Loves Theatre:

Love, Desire and Identity in the Theatre of Federico García Lorca Paul McDermid, 2007 Physical desire and metaphysical love in the theatre of Federico García Lorca A dialectical tension between physical desire and metaphysical love lies at the heart of the theatre works of Federico García Lorca and the deployment of queer theory's critique of gender and identity is surprisingly effective in this discussion of love versus desire Seldom is enough attention paid to the poet's early works and so this book offers a timely review of the religious tragedy Cristo as well as Mariana Pineda uncovering in these early offerings an explicit proposal of the supremacy of love over desire A meditation on the fragmentary and challenging El pánico yields a vivid panorama of identity in crisis and a paradigmatic Lorcan sacrifice of self for love The ostensibly more conventional tragedies of Amor de Don Perlimplín con Belisa en su jardín and Yerma are also reassessed in terms of self sacrifice and self love The study concludes with an argument for a practical re-reading of La casa de Bernarda Alba which emphasises how the play might be saved from posed realism with music humour and drag performance PAUL McDERMID lectures in Spanish at Queen's University Belfast

Love Alexander Zeldin, 2017-04-06 But you can't do this to us my partner is about to have a baby and we need to eat and pay rent and we need to eat how is this legal In the run up to Christmas three families are placed into cramped temporary accommodation A middle aged man and his elderly mum a young family with a baby on the way a newly arrived woman from Sudan Strangers Forced together No space is personal In this play by Alexander Zeldin written through a devising process the audience are invited to bear witness to an intimate story of family love for our times Love received its world premiere at the National Theatre London in the Dorfman Theatre on 13 December 2016 and opened at Birmingham Rep on 26 January 2017

Love 'N Stuff Tanika Gupta, 2016-06-09 Tanika Gupta returns with a hilarious and touching story of love attachment and what we mean by home Bindi and Mansoor might just be the most popular couple on their street but after 45 years of a loving marriage Mansoor has vowed to swap the cold streets of Stratford for a sun soaked Delhi The problem Bindi's not convinced and has concocted a last minute plan to lure him back

Love in Contemporary British Drama Korbini Stöckl, 2021-01-18 Despite the recent turn to affects and emotions in the humanities and despite the unceasing popularity of romantic and erotic love as a motif in fictional works of all genres the subject has received surprisingly little attention in academic studies of contemporary drama Love in Contemporary British Drama reflects the appeal of love as a topic and driving force in dramatic works with in depth analyses of eight pivotal plays from the past three decades Following an interdisciplinary and historical approach the study collects and condenses theories of love from philosophy and sociology to derive persisting discourses and to examine their reoccurrence and transformation in contemporary plays Special emphasis is put on narratives of love's compensatory function and precariousness and on how modifications of these narratives epitomise the peculiarities of emotional life in the social and cultural context of the present Based on the assumption that drama is especially inclined to draw on shared narratives for representations of love the book

demonstrates that love is both a window to remnants of the past in the present and a proper subject matter for drama in times in which the suitability of the dramatic form has been questioned Poet Lore, 1927 Love's Labour's Lost William Shakespeare, 2009-06-18 The New Cambridge Shakespeare appeals to students worldwide for its up to date scholarship and emphasis on performance The series features line by line commentaries and textual notes on the plays and poems Introductions are regularly refreshed with accounts of new critical stage and screen interpretations Edited and introduced by William C Carroll this edition of Love's Labour's Lost features a lively account of the play's performance history from 1632 to the present day Stage and screen productions of the late twentieth century receive particular attention and a range of international performances are also explored New trends in the scholarly criticism are discussed in the introduction as are the play's sources and historical contexts Carroll's text is freshly edited from the First Quarto published in 1598 and presents a highly readable modernised edition of Love's Labour's Lost a play known for its unorthodox ending and extraordinary use of language Staging the Lyric Sarah Berry, 2024-11-14 Verse drama is not a dead form but very much alive on the contemporary stage Drawing on plays from throughout the English speaking world including the United States United Kingdom Ireland and the Caribbean Staging the Lyric seeks to explain the 21st century resurgence of Anglophone verse drama tracing it back to an experimental impulse that is present in the modernist verse drama of a century ago Covering major writers including Derek Walcott Seamus Heaney Sylvia Plath Samuel Beckett Dorothy Sayers Djuna Barnes and Ntozake Shange it also encompasses lesser known and more recent poets and playwrights This modern verse drama differs from its ancient and Elizabethan antecedents as it is understood not as a genre in its own right but as a hybrid of the lyric and the dramatic Both modernist and contemporary writers take advantage of this hybridity as fertile ground for experimentation While they differ in their ideology and form this book contends that they are united by exploring the relationship between lyric and dramatic elements on stage and what these two different modes afford To demonstrate this continuity it traces a genealogy from contemporary plays by Joanna Laurens Joyelle McSweeney and David Grieg back to W B Yeats Gertrude Stein T S Eliot and W H Auden to reveal that the tensions that animate verse drama have stayed the same even as the strategies for staging them have evolved The book is divided into three sections Voice Words and Time each treating one feature that has been used to define the lyric Within these sections the chapters compare contemporary plays with modernist ones that experiment with the same point of tension between the lyric and the dramatic The Era Almanack, 1889 Chicken Soup with Barley Arnold Wesker, 2011-06-02 The kettle boils in 1936 as the fascists are marching Tea is brewed in 1946 with disillusion in the air at the end of the war Twenty years on in 1956 as rumours spread of Hungarian revolution the cup is empty Sarah Khan an East End Jewish mother is a feisty political fighter and a staunch communist Battling against the State and her shirking husband she desperately tries to keep her family together This landmark state of the nation play is a panoramic drama portraying the age old battle between realism and idealism Chicken
