Lives Edward H. Thompson, Edward H. Thompson (Jr.), 1994-06-07 In this multidisciplinary portrait of men and their concerns in later life the contributors use both a life course and gendered perspective to point out that the image and self image of men are continually reconstructed throughout the life cycle Issues examined include the position of older men in society and the changes wrought in their status and roles over time men's relationships to spouse children grandchildren and friends and policy implications Kubrick's Men Richard Rambuss, 2021-03-02 A provocative re-reading of Stanley Kubrick's work and its focus on masculine desire The work of Stanley Kubrick amounts to a sustained reflection on the male condition past present and future The persistent theme of his filmmaking is less violence or sex than it is the pressurized exertion of masculinity in unusual or extreme circumstances where it may be taxed or exaggerated to various effects tragic and comic or metamorphosed distorted and even undone The stories that Kubrick's movies tell range from global nuclear politics to the unpredictable sexual dynamics of a marriage from a day in the life of a New York City prizefighter preparing for a nighttime bout to the evolution of humankind These male melodramas center on sociality and asociality They feature male doubles pairs and rivals They explore the romance of men and their machines and men as machines They figure intensely conflicted forms of male sexual desire And they are also very much about male manners style taste and art Examining the formal thematic and theoretical affiliations between Kubrick's three bodies of work his photographs his documentaries and his feature films Kubrick's Men offers new vantages on to the question of gender and sexuality including the first extended treatment of homosexuality in Kubrick's male-oriented work An International Psychology of Men Chris Blazina, David S.
