en Kommunisme
deur prof. dr. D. J. Kotzé Deel Drie
van Nasionalisme as Historiese Faktor

Die twee belangrikste ideologieë van die twintigste eeu is nasionalisme en kommunisme. Dit is egter twee ideologieë wat mekaar teoreties uitsluit. 'n Nasionalis gaan van die standpunt uit dat die beginsel „nasia” sentraal geplaas moet word. Die eie nasia moet die hoogste liefde, eer, trou en lojaliteit ontvang. Daarteenoor glo die kommunist dat die beginsel „klas” sentraal geplaas moet word, wat in staatkundige opsig op kosmopolitisme moet uitloop, en uiteindelik op 'n staatlose samelewing. □ Die nasionalisme beskou die kommunisme tereg as een van sy grootste gevare, en omgekeerd. Tog slaag die kommunisme dikwels daarin om nasionalisme tot sy eie voordeel te gebruik. Maar nasionalisme kan ook gebruik word om kommunisme suksesvol te bestry. □ In hierdie derde en laaste band oor die nasionalisme as historiese faktor gee prof. Kotzé 'n duidelike en diepgaande oorsig oor die oorspronklike Marxisme en sy ontwikkeling tot op hede, o.a. ook in Afrika en Rooi China. Die implikasies daarvan vir die nasionalisme in onafhanklike en onderhorige gebiede word indringend behandel en met insiggewende voorbeelde toegelig.

Nationalism and Anticommunism in Twentieth-Century South Africa Ruhan Fourie, 2024-03-19 This book investigates Afrikaner anticommunism in South Africa in the twentieth century focusing on the Dutch Reformed Church DRC Following contemporary understandings of anticommunism as a fluid ideological stance it demonstrates that the deeply held anticommunist convictions of ordinary twentieth century Afrikaners is more than merely a natural result of global politics It examines how the DRC the institution with the widest reach and deepest influence in the everyday lives of Afrikaners played a significant role in perpetuating an anticommunist imagination amongst twentieth century Afrikaners The text explores the critical role the DRC fulfilled in legitimising overt opposition to and suppression of communism in all its perceived manifestations including black dissent whilst also creating an Afrikaner imagination in which the volk remained convinced of the ever present communist threat and of its own role as a bulwark against communism The church s moral standing in Afrikaner society also made it susceptible to right wing opportunists gaining mainstream political clout which this monograph also exposes and explains It ultimately concludes that anticommunism functioned as a vehicle for nationalist unity and uniformity a paradigm for Afrikaner identity and a legitimiser of the volk s perceptions of its imagined moral high ground throughout the twentieth century It will appeal to readers interested in anticommunism Christian nationalism right wing networks racism and apartheid culture and society Meer oor PJ van der Merwe Margaretha Schaefer, 2017-07-17 e Saam met Berigte uit die Dorsland het die historikus se dogter Margaretha Schaefer ook Meer oor P J van der Merwe saamgestel Dit vorm as t ware n tweeluik Baie interessant is onder meer koerantberigte oor Van der Merwe se openbare optredes in 1940 terwyl die Tweede Wereldoorlog gewoed het Hy was toe nog nie 30 jaar oud nie en het pas teruggekeer van Nederland waar hy sy doktrale studies afgehandel het In die bundel is verskeie resensies opgeneem wat Van der Merwe oor leidende historici se werk geskryf het Dit sluit ook in evaluasies van ander historici van sy werk en van die dosente in die Geskiedenis departement aan die U S waarvan hy van 1955 tot 1977 die effektiewe hoof was n Opstel deur F A van Jaarsveld waarin hy Van der Merwe en sy werk ontleed is een van die mees uitstaande bydraes van hierdie historikus Dit is egter die essay getitel Trek deur die Australiese historikus W K Hancock wat in die tydskrif The Economic History Review gepubliseer is wat beter as alle ander pogings slaag om die unieke bydrae van Van der Merwe tot die Suid Afrikaanse historiografie te beskryf en te ontleed e Hemann Giliomee Communism and South Africa D. J. Kotzé, 1979 The Social Evolution of Indonesia F. Tichelman, 2012-12-06 At a fairly early stage of socialism s penetration into the Afro Asian world a handful of European social democrats established an Indian Social Democratic Association ISDV They did so in a country Indonesia that was economically little developed and far away from any of the centres of European socialism and Asiatic radical national ism The ISDV was soon able to bring its influence to bear on sec tions of the urban proletariat and to build up an Indonesian revol utionary movement This occurred in sharp competition with a nascent nationalist leadership and then without the usual intermediary role played by radicalizing groups of native intelligentsia In this way Dutch social democrats laid the foundations for one of the first communist parties in Asia and Africa a party which was destined to become one of the few communist mass parties of the Third World However in contrast to the major communist movements of China Vietnam this Indonesian party was to demonstrate a basic weakness successive and catastrophic defeats If we leave out Japan the only non Western country where a capitalist industrial revolution occurred we see that foreign and particularly Western minorities frequently did play a dominant role in the initial and formative phases of the socialist and workers movements of the Afro Asiatic world

Historia, 2008 Democracy and Authoritarianism in Indonesia and Malaysia S. Alatas, 1997-10-29 The fact that the Malaysian state has managed to maintain a relatively democratic regime while an authoritarian regime came to power in Indonesia has never been the focus of historical and comparative analyses despite certain cultural social and historical affinities between these two countries This book takes a look at contrasting class structures and alliances elite cohesion state strength as well as differences in political challenges to the state in order to understand two different paths to post colonial state formation Breaking the Chains of Oppression of the Indonesian People Heri Akhmadi, 2009-12 From its establishment in 1954 part of the mandate of Cornell's Modern Indonesia Project has been the translation and publication in English of important documents that would otherwise have been unavailable to many of those interested in Indonesia's social and political history These have included the writings of Hatta A K Pringgodigdo Simatupang Sjahrir Sudjatmoko Sukarno Supomo Widjojo and Wilopo Also included in this coverage of the Translation Series have been documents unavailable even in the original Dutch or Indonesian such as the long suppressed report by the Netherlands East Indies Government's Coolie Budget Commission Living Conditions of Plantation Workers and Peasants on Java which we published twenty five years ago The translation here presented of Heri Akhmadi's defense statement at his trial is of a similar genre for despite its intrinsic significance and its relevance to an appreciation of how the leaders of a new generation of educated Indonesians view their country's government and its major social economic and political problems it too has been suppressed To prevent this important insight into the current Indonesian situation becoming buried and unavailable we are pleased to help provide for the dissemination it deserves I would predict that a quarter of a century from now Heri Akhmadi's statement may well be regarded as having at least as much importance to understanding present day Indonesia as the Coolie Budget Commission report had for an earlier period in the country's history Heri Akhmadi was elected by the student body of the Bandung Institute of Technology one of the most prestigious institutions of higher learning in the country as Chairman of their Student Council and their principal representative Since his views are close to those of the elected student leaders from more than two dozen other universities and colleges who were arrested at the same time his statement can be regarded as representative of the ideas of the intellectual vanguard of the contemporary generation of Indonesian students which despite ongoing efforts to suppress them are likely to have a significant effect on their country's history. Heri Akhmadi and these other student leaders were arrested and jailed in 1978 following widespread student protest at Suharto's unopposed election for another term as President. As a consequence they were charged with having insulted the head of state and it is because of the nature of this charge that Heri Akhmadi's defense statement takes the form it does. What the government considers as an insult to the head of state is what the students see as valid criticism of its policies. It is to these criticisms that Heri Akhmadi addresses his defense statement that we have here published. George McT Kahin, January 1981

Canadian Review of Studies in Nationalism, 1978 Nationalism D. J. Kotzé, 1981 Experiments with Marxism-Leninism in Cold War Southeast Asia Matthew Galway, Marc H. Oppen, 2022-09-21 One of the most contentious theatres of the global conflict between capitalism and communism was Southeast Asia. From the 1920s until the end of the Cold War, the region was racked by international and internal wars that claimed the lives of millions and fundamentally altered societies in the region for generations. Most of the 11 countries that compose Southeast Asia were host to the development of sizable communist parties that actively and sometimes violently contested for political power. These parties were the object of fierce repression by European colonial powers, post-independence governments and the United States. Southeast Asian communist parties were also the object of a great deal of analysis both during and after these conflicts. This book brings together a host of expert scholars, many of whom are either Southeast Asia based or from the countries under analysis, to present the most expansive and comprehensive study to date on ideological and practical experiments with Marxism-Leninism in Southeast Asia. The bulk of this edited volume presents the contents of these revolutionary ideologies on their own terms and their transformations in praxis by using primary source materials that are free of the preconceptions and distortions of counterinsurgent narratives. A unifying strength of this work is its focus on using primary sources in the original languages of the insurgents themselves.

Communist Eschatology Francis Nigel Lee, 1974 Hamka's Great Story James R. Rush, 2016-06-07 Hamka's Great Story presents Indonesia through the eyes of an impassioned popular thinker who believed that Indonesians and Muslims everywhere should embrace the thrilling promises of modern life and navigate its dangers with Islam as their compass. Hamka Haji Abdul Malik Karim Amrullah was born when Indonesia was still a Dutch colony and came of age as the nation itself was emerging through tumultuous periods of Japanese occupation, revolution and early independence. He became a prominent author and controversial public figure. In his lifetime of prodigious writing, Hamka advanced Islam as a liberating, enlightened and hopeful body of beliefs around which the new nation could form and prosper. He embraced science, human agency, social justice and democracy, arguing that these modern concepts comported with Islam's true teachings. Hamka unfolded this big idea, his Great Story, decade by decade in a vast outpouring of writing that included novels and poems and chatty newspaper columns, biographies, memoirs and histories and lengthy studies of theology, including a thirty-volume commentary on the Holy Qur'an. In introducing this influential figure and his ideas to a wider audience, this sweeping biography also illustrates a profound global process: how public debates about religion are shaping national societies in the postcolonial world.

History Making and Present Day Politics Hans Erik Stolten, 2007. In this collection, some of South Africa's most distinguished historians and social scientists present their views on the importance of history and heritage for the transformation of the South African society. Although popular use of history helped remove apartheid, the study of history lost status during the transition process. Some of the reasons for this, like the nature of the negotiated revolution, social demobilization and individualization, are analyzed in this book. The combination of scholarly work with an active role in changing society has been a central concern in South African history writing. This book warns against the danger of history being caught between reconciliation, commercialization and political correctness. Some of the articles critically examine the role of historians in ideological debates on gender, African agency, Afrikaner anti-communism, early South African socialism and the role of the business world during late apartheid. Other contributions explore continuing controversies on the politics of public history in post-apartheid South Africa, describe the implementation of new policies for history education or investigate the use of applied history in the land restitution process and in the TRC. The authors also examine a range of new government and private initiatives in the practical use of history, including the establishment of new historical entertainment parks and the conversion of museums and heritage sites. For readers interested in nation-building processes and identity politics, this book provides valuable insight.

Situated Testimonies Laurie J. Sears, 2013-06-30. The Indonesian writer Pramoedya Ananta Toer made a distinction between a downstream literary reality and an upstream historical reality Pramoedya suggested that literature has an effect on the upstream flow of history and that it can in fact change history In Situated Testimonies Laurie Sears illuminates this process by considering a selection of Dutch Indies and Indonesian literary works that span the twentieth century and beyond and by showing how authors like Louis Couperus and Maria Dermo t help retell and remodel history Sears sees certain literary works as situated testimonies bringing ineffable experiences of trauma into narrative form and preserving something of the dread and enchantment that animated the past These literary works offer a method of reading the emotional traces that historians may fail to witness or record traces that elude archival constructions where political factors or colonial conditions have influenced processes of what is preserved and how it is shaped Sears use of Donna Haraway s notion of situatedness reiterates the idea that all of us speak from somewhere Testimony especially eyewitness testimony is a gold standard in historical methodology and the authors of literary works are eyewitnesses of their time But the works of authors like Tirta Adhi Soerjo and Soewarsih Djojopoespito are first of all written as literature and literary or stylistic devices cannot be ignored Sears finds substantial evidence of the movement of psychoanalytic theories between Europe and the Indies Indonesia throughout the twentieth century She concludes that far from being only a Jewish or European discourse psychoanalysis is a transnational discourse of desire that has influenced Indies and Indonesian writers for more than a century Psychoanalytic ideas and the suggestion by French psychoanalyst Jean Laplanche and Indonesian author Ayu Utami that memories like literature can move us back and forth in time have inspired Sears thinking about historical archives literature and trauma Soekarno s words haunt this book as he haunts Indonesia s past Situated Testimonies rewrites portions of the literary and social history of Indonesia over a sweep of many decades Historians scholars of literary theory and Indonesianists will all be interested in the book s insights on how colonial and postcolonial novels of the Indies and Indonesia illuminate nationalist narratives and imperial histories
