Film Restoration L. Enticknap,2013-11-13 This is the first monograph length work intended to enable readers with a humanities background and the general public to understand what the processes and techniques of film restoration do and do not involve attempting to integrate systematically a discussion about related technological and cultural issues

Maurice Tourneur Harry Waldman,2008-11-13 Maurice Tourneur 1876 1961 the French and American director actor and theatrical manager is the focus of this work He began in France during the years 1912 1914 and then spent 1914 1926 in New Jersey and Hollywood directing more than 50 films using his French interests and talents to help shape the industry and bringing stylization to the screen

Uplift Cinema Allyson Nadia Field,2015-05-22 In Uplift Cinema Allyson Nadia Field recovers the significant yet forgotten legacy of African American filmmaking in the 1910s Like the racial uplift project this cinema emphasized economic self sufficiency education and respectability as the keys to African American progress Field discusses films made at the Tuskegee and Hampton Institutes to promote education as well as the controversial The New Era which was an antiracist response to D W Griffith s The Birth of a Nation She also shows how Black filmmakers in New York and Chicago engaged with uplift through the promotion of Black modernity Uplift cinema developed not just as a response to onscreen racism but constituted an original engagement with the new medium that has had a deep and lasting significance for African American cinema Although none of these films survived Field s examination of archival film ephemera presents a method for studying lost films that opens up new frontiers for exploring early film culture

Down from the Attic John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, 2016-06-22 Much has been written and rewritten about classic horror and science fiction films like Nosferatu and Metropolis as well as not so classic pictures like Bride of the Monster and The Hideous Sun Demon Yet some genre films have fallen through the cracks The 24 films some elusive some easily found on YouTube examined in this book all suffered critical neglect and were prematurely stacked in the attic The authors bring them back into the light beginning with Der Tunnel 1915 about the building of a transatlantic tunnel and ending with The Emperor s Baker The Baker s Emperor 1951 a bizarre Marxist take on the Golem legend A variety of thrillers are covered Fog 1933 Return of the Terror 1934 Forgotten Faces 1928 along with such sci fi leaps into the future as The Sky Ranger 1921 High Treason 1929 and Just Imagine 1930 Early adaptations include The Man Who Laughs 1921 The Monkey s Paw 1923 Hound of the Baskervilles 1937 and Sweeney Todd 1928 Rare stills and background material are included in a discussion of Hispanic vintage horror The career of exploitation auteur Bud Pollard The Horror 1933 is examined

Reading Without Maps? Den Tandt Christophe (ed.), 2005 Among the intellectual debates of the last forty years the critique of cultural canons has attracted the highest share of public attention stirring academic educational and media controversies on both sides of the Atlantic Postmodernism feminism postcolonialism and multiculturalism have refashioned the attitudes of educators and audiences towards cultural memory opening up curricula to subjects and traditions previously excluded from the humanities Predictably these new critical practices have triggered heated responses from commentators fearing that culture and education might thereby be deprived of their capacity to provide audiences and learners with proper groundings and landmarks The present volume gathers contributions that throw light on multiple aspects of this reconfiguration of cultural memory It brings together essays focusing on the dynamics of canon formation in several fields literature drama film and music Contributors examine how writers and communities find their bearings in a cultural landscape more complex than that previously envisaged by advocates of the Great Tradition Specifically the present essays throw light on the status of modernist writing drama in English or popular genres within the new canonical topography elaborated at the turn of the twenty first century
