Spoiled Summer Kim Lee, 2025-09-12 Summer Kim Lee examines how contemporary Asian American artists challenge expectations that their work should repair the wounds of racial trauma

Philosophies of Appropriated Religions Soraj Hongladarom, Jeremiah Joven Joaquin, Frank J. Hoffman, 2023-12-21 This book brings together different intercultural philosophical points of view discussing the philosophical impact of what we call the appropriated religions of Southeast Asia Southeast Asia is home to most of the world religions Buddhism is predominantly practiced in Thailand Vietnam Myanmar Singapore Laos and Cambodia Islam in Malaysia Indonesia and Brunei and Christianity in the Philippines and Timor Leste Historical data show however that these world religions are imported cultural products and have been reimaged assimilated and appropriated by the culture that embraced them In this collection we see that these appropriated religions imply a culturally nuanced worldview which in turn impacts how the traditional problems in the philosophy of religion are framed and answered in particular questions about the existence and nature of the divine the problem of evil and the nature of life after death Themes explored include religious belief and digital transition Therav da Buddhist philosophy religious diversity Buddhism and omniscience indigenous belief systems divine apology and unmerited human suffering dialetheism and the problem of evil Buddhist philosophy and Spinoza s views on death and immortality belief and everyday realities in the Philippines comparative religious philosophy gendering

the Hindu concept of dharma Christian devotion and salvation during the Spanish colonial period in the Philippines through the writings of Jose Rizal indigenous Islamic practices in the Philippines practiced traditions in contemporary Filipino celebrations of Christmas role of place aspects in the appropriation of religions in Southeast Asia and fate and divine omniscience This book is of interest to scholars and researchers of philosophy of religion sociology of religion anthropology of religion cultural studies comparative religion religious studies and Asian studies Establishing a Pluralist Society in Medieval Korea, 918-1170 Remco Breuker, 2010-03-25 This book offers no less than a radically different view of the Kory state Until now scholarship failed to recognize the complicated historical descent byzantine international relations and multiple incommensurable worldviews of the early Korean Kory state 918 1170 Instead it subjected these to reductionist categories favouring reified particulars over broader views Asking how Kory meaningfully dealt with its environment Remco Breuker rejects the reduction of Kory intellectual abundance to analytical categories and emphasizes the functional importance of Kory's pluralism in allowing the notion that realities were scattered inconsistent and plural Here is a convincing argument that Kory's pluralism decisively contributed to the formation of a region transcending communal identity that enabled Kory to engage in a civilizational competition with neighbouring Chinese and Manchurian states while maintaining a dynamic but stable society domestically Leading Successfully in Asia Kim Cheng Patrick Low, 2017-12-27 This book examines the essence of leadership its characteristics and its ways in Asia through a cultural and philosophical lens Using Asian proverbs and other quotes it discusses leadership issues and methods in key Asian countries including China India Japan Kazakhstan Malaysia and Singapore It also explores the leadership styles of various great Asian political and corporate leaders Further it investigates several unique Asian philosophies such as Buddhism Guan Yin Confucianism Ta Mo Chinese Animal zodiac signs Hindu Gods the Samurai the Bushido Spirit and Zen in the context of leadership mastery and excellence Offering numerous examples of a potpourri of the skills and insights needed to be a good if not a great leader this practical action oriented book encourages readers to think reflect and act The Journal of Asian Studies ,1989

Extravagant Camp Chris A. Eng, 2025-02-04 Winner of the 2023 2024 CLAGS Fellowship Award Illuminates an irreverent queer cultural strategy for grappling with and remaking abject histories of violence Extravagant Camp takes as its point of critical departure the multiple valences of the word camp the camp as a geopolitical space and process of concentrating racialized populations and the campy as a mode of queer expressiveness Engaging its double meaning Chris A Eng explores how camp and encampment have contoured the figure of the Asian American The book follows campy performances that imaginatively restage the camps that have been central to dominant narratives of Asian American history Chinese railroad labor Japanese American incarceration Vietnam War refugee resettlement and counterinsurgency camps across US imperial entanglements in the Philippines Illuminating an eclectic ensemble of performances that grapple with Asian American history from classical works in the Asian American literary tradition to emerging works of theater and film Extravagant Camp uncovers Asian American camp as a prevalent yet underappreciated cultural strategy for contesting accounts of Asian American racialization that overly rely on terms of abjection Theorizing Asian American camp as both a performance strategy and reading practice Eng examines how artists drag up the maligned racial roles of the coolie the internee the refugee and the diva to make different sense of these histories Extravagant Camp shows how Asian American camp takes on queerness as a resource to enliven modes of joy beauty and pleasure within structures of constraint revealing the types of power camp retrieves for racialized communities in the face of abjection Geared toward the extravagant Asian American camp demands a recognition of queer abjection not as the basis for our undoing but rather the grounds for a more radical social remaking
