Back to Shared Prosperity: The Growing Inequality of Wealth and Income in America Ray Marshall, 2015-05-20 To what extent are major social and political problems caused by basic income and unemployment trends Is it possible to restore the kind of broadly shared prosperity the U S once experienced before the early 1970s Some of the top economists of our time address these critical questions

Creating Consilience Edward Slingerland, Mark Collard, 2011-12-21 Calls for a consilient or vertically integrated approach to the study of human mind and culture have for the most part been received by scholars in the humanities with either indifference or hostility One reason for this is that consilience has often been framed as bringing the study of humanistic issues into line with the study of non human phenomena rather than as something to which humanists and scientists contribute equally The other major reason that consilience has yet to catch on in the humanities is a dearth of compelling examples of the benefits of adopting a consilient approach Creating Consilience is the product of a workshop that brought together internationally renowned scholars from a variety of fields to address both of these issues It includes representative pieces from workshop speakers and participants that examine how adopting such a consilient stance informed by cognitive science and grounded in evolutionary theory would concretely impact specific topics in the humanities examining each topic in a manner that not only cuts across the humanities natural science divide but also across individual humanistic disciplines By taking seriously the fact that science humanities integration is a two way exchange this volume takes a new approach to bridging the cultures of science and the humanities The editors and contributors formulate how to develop a new shared framework of consilience beyond mere interdisciplinarity in a way that both sides can accept Local Economic and Employment Development (LEED) Devolution and Globalisation Implications for Local Decision-makers OECD,2001-10-11 This book sets out a vision of devolved economic development policies capable of responding to the challenges of globalisation Natural Learning for a Connected World Renate Nummela Caine,2011-04-08 Why do video games fascinate kids so much that they will spend hours pursuing a difficult skill Why don t they apply this kind of intensity to their school work In their most penetrating and important work in years these two leaders in the field of brain based education build a bridge to the future of education with a dynamic model of teaching that works for all grade levels and in all cultural and ethnic groups The authors education model the Guided Experience Approach is based on the way that biologists see learning as a totally natural continuous interaction between perception and action Natural Learning for a Connected World provides a practical step by step description and successful examples from practice of this perception action cycle so that we can finally provide the learning environments essential for our children to thrive in the knowledge age Leadership as Masterpiece Creation Charles Spinosa,Matthew Hancocks,Haridimos Tsoukas,2024-03-19 How leaders can take the moral risks necessary to create masterpieces admirable distinctive and high achieving businesses that create meaningful lives for customers employees and themselves In Leadership as Masterpiece Creation Charles Spinosa Matthew Hancocks and Haridimos Tsoukas show how the humanities can help leaders create profitable masterpiece organizations Such organizations they assert are ones that possess the emotional and moral sensibilities of an artist the wisdom of a statesperson and the technical know how of commerce The authors draw on the works of Nietzsche Heidegger Bernard Williams Shakespeare and Machiavelli to conceptualize moral risk taking and then on the actions of Churchill Madam C J Walker Anita Roddick Jeff Bezos and others to show how the humanities can help create admirable businesses today As management consultants and educators steeped in the humanities themselves the authors discuss their experiences helping business leaders achieve successful masterpieces that bring good lives to many After describing our contemporary business environment and examples of leaders who have created masterpiece organizations the book turns to the basic skills of masterpiece creation managing moods building trust listening for difference and speaking truth to power Then come the senior skills moral risk taking and creating a masterpiece organizational culture strategy and leadership style Last the authors explain why their leaders build an economy of gratitude A culturally ambitious and refreshing read Leadership as Masterpiece Creation is an invaluable volume for leaders of every stripe who wish to act daily with moral imagination Four Powerful Strategies for Struggling Readers, Grades 3-8
