The Three Secular Plays of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Guillermo Schmidhuber,2021-12-14 Sor Juana In s de la Cruz 1648 1695 wrote poetry prose and plays and is considered the greatest of Mexican women writers She was an intellectual prodigy reportedly mastering Latin in twenty lessons and at sixteen she entered a convent so that she might continue her learning One of the most influential early feminists in the New World she answered a bishop s criticism in a letter that has become a classic defense of the education of women She collected a private library of 4 000 volumes but when she was told that her studies were delaying the progress of her spiritual education she gave away her books and devoted herself to religious studies Traditionally scholars have attributed only one complete play to Sor Juana but in 1989 Guillermo Schmidhuber discovered a lost play The Second Celestina which he proved conclusively to be Sor Juana s earliest comedia co authored with Agustin Salazar y Torres Schmidhuber s critical study is the first dedicated exclusively to the secular plays and the first to confirm Sor Juana s authorship of three dramatic pieces Combining literary history and criticism Schmidhuber explores the life and originality of Sor Juana s dramas and helps elucidate her enigmatic genius Though Sor Juana s work as a poet and intellectual has received increasing attention in the last decade writing about her has rarely taken into account her role as dramatist Schmidhuber helps correct this critical imbalance by examining Sor Juana s plays in light of dramatic theory He finds elements of both mannerist and baroque theater in her work sometimes both within the same play

Sharpening Her Pen demonstrates how six early modern authors exploit or evade a rhetorical discourse founded upon images tropes and dialectics of violence to secure authorization for their work as writers and empowerment for the personal agendas unique to each of them Rhetorical violence functions both as a literary phenomenon facilitating the polemics of each author and as an analytical methodology enabling scholars to derive meaning from a particular organic facet of a writer's intellectual structure The subjects of the study represent a balance between writers who have received considerable scholarly attention Elizabeth I Aemilia Lanyer and Lady Mary Wroth and those who have received relatively little Anne Askew Anne Dorwiche and Lade Anne Southwell Exercising rhetorical strategies that reflect their idiosyncrasies as intellectuals they share a canny awareness of the persuasive power of violence in their age as physical reality and as metaphor
