Life's Moments: Mementos of Love Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-23

In Life's Moments: Mementos of Love we embark on a heartfelt journey through the realm of keepsakes exploring their profound impact on our lives and relationships. Through captivating stories and insightful reflections, this book delves into the art of curating memories, examining the emotional weight they carry and the role they play in shaping our personal and collective histories. We unravel the significance of place, objects, and relationships in shaping the keepsakes we cherish, uncovering the hidden narratives that these treasured possessions hold. From tangible mementos that evoke powerful emotions to intangible memories preserved in the recesses of our minds, keepsakes serve as anchors that connect us to our past, present, and future. As we navigate the ever-changing landscape of the digital age, this book confronts the challenges and opportunities presented by new technologies, pondering the future of keepsakes in a world where the ephemeral and the eternal converge. We contemplate the ethics of keeping and discarding, grappling with the responsibility of preserving our heritage while embracing the need for decluttering and sustainability. Ultimately, Life's Moments: Mementos of Love is an ode to the power of keepsakes, a celebration of the moments that define our lives. It is an invitation to embrace the beauty of nostalgia, to find solace in the tangible remnants of our past, and to create a legacy that will endure for generations to come. With warmth, wisdom, and a keen eye for detail, this book captures the essence of keepsakes, revealing their transformative power to shape our lives, strengthen our bonds, and inspire us to live with intention and purpose. It is a poignant and thought-provoking exploration of the human experience, reminding us of the enduring value of the moments we cherish and the keepsakes that keep them alive in our hearts and minds. Care and Commitment Jeffrey Blustein, 1991

In this book, Blustein presents the first study of an ethics of care, offering a detailed exploration of human care in its various guises: concern for and commitment to individuals, ideals, and causes. Blustein focuses on the nature and value of personal integrity and intimacy, and on the questions they raise for traditional moral theory. Among the topics considered are what is the nature of caring, as such, what do we and should we care about, what is implied by the claim that caring supports a sense of the meaningfulness of our lives, how does caring benefit the one who cares, and what is the good of care? How do we care about caring? Clearly and accessibly written, this book takes a fresh look at the issues surrounding personal values and relationships.

Love and the Politics of Intimacy Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2023-01-12 Love and the Politics of Intimacy articulates the concept of love within the relationship between the intimate and the social, rethinking how intimacy is conceived and experienced in the context of 21st-century neoliberalism. Reflecting on experiences of intimate, romantic, and sexual love, and the role of individual identity, these essays explore historical trajectories that have culminated in particular contemporary experiences of intimate love. Politically, this work links identity and articulation of the self to liberatory practices in the arenas of friendship romance and sex This interdisciplinary exploration of what love means in the 21st century incorporates academic writing and original creative work from established and emerging scholars around the globe Essays from across the humanities and social sciences including literary studies sociology psychology philosophy and gender studies interrogate the role of relational intimacy on topics of Love and Romance Love and Liberation and Love and Technologies of Intimacy The volume looks at the past present and future in search of inspiration for transforming and re charting the pathways of love seeking a more diverse and emancipatory model of social life and what it would take to restore love to social and institutional spaces
