the curriculum pedagogy and alliances that created paths for students not only for advanced studies but also for their roles as friends wives mothers reformers and professionals Touching on three centuries the book concludes in 2006 when Tulane University closed Newcomb College and Paul Tulane College the arts and sciences college for men and united the two as Newcomb Tulane College This absorbing collection offers both a scholarly history and an affectionate tribute to a Newcomb education The Past as Prelude Hodding Carter,2009-02-01 The Past as Prelude is a collection of essays exploring the rich cultural history of New Orleans over the city s first 250 years from 1718 1968 In this topical history of one of America s oldest cities a group of talented essayists explore the fascinating and varied patterns that have marked New Orleans growth These multiple perspectives allow glimpses into topics as varied as the diverse people of the city the unique Creole architecture the historic art scene the distinctive music the Civil War and of course New Orleans continued reputation as a good time town Detailed illustrations complement this comprehensive volume A Southern Collection ,1993-02-01 A Southern Collection presents select masterworks from the permanent collection of the Morris Museum of Art on the occasion of the institution s inaugural exhibition Drawn from a comprehensive survey collection of painting in the South from the late eighteenth century to the present day the museum s opening exhibit explores an artistic terrain as rich and diverse as the South itself arranged in categories that reflect critical chronological developments in the art world A survey of painting activity in the South begins with the travels of itinerant portrait artists working prior to the Civil War At the same time landscape painting encompasses a sensitive response to the swamps bayous and fertile fields of the South Late in the nineteenth century strong and vivid genre painting competes with the nostalgic effects realized by Southern impressionists whose shimmering liquid images are invested with an elusive spirit of place In this century those strains of realism and naturalism that characterize the classic body of Southern writing appear in the representational art of painters who defied the modern abstract dictum And finally the exciting compelling works of a current generation of both self taught artists and sophisticated contemporary painters complete this fascinating though sometimes neglected chapter in American art history North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller,Nancy G.
