Wüstenberg, Aline Sierp, 2020-07-01 The dynamics of transnational memory play a central role in modern politics from postsocialist efforts at transitional justice to the global legacies of colonialism Yet the relatively young subfield of transnational memory studies remains underdeveloped and fractured across numerous disciplines even as nascent boundary crossing theories on topics such as multi vocal traveling or entangled remembrance suggest new ways of negotiating difficult political questions This volume brings together theoretical and practical considerations to provide transnational memory scholars with an interdisciplinary investigation into agency the who and the how of cross border commemoration that motivates activists and fascinates observers

Ritual and Memory Harvey Whitehouse, James Laidlaw, 2004-07-07 Based on 3 conferences held 2001 2003 Fire and Memory Luis Fernández-Galiano, 2000 The author reconstructs the movement from cold to warm architecture reintroduces energy to the discussion and reminds the reader the sense of touch is necessary to an understanding of the environment Illustrations of Trade Patricia Spyer, 2000 Trade popular memory and colonialism in Indonesia War and Embodied Memory Maria Berghs, 2016-02-17 How do you become an amputee war wounded victim or disabled person This book describes how an amputee and war wounded community was created after a decade long conflict 1991 2002 in Sierra Leone Beginning with a general socio cultural and historical analysis of what is understood by impairment and disability it also explains how disability was politically created both during the conflict and post conflict as violence became part of the everyday Despite participating in the neoliberal rebuilding of the nation state ex combatants and the security of the nation were the government's main priorities not amputee and war wounded people In order to survive people had to form partnerships with NGOs and participate in new discourses and practices around disability and rights thus accessing identities of disabled or persons with disabilities NGOs charities and religious organisations that understood impairment and disability were most successful at aiding this community of people However since discourse and practice on disability were mainly bureaucratic top down and not democratic about mainstreaming disability neoliberal organisations and INGOs have caused a new colonisation of consciousness and amputee and war wounded people have had to become skilled in negotiating these new forms of subjectivities to survive Footfalls Echo in the Memory Verner C. Bickley, 2009-12-14 The Education Service was a vital arm of the British Colonial Service while the British Council has been paramount in promoting the English language and culture overseas But are both agents of British colonialism and neo colonialism Or are both simply altruistic purveyors of language and culture to a wider world Verner Bickley as an Education Officer in the British Colonial Service and in the British Council provides the answer and shows that educational and cultural values were paramount and important in themselves and through the medium of the near global English language vitally important in both culture and technical training Life in overseas postings was set against a backdrop of turbulent international relations following World War II including service in the Royal Navy in India and Ceylon soon to become independent Sri Lanka Bickley was Education Officer in Singapore during the tumultuous 1950s at the time of the Malayan Emergency and in the lead up to independence in 1957 which he announced on Radio Malaya His service with the British Council began with a posting to Burma during the premiership of U Nu struggling with ethnic problems and to be ousted by military coup And during his time in Indonesia the British Embassy was burnt to the ground by rioters Later service was in Japan basking in its success as an emerging economic powerhouse This is an essentially warm and human story enlivened especially during the British Council period by a succession of diverse personalities including royalty British and Thai as well as writers like Anthony Burgess Graham Greene and Willis Hall and actors such as Donald Sinden Patrick Stewart and Max Adrian Between Trauma and Memory Neha Soman, B. The Memory of Bones Stephen Houston, David Stuart, Karl Taube, 2006-06-01 All of human experience flows from bodies that feel express emotion and think about what such experiences mean But is it possible for us embodied as we are in a particular time and place to know how people of long ago thought about the body and its experiences In this groundbreaking book three leading experts on the Classic Maya ca AD 250 to 850 marshal a vast array of evidence from Maya iconography and hieroglyphic writing as well as archaeological findings to argue that the Classic Maya developed a coherent approach to the human body that we can recover and understand today The authors open with a cartography of the Maya body its parts and their meanings as depicted in imagery and texts They go on to explore such issues as how the body was replicated in portraiture how it experienced the world through ingestion the senses and the emotions how the body experienced war and sacrifice and the pain and sexuality that were intimately bound up in these domains how words often heaven sent could be embodied and how bodies could be blurred through spirit possession From these investigations the authors convincingly demonstrate that the Maya conceptualized the body in varying roles as a metaphor of time as a gendered sexualized being in distinct stages of life as an instrument of honor and dishonor as a vehicle for communication and consumption as an exemplification of beauty and ugliness and as a dancer and song maker Their findings open a new avenue for empathetically understanding the ancient Maya as living human beings who experienced the world as we do through the body
