Memorias De La Sangre:

Memorias de la sangre , Memorias y actas del ... ,1922 Memorias ,1898 Memorias Academia de medicina, Madrid,1797 Remapping Memory Jonathan Boyarin,1994 The essays in this book focus on contested memories in relation to time and space Within the context of several profound cultural and political conflicts in the contemporary world the contributors analyze historical self configurations of human groups and the construction by these groups of the spaces they shape and that shape them What emerges is a view of the state as a highly contingent artifact of groups vying for legitimacy whether through their own sense of insiderhood their control of positions within hierarchies or their control of geographical territories Boyarin s lead essay shows how the supposedly objective categories of space and time are in fact specific products of European modernity Each case study in turn addresses the re constitution of space time and memory in relation to an event either of historical significance like the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima or of cultural importance like the Indian preoccupation with reincarnation These ethnographic studies explore fundamental questions about the nature of memory the limits of politics and the complex links between them By focusing on personal and collective identity as the site where constructions of memory and dimensionality are tested shaped and effected the authors offer a new way of understanding how the politics of space time and memory are negotiated to bring people to terms with their history

Uehling,2004-11-26 In the early morning hours of May 18 1944 the Russian army under orders from Stalin deported the entire Crimean Tatar population from their historical homeland Given only fifteen minutes to gather their belongings they were herded into cattle cars bound for Soviet Central Asia Although the official Soviet record was cleansed of this affair and the name of their ethnic group was erased from all records and official documents Crimean Tatars did not assimilate with other groups or disappear This is an ethnographic study of the negotiation of social memory and the role this had in the growth of a national repatriation movement among the Crimean Tatars It examines the recollections of the Crimean Tatars the techniques by which they are produced and transmitted and the formation of a remarkably uniform social memory in light of their dispersion throughout Central Asia Through the lens of social memory the book covers not only the deportation and life in the diaspora but the process by which the children and grandchildren of the deportees returned and anchored themselves in the Crimean Penininsula a place they had never visited Memorias sobre la historia natural de la isla de Cuba Felipe Poey,1851 Memorias de la Real Academia Médico-Práctica de la Ciudad de Barcelona ,1798
