Lucifer Light:

Love and Its Meaning in the World Rudolf Steiner, 1998 Although Steiner did not often speak or write about love explicitly love is at the very heart of his whole body of work and the foundation of his hopes for humankind and the Earth Steiner teaches that without love nothing is possible with love however we can do everything Love is always love of the not yet To love is to create it is to selflessly enter the current of time that flows toward us from the future Reality true knowledge of reality is impossible without love Only through love can we truly know as we are know can we encounter the world and its beings in a living way Without love knowledge becomes manipulation domination control the world becomes a space of dead things But when we know through love we enter into a pattern of dynamic potentially redemptive relations and the world becomes a living world of beings working for the good This collection gathers all of Rudolf Steiner's main lectures and writings related to love From earthly love to the nature and function of spiritual love these pieces are essential reading for anyone concerned with the future of humanity and the Earth Love and Its Meaning in the World is essential reading for anyone who'd like to gain a deeper understanding of our true mission as human beings and the purpose of evolution on Earth Chapters include The Division of the Sexes Lucifer and Christ The Mission of Reverence The Buddha's Teaching of Compassion and Love Faith Love and Hope Love without spiritual love nothing spiritual can arise in evolution When we practice love cultivate love creative forces pour into the world For human beings love is the most important fruit of experience in the sensory world Once we really understand the nature of love or compassion we will find that love is the way spirit expresses its truth in the world of the senses We may even say that in love the spiritual world awakens in the physical The more truly a soul inhabits the spiritual worlds the more it experiences lovelessness and lack of compassion as a denial of spirit itself Rudolf Steiner

The Voice of the Seven Thunders George Kevyn Weber, 2014-07-21 There is no time for the people of the world to waste to decide to change their ways and their ways of living The world is in a crisis that it has not been in before Actually the world has been in countless crises in the past before disaster calamity or catastrophe struck the people of the earth We are not talking of crises of natural disasters calamities or catastrophes that have hit the earth we are talking about man made man engineered and man designed disasters calamities and catastrophes that have hit the world from time to time History is full of them and apart from those natural disasters caused by God or the Devil themselves the rest were caused by man themselves Now this revelation is not about the natural but about the spiritual Power mad dictators rulers and potentates the world over are normally the cause of these disasters calamities and catastrophes and nature has little to do with them although they did affect nature in some way or another Small and great Wars were started by whosoever caused them without any due regard of men's lives and the resultant horrors hardships and horrendous pain lived on in the hearts and lives of the people that survived No one can add these things up nor can they count the cost in human suffering misery and pain nor the cost of men's souls lost all for the sake of man's vanity The current synopsis is catchy and intriguing This synopsis is well written and it will entice readers into picking this book up and reading it Cynthia Sherman

Ulysses and the Irish God Frederick K. Lang, 1993 This is the most comprehensive and original of the studies dealing with Joyce's response to the idea of God accepted in Ireland and to the sacred images and rituals prevalent there It shows how in Ulysses he undermines and exploits the crucial elements of his rejected faith how he recalls the omnipotent Father to reveal his artistic powers the incarnated Son to celebrate his own human images and the consecrated host to imply his hidden spiritual presence Frederick K Lang has closely analyzed both Joyce's texts and his sources including important sources previously unidentified First he reveals that Joyce's transubstantiation of theology and liturgy in Ulysses is foreshadowed in his first short story There by setting the Latin Mass in an Irish home Joyce casts doubt upon the Church's ability to transform matter and in his revised version of the story he casts further doubt by including parallels with the Greek liturgy a rite he regarded as subversive of the Latin Mass Next Lang reinterprets Joyce's theory of literary art in light of its specific origins in Aquinas and the New Testament and in doing so he reveals the precise meaning of the term epiphany He proceeds to demonstrate that the earlier theory including the concept of epiphany underlies the Hamlet theory and that the famous reference to love is linked to God's narcissism and creativity How the literary artist resembles God is implied not only in the Hamlet theory but in the references to orthodox and heretical views of the Father-Son relation and the Eucharist views that explain Joyce's reincarnation as both Stephen Dedalus and Leopold Bloom In Ulysses the word reincarnation has an additional meaning Not only does Joyce's soul assume new flesh but so does the Word of God Along with the feast of Christ celebrated in Ireland on 16 June 1904 the novel assimilates first the Mass then the black mass and finally the Good Friday liturgy At the end of Ulysses Molly Bloom emerges as the genuine christine prophecied on the first page Joyce's offering of her body blood and water evokes both the Crucifixion and the Eucharist and thus makes flesh a Gospel read in Irish churches on the day he chose as Bloomsday This book is lucid and provocative Free of theory and jargon it not only gives Joyce scholars fresh information and new interpretations but would interest and enlighten any reader of Ulysses
