1980s series investigate the many incarnations of Rod Serling's influential vision through close readings of episodes, explorations of major themes and first person accounts of working on the show. Fort-Dimanche, Dungeon of Death Patrick Lemoine, 2011-05-03 Fort Dimanche Dungeon of Death is a vivid testimony of the most horrendous kind of mental and physical cruelties that we can inflict on our fellow men. Patrick Lemoine's harrowing tale about his years of imprisonment in one of the worse dungeons in the world will stand as a constant reminder that our basic freedoms when taken for granted can be trampled by the very ones elected or selected among us to be sentinels of society. Jonathan Demme, filmmaker and producer USA. This book is an implacable referendum against dictatorship. Its sole ideology is to proclaim freedom of thought and expression. This book must be read by anyone who wants to know, especially by the young who should know, because it is difficult for them to imagine the unthinkable. Jean Desquiron, Le Nouvelliste, Port au Prince, Haiti. It is a disturbing testimonial on the physical and moral degradation of human beings orchestrated by the militia of a totalitarian regime. Patrick Lemoine's surgical description of a long descent into Duvalier's dungeons leaves us completely numb. Other books have been written on the subject, but none offers such a detailed account of this historical legacy. Yves Robert, Doug M. D. Pour Haiti, Paris, France. Written in a soft literary style yet concise, detailed and captivating, this book remains the most acerbic discourse on the vicious cruelty of a political class mired in cynicism and debauchery. Haiti, Observateur, New York, USA. It is necessary to read this book in its entirety even when you are tempted to hide it to bury it as if it would prevent forever such horrible acts from occurring again. Elsie Ethart, Haiti en Marche, Miami, USA.

To Know Jesus as the Christ Christoph Schoenborn, 2013-12-20 The monthly catechesis in the Cathedral of St. Stephen by the Archbishop of Vienna, Cardinal Christoph Schoenborn, have become an institution among many people in Austria. In simple but beautiful words and vibrant images presented by the Cardinal, the doctrine and the practice of the faith are fruitfully brought together. This book contains a cycle of catechesis or teachings on the Christian faith which pose fundamental questions with respect to the confession of the faith: How can God be one and triune? How can He be all-powerful and at the same time permit evil? Is our life free or pre-determined? How is Christianity different from other religions? How are we to understand the signs and miracles of Jesus? Why must we believe in the Resurrection of Jesus and hope in our own life after death? Cardinal Schoenborn explores these and many other important questions about the Christian faith and especially about the life and teachings of Jesus Christ in his usual lucid and compelling style. He leads us to a deeper realization of who Christ is, what his saving mission was, and how we can know and love Him in a personal and profound way. An inspiring and practical work by a great churchman about the eternal importance of the Christian faith and the life and teachings of Jesus Christ and how it is crucial for our everyday life. Catechesis is something different from a theological discourse. Catechesis is actually a way, and we are invited to set out on such a catechetical way. For catechesis is very closely connected with the mission of Jesus himself. It is actually the direct translation of his mission which he gave to the apostles at the end of his life. All authority in heaven and on earth has been

believe God can do supernatural things And it was then that I realized God wanted me to use this gift as He wanted all of us to use our gifts for building up others in their faith Or as the Apostle Paul says to equip His people for works of service so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ Ephesians 4 12 13 But I wondered how to do this As I asked others they said that whenever I would tell them my stories of faith how God had worked in my life they were encouraged in their faith to believe that God could work in their lives too Yes That made sense When people needed a boost in their faith I could give them some of mine Isn t that the way with all of our gifts When people need wisdom or money or healing or help or encouragement we share with them whatever wisdom or money or healing or help or encouragement we have been given see 1 Corinthians 12 14 So I began that day sharing my stories of faith in a more intentional way writing them down sending them out and telling them to others when they needed a lift And that s what I m doing with this book for you If you need a boost in your faith if you need to believe that God can do something impossible for you if you need to know that God is real that He loves you that He is FOR you and has a purpose for your life then this book is for you Because along with hope and love faith is one of the top three things we all need in life see 1 Corinthians 13 13 With that as an introduction I d like to begin telling you a few of my stories of faith starting with the day I was born Well not that far back I ll start with the day I was born again at age 23 the day I put my faith in Christ and He put His gift of faith in me Eric Elder
