Fatherhood and Masculinities Catherine Gallais, 2023-08-09 Based on novel ethnographic research conducted in New York City this book explores through the lens of intersectionality how gender impacts men's experiences of full time fatherhood as well as how sexuality race class faith and so on result in unequal access to choices and opportunities as parents Chapters analyze how perspectives on caregiving are complicated by varying cultural gendered and racialized stereotypes and representations that pull different fathers toward or push them away from particular models of fatherhood in an urban context Additionally the author interrogates how societal conceptions of men's bodies also play a role in how men understand their experiences of fatherhood This book will be of interest to scholars and students studying gender masculinity and fatherhood

The Eugenics Review, 1910 Men Out of Focus Marko Dumančić, 2021 Men Out of Focus charts conversations and polemics about masculinity in Soviet cinema and popular media during the liberal period often described as The Thaw between the death of Stalin in 1953 and the invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968 The book shows how the filmmakers of the long 1960s built stories around male protagonists who felt disoriented by a world that was becoming increasingly suburbanized rebellious consumerist household oriented and scientifically complex The dramatic tension of 1960s cinema revolved around the male protagonists inability to navigate the challenges of postwar life Selling over three billion tickets annually the Soviet film industry became a fault line of postwar cultural contestation By examining both the discussions surrounding the period's most controversial movies as well as the cultural context in which these debates happened the book captures the official and popular reactions to the dizzying transformations of Soviet society after Stalin population growth and the country's population was not keeping pace with that of its European neighbors. To regain its standing in the European world, France set its sights on building a vast colonial empire while simultaneously developing a policy of pronatalism to reverse these demographic trends. Though representing distinct political movements, colonial supporters and pronatalist organizations were born of the same crisis and reflected similar anxieties concerning France's trajectory and position in the world. Regeneration through Empire explores the intersection between colonial lobbyists and pronatalists in France's Third Republic. Margaret Cook Andersen argues that as the pronatalist movement became more organized at the end of the nineteenth century, pronatalists increasingly understood their demographic crisis in terms that transcended the boundaries of the metropole and began to position the French empire, specifically its colonial holdings in North Africa and Madagascar, as a key component in the nation's regeneration. Drawing on an array of primary sources from French archives, Regeneration through Empire is the first book to analyze the relationship between depopulation and imperialism. Insurance World, 1905
