No Free Sleeping Donald Parenzee, Alan Finlay, 1998-11-26 This threesome reflects seemingly quite different sensibilities but running underground are common sources primarily a genuine sense of observation and empathy Parenzees fine delineation of detail his ideological openness but strong sense of justice link well with Vonani Bilas makoya poetry rendered largely in Xitsonga with English translations This poetry that rails in its own manner against money madness and apartheid barbarism stands apart from Finlays quieter voice but both command reflection After all it is a phrase in a Finlay poem that titles this anthology Finlays work in general contains images of dissolution in a search for meaning from suffering

Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll and Nursing Raymond Moore, 2024-06-03 When you read about what I got up to I know you'll probably think I got what I deserved You're right I totally agree Many of you won't like me no doubt and that's ok I understand I really do I'm not all bad though I left the Isle of Skye in the early eighties to start my nursing course in Edinburgh and it's fair to say that I embraced the Capital City's temptations with arms wide open When I moved into a shared flat I met Bill a musician and got involved with his band Low Down you know helping them out doing a bit of driving and humping gear it was great fun Low Down was truly phenomenal Man I totally loved their music We took drugs I mean I took drugs Nothing heavy like just recreational and I met a lot of girls who I didn't treat right and I'm not proud of my behaviour that's the truth Look nursing was a female dominated profession and male nurses were thin on the ground the opportunities for getting up to mischief were many I worked hard and played harder A lot of stuff I regret now Especially what I did to Lisa and others Anyway it couldn't last could it They way I was living something had to give And it did

Another Love Asma Abbas, 2018-10-15 In a time when our loves feel conscripted and exhausted by what we often do not remember desiring Another Love A Politics of the Unrequited explores the form method imperatives and inflections of love in the global post colony and offers a way to re apprehend and re inscribe love in an anticolonial materialist and nonfascist politics and aesthetics The figure of the unrequited is invoked as a symptom of a brutally loveless yet effusively sentimentalized era and also as an ineluctable yet very concrete political location in the face of both the intensifying external realities of war occupation apartheid austerity and terror as well as the increasingly normalized internalizations of ordinary imperialism nationalism neoliberalism fascism and colonialism all of which seem bent on extinguishing the possibility of relation itself The book asks that we look at practices of love and other material labors that yield and sustain these realities within complex lifeworlds indeed those which sustain entire systems of our subjection extraction and disposability such as colonialism capitalism liberalism and fascism as lifeworlds especially when given dominant forms of recognition affection embrace and belonging are unacceptable or even repulsive Distancing itself from shortcuts afforded by love's abstract forms deployed in ethical and moral discourses that at once elevate it yet wholly reduce it to a timeless apolitical essence Another Love sees love as a material and political relation to time and space signaling willed and unwilled shifts in historical reality in societies juggling various wars and annihilations It maintains that love is something in and with which we confess our complicities not only with but also against hegemonic notions of belonging devotion martyrdom hospitality publicity collectivity and solidarity nurtured and harvested under capital and colony The longing and the love missed by the pernicious and reactionary politics both of liberal democracy and the incidental fascisms that it claims to set out to fix can give us clues into past present and future moments of rebellion resistance rejection and redemption that are crucial to a liberatory anticolonial and antifascist politic and to rethinking attachment desire and relation itself The Literary World ,1888 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
