LOST HORIZON - The Legend of Shangri-La James Hilton, 2024-01-11 James Hilton's Lost Horizon intricately weaves a narrative that blends adventure philosophy and a touch of the mystical. Set against the backdrop of the tumultuous geopolitical landscape of the 1930s, the story follows Hugh Conway, a weary British diplomat who stumbles upon the enigmatic utopia of Shangri-La while escaping the chaos of the modern world. Hilton's lyrical prose invites readers to ponder the themes of isolation, enlightenment, and the pursuit of happiness, all while challenging the conventions of society and civilization. This novel, celebrated for its dreamy aesthetic and profound reflections, stands as an iconic work in the genre of philosophical fiction, a timeless exploration of humanity's quest for harmony amidst unrest. James Hilton, an English novelist and screenwriter, found inspiration for Lost Horizon in the travels and philosophical ideas of the early 20th century, infused with his own fascination for exploring human nature and existentialism. His experiences during the interwar period, coupled with the growing disillusionment of society, shaped the idyllic yet poignant portrayal of Shangri-La, serving as both a refuge and a critique of modernity. From El Dorado to Lost Horizons Ken Windrum, 2019-03-25 Investigates how musicals, war films, sex comedies, and Westerns dealt with contentious issues during a time of change in Hollywood. The era, known as the Hollywood Renaissance, is celebrated as a time when revolutionary movies broke all the rules of the previous classical era as part of the ferment of the late 1960s and early 1970s. Yet many films during this era did not overtly smash the system but provided more traditional entertainment based on popular genres for a wider audience than the youth culture who flocked to more transgressive fare. Ken Windrum focuses on four genres of traditionalist movies: big budget musicals, war spectacles, naughty sex comedies, and Westerns. From El Dorado to Lost Horizons shows how even seemingly innocuous family-oriented films still participated in the progressive aspects of the time while also holding a conservative point of view. Windrum analyzes representations of issues including gender roles, marriage, sexuality, civil rights, and Cold War foreign policy, revealing how these films dealt with changing times and reflected both status quo positions and new attitudes He also examines how the movies continued or deviated from classical principles of structure and style Windrum provides a counter history of the Hollywood Renaissance by focusing on a group of important films that have nevertheless been neglected in scholarly accounts This book is detailed and insightful in discussing the traditional classical and maverick but ultimately recuperative qualities of the mainstream films of the period Windrum s discussion of the narrative structure and stylistic elements of the films both classical and innovative is a highlight of the book Glenn Man author of Radical Visions American Film Renaissance 1967 1976 Lost Horizon James Hilton,1957
