William Shakespeare,1908 Through a Dream David J. Howard,2018-09-28 Fourteen years after the death of my mother and the day before my fiftieth birthday my father had a heart attack It made me realize just how fast life was travelling and that I would give anything to put life on hold As I drove to the hospital I wondered what it would be like to lose my last parent Sights along the way brought me to fond memories of my incredible childhood My entire family had always been there for me no matter what At the beginning of my career when I did need Dad the most he did come to my aid both physically and emotionally His actions that day helped shape me into the person I am today Now it was my turn to be there for Dad I got to know him all over again as I visited him daily during his twelve month stay at the hospital One cold wintery night he couldn't stop talking about the happy memories he had of our family over the years By the end of that evening we both fell fast asleep emotionally exhausted from all the tears and laughter With his hand twitching in mine I faded into the most beautiful life like dream where Mom came back to us for just a day A harlot's progress.
