Eldridge Plays: 2 David Eldridge, 2011-11-01 This second collection of plays by David Eldridge showcases the development of one of the most impressive playwriting talents of recent years His plays combine emotional impact with complexity realistic characterisation with humour and are among the most powerfully moving dramas of contemporary playwriting Incomplete and Random Acts of Kindness moves between a dream story and real lives to tell an intricate complex story of a young man dealing with the break up of his family and the legacy of race responsibility Market Boy is a gloriously raucous rites of passage drama set in Romford Market in the 1980s Bringing a market jungle to life with the decade s Thatcherite capitalist fervour this spectacular savage and beautiful yarn is a tale looks at a boy s coming of age and loss of innocence The Knot of the Heart has themes of love family and addiction and explores the creeping onset of self destruction beneath a veneer of respectability Full of David Eldridge s trademark lyricism within everyday family life and interaction this is a play where emotions are high and relationships are sensitively written The Stock Da wa explodes the wafer thin bonhomie of a long awaited reunion into a blackly funny maelstrom of pique and long repressed truth telling and with shocking consequences Eldridge Plays 2 contains the definitive version of the four plays and an introduction by the author *Lucy v.
